From Father Brian

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME!

Our parish welcomes a new candidate into the Catholic Faith this weekend. Michael Bock came to us last year and began the formal process of prayer and study with our OCIA team on Monday evenings. Michael has discerned and has been formed to freely say 'yes' to all that we believe. We happily receive him as a fully-initiated, Catholic Christian this Sunday at the 11:00am Mass, when he makes his Profession of Faith and receives first Holy Communion and Confirmation.

time, we recognize the importance of ensuring that our worship together is also safe and secure.

Working closely with the Diocesan Safety and Security Department, our diocesan police officers, and our parish leadership, we have reviewed our school Mass procedures. Because each church building and campus are unique, our diocesan safety and security office has worked with us to customize procedures based on our specific needs.

The following general guidance has been provided for school Masses. We will keep you updated should anything change:

- Officer presence: Diocesan police officer will continue to cover weekly school Masses.
- Monitored entry: One main entrance, the front doors, will remain open and monitored.
- Secured doors: Other exterior doors will be locked from the outside. Safe emergency exits will be accessible.
- Directional signage: Clear signs will guide parishioners and visitors to the monitored entrance.
- Limited publicity: To safeguard our students, school Mass times will not be posted publicly in bulletins, on websites, or on social media. Mass times will be shared directly with school families by the school.

Thank you for your prayers, your understanding, and your continued support of our parish and Saint James School.

SECURITY UPDATE

Each week, our parish is blessed to welcome students, teachers, and families for one or more school Masses. These liturgies are a joyful reminder that Christ is at the center of Catholic education. At the same

Divine Redeemer Parish presents an International Exhibit on the

EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES OF THE WORLD

ST. JAMES GATHERING SPACE - OCTOBER 17-23
ST. MARY MEENAN CENTER - OCTOBER 24-26

From October 20th to 24th, sixty panels from the International Exhibition of the Eucharistic Miracles of the World will be on display at Divine Redeemer Parish. The exhibition was designed and created by Saint Carlo Acutis, a young man who used his gifts as a computer whiz to create a website cataloging every Eucharistic Miracle recorded in history. In 2006, he passed away at the age of 15 due to a rare type of leukemia. He was beatified only 14 years later in 2020 and canonized on September 7, 2025. By viewing this collection, you can experience the history of these documented miracles, as well as learn about the faithful life of Saint Carlo and his journey to Sainthood.

Saint Carlo Acutis, pray for us!
