

On this Labor Day weekend, when we recognize all those work – in whatever way they can to provide for their families, their communities, and this nation, we can also celebrate the World Day of Prayer for the Creation, praying that together we can work to ensure that the world God made can be enjoyed by future generations. Let us praise God for this wonderful world and the opportunity to work in it.

In the 1st Reading Moses points out that when the chosen people put God's Commandments into practice, other nations will marvel at how wise and just they are. The Psalmist assures us that those who act Justly will live in God's presence. James emphasized the need to put one's faith into action. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the Pharisees that they are putting human rules above the Spirit of God's commands. Let us reflect on how we follow God's Commandments.

En este fin de semana del Día del Trabajo, cuando reconocemos todo el trabajo, de cualquier manera que puedan para mantener a sus familias, sus comunidades y esta nación, también podemos celebrar el Día Mundial de Oración por la Creación, rezando para que juntos podamos trabajar para garantizar que el mundo que Dios hizo pueda ser disfrutado por las generaciones futuras. Alabemos a Dios por este maravilloso mundo y por la oportunidad de trabajar en él.

En la 1^a lectura, Moisés señala que cuando el pueblo elegido pone en práctica los mandamientos de Dios, otras naciones se maravillarán de lo sabios y justos que son. El salmista nos asegura que aquellos que actúan con justicia vivirán en la presencia de Dios. Santiago enfatizó la necesidad de poner la fe en acción. En el Evangelio, Jesús les dice a los fariseos que están poniendo las reglas humanas por encima de los mandamientos del Espíritu de Dios. Reflexionemos sobre cómo seguimos los mandamientos de Dios.
