Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
St. Paul says to "owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another." That is a real challenge. How can we grow into that inner freedom, that degree of boundlessness when we totally release our fear of others?

How can now grow to be indebted only to God?

Take time to meditate and refresh the life of the Spirit that has been given you. Then witness your faith like disciples and believers throughout the ages. Be assured of my prayers for you and for your dear ones. May the good Lord bless you with wisdom and peace.
Please pray for me.

In Christ,
Fr. Alexis Ibarra

Vigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,
San Pablo dice que "no debas nada a nadie, salvo amaros unos a otros." Eso es un verdadero desafío. ¿Cómo podemos crecer hacia esa libertad interior, ese grado de infinitud cuando liberamos por completo nuestro miedo a los demás?

¿Cómo es que podemos endeudarnos solo con Dios?

Tomen tiempo para meditar y refrescar la vida del Espíritu que se les ha dado en su propio bautismo. Entonces den testimonio de su fe como discípulos y creyentes a través de los siglos. Cuenten siempre con mis oraciones por ustedes y por todos sus seres queridos. Que el Señor, los bendiga y los fortalezca con sabiduría y paz. Por favor, recen por mí.

En Cristo,
P. Alexis Ibarra

BACK TO SCHOOL SAFETY TIPS

As your children head back to school, parents should begin laying the groundwork (if they haven't already) for open communication about the school's safety guidelines and policies. Talk to children about safe adults and keep lines of communication open about who they see and interact with, how they feel about their school days, and what they are learning. Remind children regularly that they should find a safe adult if they ever feel unsafe or uncomfortable in any situation. CONSEJOS DE SEGURIDAD PARA EL REGRESO A LA ESCUELA

Ahora que sus hijos vuelven a clases, los padres deben empezar a sentar las bases (si aún no lo han hecho) para mantener una comunicación abierta sobre las directrices y políticas de seguridad de su escuela. Hable con los niños sobre los adultos seguros y mantenga abiertas las líneas de comunicación sobre con quiénes se relacionan, cómo se sientan durante el día escolar y qué están aprendiendo. Recuérdeles regularmente que deben buscar a un adulto seguro si se sienten inseguros o incómodos en cualquier situación. PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS:

DEAR LORD,
HOW LOVELY ARE YOUR WAYS! GUIDE EACH OF US CLOSER TO YOUR WILL. POUR YOUR COURAGE INTO THOSE YOU ARE CALLING TO THE VOCATIONS OF MARRIED, RELIGIOUS, CONSECRATED, AND SINGLE LIFE. HELP THEM TO RESPOND BOLDLY, AND WITH TRUST IN YOUR PROVISION.
AMEN

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that 'every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses.'"

- Mt 18:15-16

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

"Si tu hermano comete un pecado, ve y amonéstalo a solas. Si te escucha, habrás salvado a tu hermano. Si no te hace caso, hazte acompañar de una o dos personas, para que todo lo que se diga conste por boca de dos o tres testigos".

- Mt 18, 15-16

THE SOCIAL JUSTICE MINISTRY

CHURCH OF THE VISITATION

Faith in Action, Dignity for All, Justice for Our World.

The Visitation Social Justice Ministry seeks to promote the core principles of Catholic Social Teaching through education, advocacy, prayer and service in support of human dignity for all. The concept of Social Justice was first introduced by a Jesuit priest, Luigi Laparelli D'Azeglio, S.J., in the 1840s, during the Industrial Revolution. Many of the concepts were espoused in Pope Leo XIII's encyclical rerum Novarium in 1891. They have been reiterated and expanded upon over the years through other encyclicals, including, Dilexi te, released by Pope Leo XIV in 2025 and Magnifica Humantis, released by Pope Leo XIV in 2026. The term "Social Justice" was formally introduced into Catholic Social Teaching with Pope Plus Xix's encyclical Quadragesimo Anno in 1931. Catholic Social Justice is not democrat nor republican, left on right, rather focuses on the dignity of the human person and is an active response to the call to live the teaching of the gospel and our faith traditions.

THE SEVEN THEMES OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING ARE:

- Respect for the life and dignity of the human person – Every person is created in the image and likeness of God from conception to natural death
- Call to Family, and Participation – The family is the basic cell of society. All people have the right and duty to participate actively in building a just and vibrant community.
- Rights and Responsibilities – Every human being has fundamental rights to life, food, shelter, education, healthcare, and work and responsibilities to others and to the common good.
- Option for the Poor and Vulnerable – Society must give special attention to those who are poor and marginalize. As Jesus taught, we serve him in the least of our brothers and sisters
- Dignity of Work and Worker's Rights – Work is a participation in God's creation. Workers have the right to just wages, safe conditions, rest, and the ability to organize.
- Solidarity – We are one human family across all nations and cultures. We are called to stand with others in justice, love and peace, near and far.
- Care for God's Creation – The earth is a gift from God. We are stewards called to protect it for future generations and for the good of all, especially the poor.

The Social Justice Ministry will allow parishioners to connect, learn about current social issues, and if they choose, create focus groups for service areas they feel called to address in support of human dignity. Our intent is to provide opportunities to be informed and allow each parishioner to make decisions and act based on their own conscience.
