What's Pastor Thinking

One of the most universal rites for any religion or club or fellowship is the initiation rite. For the Christian church this initiation rite is Baptism. For many, if not all Christians, Baptism is an event that happens somewhere near the beginning of their discipleship and active church life.

What happens in baptism? First, we get our Christian name and our identity. Through baptism Jesus received his identity. The voice of God was heard from beyond the clouds: "You are my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." Just like Jesus received his identity as the beloved Son of God, we receive our identity as persons and as Christians. As Jesus' baptism defined his life, our baptism defines our lives. To those of us who were baptized as infants, our parents stepped forth in faith in our place and made a promise to raise us in the Christian traditions and beliefs. They are part of who we are and who we are becoming. These values define and shape our lives. What we are called makes a difference. As we grow, if we are called "smart," it makes a difference; if we are called "stupid," it makes a difference. As in baptism we receive our Christian name, we also receive our identity of who we are in Christ.

Did you know that Christian means "little Christ?" If we are committed Christians we are to follow in the footsteps of Christ. We are supposed to be little "Christs." We represent Christ in all we do and say. And that is a radical concept. And when you are wrestling with the problems of the world, remember your baptism, remember who you are in Christ. Remember your baptism when you face a loss or a crisis. You are called to be a faithful steward of what God gave you in the first place. When you experience broken dreams or broken relationships, remember your baptism. God is in control, surrender your future into God's hands once again. 'You are my Beloved.'

The Baptism of the Lord

JANUARY 10, 2021

“Every baptized person has received the vocation to proclaim—to proclaim something, to proclaim Jesus—the vocation and mission to evangelize: to proclaim Jesus!”

—Pope Francis, February 2, 2020

Today, we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord!

The origin and foundation of Christian Baptism is Jesus. Before starting his public ministry, Jesus submitted himself to the baptism given by John the Baptist. The waters did not purify him; he cleansed the waters. “He comes to sanctify the Jordan for our sake . . . to begin a new creation through the Spirit and water” (St. Gregory Nazianzen, Liturgy of the Hours, I, 634).

Jesus’ immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God’s will. Jesus did not need to be baptized because he was totally faithful to the will of his Father and free from sin. However, he wanted to show his solidarity with human beings in order to reconcile them to the Father. By commanding his disciples to baptize all nations, he established the means by which people would die to sin—Original and actual—and begin to live a new life with God.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

LONG ISLAND COALITION FOR LIFE

Help restore the right to life for preborn children. Please join the Long Island Coalition for Life for the Roe v. Wade Anniversary Memorial Face the Truth event on Sunday, January 17, 2021, from 1:30p.m. to 3:00p.m. This peaceful public witness will be held on the sidewalk in front of Nassau University Medical Center (2201 Hempstead Tpke., E Meadow), a hospital that commits abortions. ### ABORTION LEADING GLOBAL CAUSE OF DEATH IN 2020 WITH 42.7 MILLION KILLED

Abortion was once again the number-one cause of death globally in 2020, with a record 42.7 million unborn babies killed in the womb, according to data provided by Worldometer. As of December 31, 2020, there were 42.7 million abortions performed in the course of the year, Worldometer revealed, while 8.2 million people died from cancer, 5 million from smoking, and 1.7 million of HIV/AIDS. By comparison, worldwide deaths from the coronavirus in 2020 totaled 1.8 million, according to Johns Hopkins University. Worldometer — voted one of the best free reference websites by the American Library Association (ALA) — keeps a running tally through the year of major world statistics, including population, births, deaths, automobiles produced, books published, and CO2 emissions. It also registers the total number of abortions performed worldwide, based on the latest statistics on abortions published by the World Health Organization (WHO). Globally, there were more deaths from abortion in 2020 than all deaths from cancer, malaria, HIV/AIDS, smoking, alcohol, and traffic accidents combined, according to Worldometer statistics. The shocking number of deaths from abortion, in fact, has led certain observers to call abortion “the social justice cause of our time,” since the sheer magnitude of the problem completely overshadows other human rights issues.

The year 2020 also saw abortion legalized in Argentina, one of the last bastions in the world to recognize and protect the right to life of unborn children. In their yearly Christmas message, the Argentinean bishops denounced the government of Alberto Fernández for its “feverish obsession” with extending abortion rights in the midst of a pandemic. Instead of attending to the real needs of the people of Argentina, the government adopted an “incomprehensible urgency” with establishing abortion in Argentina, the bishops declared, “as if it had something to do with the sufferings, fears, and concerns of most Argentines.” The abortion lobby also targeted Poland after a High Court ruling outlawed eugenic abortions performed on babies with Down syndrome and other disabilities. The pro-abortion Women’s Strike movement organized demonstrations in major cities, with one group gathering in the center of Warsaw and then marching toward the house of Jaroslaw Kaczynski, the head of Poland’s ruling Law and Justice Party. In early October, Poland’s Constitutional Tribunal struck down a provision permitting doctors to abort fetuses on the basis of congenital defects, ruling that the law violated the national Constitution, which guarantees the right to life.

