◆ play. This is called an audible.
◆ In real life, shifting cir◆ cumstances call for the same
◆ kind of adaptation & openness
◆ to change.

St. Paul says he becomes all things to all so as to save as many as possible. That takes some agility.

In the Gospel, Jesus is moving from town to town. He'll tell one person to follow him, another to go home, another to bathe.

To live a spiritually vibrant stay alert to the ‘audibles’
 us. To hear God’s audibles
 y play into a better future.

Anyone interested in helping burn palms and make ashes, let Fr Michael know.

Remember, you are dust and unto dust you shall return.

Our Parish Councils. We would like to thank Barb Lingen from Mantador and Arnel Onchuck & Jane Althoff from Mooreton for their faithful services these past years. We are the better for your many contributions. In Mantador, we welcome Daryl Foertsch as a new Council member, and Jackie Lingen as the new Lay Representative appointed by pastor. In Mooreton, we welcome Chance Pausch & Neil Hipp to the Council, and Joe Braun & Michelle Johnson as our new Lay Representatives appointed by the pastor.

A German shepherd, a Doberman and a cat die and go to Heaven. God ask each of them what they believe in. The German shepherd goes first, "Discipline, training & loyalty to my master." "Good," God says. "You may sit on my right. Now, Doberman, what do you believe in?"

The Doberman answers, "Love, care and protecting my master." "Excellent," says God. You may sit on my left. Now cat, it's your turn. What do you believe in?"

The cat replies, "I believe you're sitting in my seat."

Why is bread like the sun?
It rises in the yeast,
And sets in the waist.
