REFLECTION

Life from Death

We are just one week away from the beginning of Holy Week. Today's Second Reading and Gospel passage already introduce us to the basic truth that our salvation is the fruit of the dramatic death of Jesus Christ. It was through His sacrificial death that the life-giving New Covenant was sealed.

Life from death is also the challenge addressed to each of us. If we want the life of grace to grow within us, we must be prepared to die to our pride and any other form of negative passion.

It is only when we die to our lower selves that we can start living unto the Lord. Then we are active partners in the New Covenant.