The 48th annual March for Life in the United States will take place in Washington, D.C., on January 29, 2021 with the theme “Together strong, life unites!”

The stated purpose of the march is to end abortion by “uniting, educating, and mobilizing pro-life people in the public square.” The annual march commemorates the infamous January 22, 1973 Supreme Court decision in Roe v. Wade which, together with the 1992 Planned Parenthood v. Casey, invalidated 50 state laws and made abortion legal and available on demand throughout the United States.

FRIENDS FOR LIFE

Every January since 1973, by participating in the annual March for Life, we remember the fateful day that Roe vs. Wade changed this country. To accommodate COVID-19 related restrictions this year, we will not be marching in Washington, D.C. on Friday, January 29, 2021, but that does not mean we will be sidelined. As we continue to accommodate COVID-related restrictions and other associated uncertainties in the coming months, the Office of Human Life, Family and Bioethics has decided that, on a diocesan level, we will promote the March for Life 2021 as a virtual pilgrimage with local events, rather than a bus pilgrimage to Washington, D.C. on January 29, 2021. As we prepare to commemorate this day, we are seeking out those in our parish where, instead of sponsoring a bus, there may be interest in hosting alternative activities such as a few hours of Adoration, a parish commitment to pray. To assist us with planning and promoting events in our parish, please let us know if your group would like to organize a prayer event for "March for Life." We ask the leader of your group to please contact the rectory to schedule a prayer event in the church. We are happy to coordinate with you.

Tour of the Church

Grade 1 Church Gathering

Tour of the Church

During this time of transition, the Family Mass will continue to provide some limited materials each week. The Magnifikids magazines are available on a weekly basis along with the Children's Worship Bulletins for ages 3 to 7 and ages 7 to 12. They are located in the Children's Corner racks in the main lobby of the Church. Even if you are not yet returning to Mass due to pandemic concerns, these materials can be used at home. Take a few minutes to stop by the church to pick them up for home use. Please do not leave them in the church. Today the church celebrates the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. The liturgical color is white. While the secular world shuts Christmas down on December 26th, the Church continues to celebrate this short but joyous season which ends today. Each week we have been focusing on a Word, Phrase, or Short Sentence of the Week to help link the gospel to family life. This week's Short Sentence of the Week is BE A WITNESS FOR GOD. Place BE A WITNESS FOR GOD on the refrigerator as a reminder during the week.

During the Church's Christmas season, besides Jesus' birth, we have celebrated the Feasts of the Holy Family and the Epiphany (Three Kings Day). Both of these feasts focus on Jesus as a baby and a young child. In today's gospel (Mark 1:7-11), Jesus is a young man about to step away from the sheltered life He knew while growing up. Jesus was on the doorstep of starting His public ministry. Obviously, this gospel opens the door to teaching and reflecting on the Sacrament of Baptism. The Baptism of John the Baptist that Jesus received was not the sacrament as we know it, but it was a call to people to solidify their decision to turn away from their sinful ways and commit themselves to following God. So why did Jesus submit to such a baptism? This is a question that older children often ask. Jesus was baptized to be a witness and model for us. Taking an even closer look at the today's gospel also shows us that Jesus' baptism by his cousin John marked the beginning of a new age. All three persons of the Holy Trinity arrived on the scene. As Jesus is baptized, the Father announces that Jesus is His "Beloved Son" and the Holy Spirit descends in the form of a dove from heaven. One could say this is the first manifestation of Jesus in a type of "family portrait" in the Holy Trinity. This gospel gives us an opportunity to consider the unity of the three persons of the Blessed Trinity as well as Baptism. The Blessed Trinity can be a little challenging for children (and adults!) After all, it is hard to understand the reality of the Divine Presence but using some graphics can help. St. Patrick used the shamrock, which is a three leaf clover. An equilateral triangle is another visual often used. In the sacrament of Baptism, besides Original Sin being removed, we become children of God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Baptism also brings us into the Church, also known as the People of God. The Baptismal symbols are very rich in meaning and easy to understand. Children are familiar with the uses of water, the power of fire and light (via the candle), and most of the time the associations with the color white. These are all objects in everyday life. Once we are baptized, we each have the responsibility to be a witness to others by setting good example, praying for others, and acts of kindness.

