About our Retreat Leader

Fr. Stefan Yap was ordained on the Feast Day of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, June 20, 2020.

Fr. Stefan was born in New York City and grew up on Long Island and in New Jersey. He attended college at the University of Maryland College Park and graduated after 5 years with a B.S. in Mathematics and Statistics. It was during his time at U-MD that Fr. Stefan received his call to the priesthood.

After graduating college, Fr. Stefan entered seminary for the Archdiocese of Washington and spent 2 years at the St. John Paul II Seminary and studied theology at Mount St. Mary's Seminary.

In his first assignment following his ordination, Fr. Stefan served as Parochial Vicar at St. John Neumann Catholic Church in Gaithersburg, Maryland. He later served as Parochial Vicar at St. Martin of Tours before assuming his current assignment as Parochial Vicar at St. Michael the Archangel.
