Gospel
Luke 1:39-56

Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."

And Mary said: "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, and has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever."

Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

A Letter from Fr. Pablo Bonello

Dear Parishioners,

We resume the meditation of St. John Paul II on the Eucharist with the words that Mary Most Holy said when she visited St. Elizabeth.

Mary says, “God filled the hungry with good things”: to the hungry for God, to men and women of great desires for God, our Heavenly Father fills with good things. And Mary is the foremost. God inspired desires in her heart that disposed her to be Mother of the Lord. She was blessed with the Greatest Gift: the Son dwelling in her Womb as Man. In His Body, St Paul says, all treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.

And this blessing is given to all of us in the sacrament of the Eucharist. When we receive Jesus in Holy communion we should say with Mary: “to the hungry He filled with good things”: to the hungry ones, not to others. If we receive Jesus with hunger, God will bless us and our communions will be fruitful.

Jesus will dwell in us physically and spiritually: physically, because He is contained in the sacrament; spiritually, because He blesses us with His sanctifying grace. The sacramental presence of Jesus is short in time, still His spiritual presence does not pass away. We keep Him in our soul, in our thoughts, in our hearts, in our words, and in our deeds.

Have a very happy Assumption of Mary Feast day!

God bless you all!

Fr Pablo Bonello IVE

When you see the priest elevate the consecrated host, you can pray these prayers.

There is a pious custom in the Catholic Church of offering a brief interior prayer at the moment when the priest elevates the consecrated host at Mass.

It is at that moment when the Eucharistic host, through the power of God, becomes the body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ.

Here is a list of some of the more common prayers said at that moment to emphasize the profound and miraculous event that is happening before our eyes.

Blessed and praised every moment

Be the most holy and divine Sacrament!

My Lord and my God!

O Sacrament most holy! O Sacrament divine!

All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine.