This week, make a drawing of an equilateral triangle. The children can help checking to see that each side measures exactly the same. Place the words of the Sign of the Cross in each angle within the triangle: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Hang it up and refer to it during the week. Show children pictures of their Baptism. Talk about what happened, why you picked their particular godparents, and the importance of their Baptism. Ask them how they can be like Jesus and be an example to others. With younger children a favorite activity is to act out a Baptism using a doll. Finally, remind the children often this week to look for little ways to behave in a way that can help someone to want to follow Jesus.

Remember to have some fun with your children while we are all learning together!

SUNDAY READINGS

Commentary on the Readings for The Baptism of the Lord

The readings for today are all connected with the Baptism of Jesus. So, as I have done on other occasions, I would like to comment on the meaning of this great event in the life of Christ, the God-Man, rather than commenting on each scripture passage: Isaiah 55:1-11 (21b); Isaiah 12:2-6, 1 John 5:1-9, and Mark 1:7-11).

The entire focus, or purpose of Christ's life, His coming to earth and living as Man and dying as if He were the lowest of criminals, was to reconcile humanity to God.

Certainly this could have been done in a less dramatic way, but it was God's way of showing mankind how much we are loved. Because God, being perfect in all respects, lives by the rules of divine perfection, this "reconciliation process" required dramatic means.

The Baptism of Jesus Christ was the first major theological event in the life of the adult Jesus. Up to this point in time of His life, He had "set aside His divinity" and lived as any ordinary human being in order to experience all the life-building joys and trials that it takes to grow from infancy to a mature adult. Now, with that part of His life completed, He is ready to take up His role in the Father's Plan of Salvation. This is where the evangelists Mark and John begin their Gospels, the Baptism of the Lord.

John the Baptist, a relative of Jesus, had been preaching and baptizing a form of repentance that was not new to the Jews of that culture, but his was more energized with a sincerity and urgency that the others didn't have. John's baptism was a ritual form of personal repentance and acknowledgement of one's sins. So, you might ask, why did Jesus need to be baptized? The answer is more difficult to verbalize than one would think because Jesus was "without sin." Think of it this way: Even the greatest saints went to confession regularly and frequently to acknowledge their humanity which is naturally prone to sin. This does not mean that Jesus or the greatest of saints were sinners, but they admitted to themselves and to the world that they were human and, except for the abundance of God's grace working within them, they were capable of sinning.

The other theological reason for Jesus' Baptism in the Jordan River by John was: For those who were subsequently baptized in the Name of Jesus after His death and Resurrection, what was once just a personal act of piety now becomes a commitment to God through Jesus Christ. Also, the Holy Spirit is released into the soul of the baptized thereby overcoming the consequences of original sin.

There is so much more to this event than meets the eye. It seems so simple that we have difficulty in seeing its importance. However, God the Father put His "stamp of approval" on it with His confirming statement, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." So, each time you dip your hand into the baptismal font in a church to bless yourself, remember, that act is a renewal of YOUR Baptism. Something to think about during your prayer time this week!

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid."
Matthew 5:14

What Are the Origins of America's Unique Freedom & Judeo-Christian Principles?

Almost 400 years ago, in 1630 aboard the Arbella, Gov. John Winthrop wrote a now famous sermon titled, "A Model of Christian Charity" to his fellow Puritans to prepare them for planting a new society in a perilous environment. These brave people, fleeing from religious persecution in Britain, would understand from the very beginning the standards and principles that they would live by to ensure the success of the colony. Winthrop preached the importance of Christian virtues of faith, charity and love as a foundation bedrock upon which to build their new society. "When God gives a special commission, He looks to have it strictly observed in every article.... We are entered into covenant with Him for this work. We have hereupon besought Him of favor and blessing." (1)

The Puritan settlement was an experiment. If the colony failed, not only functionally but especially morally, Winthrop feared they would lose the grace of God. But, should they succeed, they would become a beautiful beacon of religious piety and freedom. He wrote:

"For we must consider that we shall be as a city upon a hill. The eyes of all people are upon us. So that if we shall deal falsely with our God in this work we have undertaken, and so cause Him to withdraw His present help from us, we shall be made a story and a by-word through the world."(2)

Does Freedom Matter?

Too often Americans take freedom for granted but it is never guaranteed. The restrictions upon freedoms of individuals, groups, schools, businesses, and houses of worship during the current pandemic have highlighted how fragile freedom really is. Today, some retain their freedoms and others are denied. "While the pandemic poses many grave challenges, there is no world in which the Constitution tolerates color-coded executive edicts that reopen liquor stores and bike shops but shutter churches, synagogues and mosques," wrote Justice Neil Gorsuch. (3) Yet, ignoring the Constitution and restricting freedom, especially religious freedom, has become commonplace in America.

