NEWMAN WEEKLY

CAPE WEST CINEMA PRESENTS

MONDAY OCTOBER 28TH
4:00PM | 7:00PM | 7:05PM

In 1931, Jesus appeared to Faustina Kowalska, clothed in a white robe and emanating two large rays from his side and asked her to paint this image along with the phrase, "Jesus, I trust in You." He wanted her to spread the message of His mercy around the world. He promised that anyone who venerated this image would not perish. The gripping new docudrama, Faustina: Love and Mercy sheds new light, citing scientific evidence, on the visions of Faustina. Shot in the U.S., Poland and Lithuania, the film is a compelling hybrid of dramatization and documentary-style storytelling that will leave viewers in awe of this spectacular account of divine friendship.
