Gospel
Luke 12:13-21

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me.” He replied to him, “Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?” Then he said to the crowd, “Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.”

Then he told them a parable. “There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, ‘What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?’ And he said, ‘This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, ‘Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!’” But God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.”

Cardinal Gregory issues decree to implement Pope Francis’ Traditionis Custodes

Norms take effect September 21, 2022

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Cardinal Wilton Gregory today released a decree with the Liturgical Norms for the implementation in The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington of Traditionis Custodes, an apostolic letter issued moto proprio (“on his own impulse”) by Pope Francis in July 2021. Traditionis Custodes, which means “Guardians of the Tradition,” contains a set of norms for the celebration of what is popularly known as the Traditional Latin Mass.

The decree from Cardinal Gregory states that, effective September 21, 2022, three non-parochial churches are designated as locations where the Mass according to the 1962 Roman Missal may be celebrated on Sundays.

They are:

- The Chapel at St. John the Evangelist Parish in Forest Glen, Maryland
- The Franciscan Monastery of the Holy Land in Washington, D.C.
- The Mission Church of St. Dominic in Aquasco, Maryland.

In his letter, Cardinal Gregory explains that “...as my predecessors in the Archdiocese of Washington have followed the intentions of the Holy Father in regards to the celebration of the Mass according to the 1962 Roman Missal, I, too, desire to follow the path most recently traced out for us by Pope Francis. In reflecting on Traditionis Custodes and the letter the Holy Father wrote accompanying this motu proprio, and on his recent apostolic letter, Desiderio Desideravi, on the liturgical formation of the People of God, it is clear that the Holy Father’s sincere intention is to bring about greater unity in the Church through the celebration of the Mass and sacraments according to the 1970 Roman Missal of Pope Paul VI, which was the fruit of the renewal in the liturgy that the Second Vatican Council called for. However, it is also my desire, following the intention of Pope Francis, to ensure that those who celebrate the Mass according to the 1962 Missal continue to be provided for in our archdiocese, a plea that was expressed in our Synod listening sessions.”

Saint of the Week
July 31

For they speak of Christ, not that they may preach Christ, but that they may reject Christ; and they speak of the law, not that they may establish the law, but that they may proclaim things contrary to it.

St. Ignatius (1491-1556), Jesuit, Patron of Soldiers, Educators, Feast Day July 31

Letter from our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

The Introduction to the Missal highlights one aspect of the Profession of Faith, that we cannot neglect. The Church connects her faith with the Paschal Mystery of Christ, and with its sacrament, which is the Eucharist. Faith in the blessed Trinity, in the mysteries of the Incarnation, Passion and Glory of Christ, and in His Church are proclaimed in advance, before they are made present in the Sacrament.

All the mysteries we believe in, are fulfilled in Jesus crucified: He glorifies the Father, He is sanctified by the Spirit; He assumed a human nature to offer it in sacrifice under Pontius Pilate, suffering indescribable torments. At the same time Jesus crucified looks to the future: His Paradise, His Second Coming, when all flesh shall see the salvation of God. On Mount Calvary, Jesus also looks at the present time: His Church, with the members of His Mystical Body, that is, the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. John, the pious women.

Thus, we may say that the Profession of faith is contained in Jesus Crucified. Since the Eucharist is the Sacred Sign, that is, the Sacrament of the Cross, it follows that our whole faith is also contained in the Sacrament, which not in vain is called: "The Mystery of Faith".

The Introduction to the Sacramentary explains:

The purpose of the Symbolum or Profession of Faith, is that the whole gathered people... may call to mind and confess the great mysteries of the faith by reciting the rule of faith in a formula approved for liturgical use, before these mysteries are celebrated in the Eucharist (paragraph 67)

On Sundays and special feasts, we confess our faith, and we linked it to the Sacrament. It is a triad: Mystery-Faith-Eucharist.

Have a great Sunday!

Revival's in the Air Corpus Christi 2022 to Pentacost 2025

AN EXCITING JOURNEY AHEAD

Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith: his Real Presence in the Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery here in the United States.

Scandal, division, disease, doubt. The Church has withstood each of these throughout our very human history. But today we confront all of them, all at once. Our response in this moment is pivotal.

In the midst of these roaring waves, Jesus is present, reminding us that he is more powerful than the storm. He desires to heal, renew, and unify the Church and the world.

How will he do it? By uniting us once again around the source and summit of our faith—the Holy Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is the joyful, expectant, grassroots response of the entire Catholic Church in the U.S. to this divine invitation.

VACATION TIME IS HERE!

Whether you stay home or travel, we hope and pray that you and your family enjoy yourself and get some much-needed rest. However, vacation does not exclude Mass and the sacraments, of course. No matter where you are, make every effort to join in the celebration of Mass. What better time to pray in thanksgiving than while you are resting? Visit DiscoverMass.com or masstimes.org for mass times and locations around the country.