Happening Now: Honoring Religious Liberty Martyr, St. Thomas Becket

"Thomas Becket's death serves as a powerful and timeless reminder to every American that our freedom from religious persecution is not a mere luxury or accident of history, but rather an essential element of our liberty." "It is our priceless treasure and inheritance. And it is bought with the blood of martyrs. President Trump's "Proclamation on 850th Anniversary of the Martyrdom of St. Thomas Becket."

This Sunday we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord which will mark the end of the liturgical Christmas Season and begin Ordinary Time. So next Sunday will be the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time and we will start to see green vestments a lot more often. Today is also the second of three traditional epiphanies, the third being the wedding feast at Cana. Why three epiphanies? Here is how St Peter Chrysologus, Bishop and Doctor of the Church, who is called "Chrysologus", which means "golden-worded" because of his exceptional eloquence as a preacher, explained it in a homily about 1600 years ago.

"In the mystery of our Lord's incarnation there were clear indications of his eternal Godhead. Yet the great events we celebrate today disclose and reveal in different ways the fact that God himself took a human body. Mortal man, enshrouded always in darkness, must not be left in ignorance, and so be deprived of what he can understand and retain only by grace.

In choosing to be born for us, God chose to be known by us. He therefore reveals himself in this way, in order that this great sacrament of his love may not be an occasion for us of great misunderstanding.

Today the Magi find, crying in a manger, the one they have followed as he shone in the sky. Today the Magi see clearly, in swaddling clothes, the one they have long awaited as he lay hidden among the stars.

Today the Magi gaze in deep wonder at what they see: heaven on earth, earth in heaven, man in God, God in man, one whom the whole universe cannot contain now enclosed in a tiny body. As they look, they believe and do not question, as their symbolic gifts bear witness: incense for God, gold for a king, myrrh for one who is to die.

So the Gentiles, who were the last, become the first: the faith of the Magi is the first fruits of the belief of the Gentiles.

Today Christ enters the Jordan to wash away the sin of the world. John himself testifies that this is why he has come: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Today a servant lays his hand on the Lord, a man lays his hand on God, John lays his hand on Christ, not to forgive but to receive forgiveness.

Today, as the psalmist prophesied: The voice of the Lord is heard above the waters. What does the voice say? This is my beloved son, in whom I am well pleased.

Today the Holy Spirit hovers over the waters in the likeness of a dove. A dove announced to Noah that the flood had disappeared from the earth; so now a dove is to reveal that the world's shipwreck is at an end forever. The sign is no longer an olive-shoot of the old stock: instead, the Spirit pours out on Christ's head the full richness of a new anointing by the Father, to fulfil what the psalmist had prophesied: Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.

Today Christ works the first of his signs from heaven by turning water into wine. But water has still to be changed into the sacrament of his blood, so that Christ may offer spiritual drink from the chalice of his body, to fulfil the psalmist's prophecy: How excellent is my chalice, warming my spirit."

To sum it up, in each of these epiphanies, God's power is revealed to different audiences in the person of Jesus Christ, whose actions are accompanied by miraculous signs, which point to our Lord as the Savior of all mankind. First, He is introduced to the Gentiles as the Savior of all the world, then He is revealed to the Jewish people as the Son of God whose mission is to reconcile mankind with God, and finally, in His first miracle, His power is revealed directly to His disciples who will ultimately fulfil His command to carry His word to the ends of the earth. His last epiphany also serves as an introduction to greater things to come. With the Baptism and Cana, Jesus begins His ministry. At the end, rather than changing ordinary water into choice wine, He will change ordinary wine into His own precious blood which He will shed on Calvary to complete our reconciliation with God, and to share with us forever at the Eucharist.

Saint Marguerite Bourgeoys

DATES: 1620-1700

FEAST DAY: JANUARY 12

Growing up in Troyes, France, Marguerite formed a special relationship with Our Lady. She was turned away by two religious communities, but met the founder of Montreal, Canada, when he returned to France to visit his sister. He invited Marguerite to open a school in the New World; she went, despite misgivings, after praying to Mary. From that first school in an abandoned stable, her ministry grew to include teaching women crafts and founding the Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame. She managed to keep her sisters uncloistered, despite opposition from the bishop, and served as superior for many years. When Pope John Paul II canonized her in 1982, she became Canada's first woman saint.

He makes our sorr'wing spirit sing.

Fair is the sunshine, Fair is the moonlight,
Bright the sparkling stars on high;
Jesus shines brighter, Jesus shines purer
Than all the angels in the sky.
