REFLECTION

THE TRANSFIGURATION

This Sunday is different because we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. Jesus was transfigured before the eyes of his Apostles. Two great men of the Old Testament appeared, Moses and Elijah. The transfiguration of Christ is a glimpse of his divinity and glory. This event is a sign of encouragement for the Apostles so that they will not lose hope during and after the crucifixion.

However, Peter, James and John did not understand the message of the Transfigured Messiah. The apostles even though they lack understanding, they themselves were transfigured when the Risen Jesus appeared to them and sent them out to preach the kingdom of God. Peter will say, we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. (2 Peter 1:16)

Transfiguration is important for us Catholics because every time we go to confession we are transfigured. When we do good works, charity, prayers, and many spiritual exercises we are transformed into a new person. Jesus is inviting us to make our lives bright and white, a symbolism of holiness and obedience to God. Today's Sunday celebration is also a teaching moment for us to recall the basic doctrine of our Church about Jesus Christ that He is our God and Savior.
