REFLECTION

PENTECOST GIFTS

PEACE BE WITH YOU! Twice Jesus says to the disciples: "Peace be with you." Only after that does Jesus breathe the Holy Spirit on them. What follows is the power to forgive. Peace is the prerequisite to receiving the Holy Spirit. After the Spirit is breathed on us, we are given the power to forgive.

To understand the Holy Spirit is to receive peace first then forgiveness of sins afterwards. Peace comes from Jesus. Forgiveness comes from the peace Jesus gives. When we are at peace, revenge evaporates and hatred ceases, and then it is easy to forgive.. To find Jesus is to look at the cross. To see God is to wonder at His creation. To feel the Holy Spirit is to experience true peace and receive forgiveness.

RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT! As Jesus completes His mission, by His dying and rising, he gives the Holy Spirit as He breathes on the disciples. Jesus' action recalls the creation account of God forming man out of clay and blowing into it the breath of life so that man became a living being. Jesus is transforming the disciples into new persons, giving them new life. They are recreated into a new and lasting relationship with God. They are made whole and one again with God.

The Holy Spirit takes the place, and continues the work, of Jesus when He returns to the Father. The role of the Holy Spirit is twofold:

First, the Holy Spirit guides us on the way of salvation. He leads us to the Father. He is our way to Jesus. We must listen to the prompting of the Spirit and do what the Spirit advises us to do.

Second, the Holy Spirit makes us understand the words, the ways, and the will of Jesus. The Spirit gives the courage and strength, as he did with the apostles, to bear witness to the gospel to the point of death. The Spirit revitalizes and renews us, like the apostles, to live the faith.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful and enkindle them in the fire of your love.
