Gospel

John 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?"

Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?"

Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here."

So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?"

Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Next Sunday begins the Advent Season. Do you have Advent Family Traditions?
It's not too early to begin thinking.

Start your own family traditions!

Parents are the first and most important teachers of their children. Traditions are a wonderful way for parents to pass a living faith to their children and keep it burning in their own hearts. Think of specific food, songs, and prayers from your childhood that remind you of the Advent and Christmas season. Create a celebration around the preparation and sharing of the meal, incorporate stories and songs of the seasons to enrich the experience and come together for prayer as a family, sharing your needs and giving thanks for your blessings before God. Share the stories of your own childhood experiences as your family creates new shared memories.

Three Elements of a Christian Tradition

If you do not take part in an advent tradition already—or even if you do—starting a family tradition is easy. First think about these three elements that make a tradition:

- 1. Prayer During Advent and Christmas we celebrate God becoming man in Jesus. In prayer we are able to gather together around our Lord's manger, telling Him our struggles, thanking Him for our blessings and receiving His divine love.
  - 2. Food Early Christian communities were characterized by the communal breaking of the bread. This experience of a shared meal helped strengthen the filial bonds among Christians. Today, the presence of food in our Christian traditions point to God's great providence, and give us a glimpse of the great feast we look forward to in heaven.
  - 3. Celebration Storytelling engages all generations in a form of prayer that celebrates the joy that is within our hearts. In all Christian traditions, storytelling through music, oral histories and reading celebrates where we've come from and who we are as children of God. Music can be especially powerful. As St. Augustine said, "He who sings, prays twice!"

A Letter from Fr. Pablo Bonello

Dear Parishioners,

For our consideration of the rites of the Mass, I will take two sources: The Catechism of the Catholic Church and the Introduction to the Roman Missal, which is called General Instruction of the Roman Missal, according to its third edition of year 2002 (from now on, I will call it Instruction).

The Instruction tells us that all the rites before the Liturgy of the Word, that is, “the Entrance, the Greeting, the Penitential Act, the Kyrie, the Gloria in excelsis (Glory to God in the highest) and Collect, have the character of a beginning, an introduction, and a preparation.

Their purpose is to ensure that the faithful, who come together as one, establish communion and dispose themselves properly to listen to the Word of God and to celebrate the Eucharist worthily. (Instruction # 46)

I highlighted two expressions: “character” and “purpose”.

Regarding the “character” of these rites, three characteristics are mentioned: beginning, introduction, and preparation, which means: The celebration begins with these rites, it seems obvious, but it is good to be aware that the Mass does not begin with the readings! Introduction: we are brought to the realm of the sacred; Preparation: these rites prepare us for the two tables of the Holy Mass: The Table of the Word, and the Table of the Sacrament.

Regarding the “purpose” of these rites: they should help us for both the Word of God and the Sacrament: they should help us to listen to the Word of God appropriately with a listening heart and pure faith and to celebrate the Sacrament worthily, with the dispositions created in us by the Word of God and the Sacrifice of Christ.

It is important that we pay attention to these rites, because in a certain sense they are key to all that follows and they are supposed to set the tone for the whole celebration of the Mass.

Therefore, when we come to Mass, let’s pay attention to the beginnings, because it will dispose our hearts and minds for the reception of God’s Word, for our prayer and for offering ourselves through Christ, with Him and in Him, in the unity of the Spirit, for the greater glory of God the Father! Amen!

God bless you all!!

Have a great Sunday!

Happy Thanksgiving Day!!

Fr Pablo Bonello IVE

Celebration of the Ecclesial Movements and New Communities in the Archdiocese of Washington

The Archdiocese of Washington invites you to Mass to celebrate the Ecclesial Movements and New Communities that will take place at the Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle in Washington, DC, on Sunday, November 28, 2021, at 11:00 a.m. Cardinal Wilton D. Gregory, Archbishop of Washington, will be the Principal Celebrant.
