Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Padre

November 16, 2025

Is it a sin to swear if I'm not taking the Lord's name in vain?

As hard as it might be to comprehend, not every bad habit is a sin. Human weakness is sometimes nothing more than human weakness. An exclamation of anger or frustration is often nothing more than an expression of how you feel. When we assign "sin" to every human action or imperfection, we trivialize sin. When we see sin around every corner and in every possible human interaction, we might very well become numb to the presence of real sin when it occurs. The possibility of sin is a wonderful motivator to help us adjust our choices and change our behaviors, but it need not be the only option.

Monitor your speech because you want to be a good person, a mature person, a caring person. That is a virtuous reason and worth the effort. At the same time, remain vigilant, as any good person who desires to be in relationship with the Lord, and choose behaviors that model a good Christian life. Examine your choices and decisions, and when you recognize the presence of sin, be willing to acknowledge that it is sinful, confess it, and then graciously accept the forgiveness and mercy of the Lord. ●

ST. BONIFACE FESTIVAL FUNDRAISING UPDATE: We are grateful to share that $6585 has been collected so far. Thank you to everyone who has contributed so generously.
Guild Board Officers

WHY ARE THEY COMING HERE?! Religious freedom, the potato famine, the Prussian Wars, the promise of work... These are the reasons many of our ancestors, Grandpas and Grandmas, gave us when they shared their stories of hardship in their homeland. Join us: Sunday, November 16 at 2:30 pm, in the Gathering Space at Holy Family Parish. Hear several members of our Hispanic Community share their stories of why they came to the United States. Just as our ancestors had high hopes for a better life, these “future” ancestors of U.S. Citizens have hopes of safety and a good life.

CDA MEETING: Tuesday, November 18 at 5:30 p.m. We will have the Reception of New Members and potluck in Hynes Hall. Bring a dish to share. New members are welcome; we would love to have you join us! If you have any questions, please reach out to Sue at 641.330.2133 or Nancy at 641.229.5395. Looking forward to getting together!

COMMUNAL RECONCILIATION: Join us on Sunday, November 23, 1:30 p.m. at Holy Family for Communal Reconciliation. Several priests will be available. We soon will begin the season of Advent.

Totus Tuus Missionaries Needed: Do you know any college age men and women from your parishes who would be great role models for younger Catholics? The Archdiocese is looking for college-aged disciples of Jesus to serve on teams with other men and women like them during the summer of 2026. Totus Tuus missionaries serve parishes across the Archdiocese throughout the summer leading songs, teaching, performing skits, and sharing witness talks with the children and youth of the Archdiocese. This is a paid position with training and most expenses provided during the summer. Please encourage anyone who would be excellent at this to apply.

General information about Totus Tuus can be found at www.dbqarch.org/Totus-Tuus. Application information can be found at <https://dbqarch.org/2026-totus-tuus-missionary-application-information>. Please contact Joanne Pohland (j.pohland@dbqarch.org) with any questions.

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS: Thursday, November 27, 9 a.m. at Holy Family Parish. All are welcome to attend.

Livestream with Pope Leo XIV: For the first time ever, a pope will engage directly with young people at the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC). The encounter will take place on Friday, November 21, 2025, at 9:15 am (Central) during NCYC’s morning general session. Pope Leo XIV will participate in a 45-minute real-time dialogue with young people gathered in Indianapolis and with thousands more joining from around the world via livestream. The event will be broadcasted globally by EWTN and can also be viewed through “NCYC Digital Experience”. If you register for the Digital Experience, you will receive a livestream link for Pope Leo’s address, access to an exclusive pre-event on November 11, and resources to bring the Pope’s message to life.

Register for the free digital experience a NCYC.us/digitalexperience.

Even if your parish is not coordinating an NCYC group this year, this is a great opportunity to gather key leaders in your parish, to pray for the young people of our country, and to prayerfully listen to the questions and hopes of our young people and the guidance of our Holy Father.

HOLY FAMILY INTENTION CARDS: There are intentions cards found at the back of the Church and at the Pastoral Office for any Holy Family parishioners who chooses to complete one. Please return to Becky by December 31, 2025. Thank you.

A Prayer for Priests

Jesus, Shepherd of Wisdom and Joy, We lift up to You our priests serving in the Archdiocese of Dubuque, and all priests in our nation and around the world.

We remember the priests who baptized us, those who have absolved us from our sins, and those who offer to us the gift and sacrifice of your Precious Body and Blood in the Eucharist.

We pray for newly-ordained priests who are beginning their first assignments. Grant them confidence, steadfast faith, and vision as they experience the joys and challenges of answering your call.

We pray for priests who have recently moved and are beginning a new chapter of ministry. As they say goodbye to beloved communities and step into new ones, grant them peace in the unknown, courage in this transition, and joy in the journey ahead. May the seeds they have sown bear lasting fruit, and may they be received with open hearts by those they now serve.

We pray for priests who remain in their current parishes and pastoral assignments. Grant them continued strength, wisdom, and perseverance to share the good news of the Gospel, and to lead the Catholic faithful in the footsteps of Jesus.

We pray for our retired priests, those who continue to serve the faithful in many ways, those whose mission it is to intercede with their prayers, and those who experience loneliness or desolation or know the challenges of old age.

Strengthen all these holy men in their priestly vocation, renew their zeal for souls, and surround them with support, kindness, and love.

Help all priests to be instruments of your divine grace through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and bless them abundantly both now and for eternity.

Through the intercession of St. John Vianney, may they be shepherds after your own heart.

Amen.

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)
Malachi 3:19-20a / 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12 /
Luke 21:5-19

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

It is the time of year when seasons turn and the rhythm of life changes as days become dismantled and reassembled in new and varied ways. All of this is not unlike the much deeper process continually at play within our hearts. Indeed, the seasons of our individual lives can be dismantled and reassembled—and often more than once in a lifetime. That white-robed prophet of doom who proclaims that the end is near is right. Our lives do collapse in such cosmic ways that not one stone is left upon another. The end may come with a life-robbing illness or the premature death of someone we love. It may take the shape of an unwanted move to a new city or a life collapsed by addiction. It may happen slowly, as life forces us to surrender passion or enthusiasm or the dreams of our youth, like colors faded by sunlight yet never noticed until suddenly we realize the color has all but disappeared. Such transitions can feel as violent as the end of our lives in this world. Indeed, at such times, we may feel that a part of us has died. Yet, if we pay attention, we may discover that we have been refashioned, recreated into something new. It is the story of the divine phoenix rising from the ashes, lived by every human being and understood by every person who lives with faith in the resurrection. ●
