PRAYER AND GOD'S PROTECTION

Last week's bulletin had already gone to print before the terrible attack on August 27th at Annunciation church in Minneapolis, MN. Soon after the tragic news that morning, our local church and school officials in the Diocese of Pittsburgh were calling for prayers for the victims and their families, while addressing the rippling impact this event would have on all the parochial schools throughout our own region. We continue to lift up to the Lord all those directly affected by this event. Prayer is foremost what we do, with trust in God continually for the welfare of all our families and youngsters.

Over the last several years at Divine Redeemer Parish and Saint James School, we have greatly enhanced the security systems in our facilities and campuses. These technology upgrades are continually monitored and tweaked, while keeping our staff and faculty better connected with each other and with the agencies we rely on for protection. Moreover, the Diocese of Pittsburgh upgraded its own security force and protocols in recent years to provide better coverage for our schools and churches, adding a much-needed layer of vigilance and support, as well as instruction and guidance in these difficult times.

At the first Saint James School Mass after the attack in Minnesota, our community gathered again, certainly not without concern and questions, which is natural. Providentially, the Gospel that day highlighted Jesus' commanding presence with His people, despite the challenges they were facing. The students were reminded of the importance of always looking to their adult leaders who are committed to keeping them safe, listening and following closely to instruction, and in prayer to God, most of all.

RESPECT LIFE

The parish Respect Life Committee receives many urgent requests for infant and children's clothing, especially with the change of seasons. Please consider placing your family's outgrown, gently-used clothing and shoes in our bin outside St. James or our box at the back of St. Mary's. We joyfully accept sizes newborn through young adult, as well as diapers (all sizes) and wipes.

The generosity of Divine Redeemer parishioners has enabled us to say "YES" every time a family in need has contacted us, Deo gratias!
