Stewardship: Christians share their talents, time and treasure to carry on the work of the Church. Your offerings are essential to St. Ignatius Church, for us to maintain our staffing, programs and buildings.

Cemetery: There are grave sites available for active parishioners in the new section at the base of the hill. Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese of Washington administers the sale of lots and burial. Because we do not have an adequate endowment, the costs of maintenance come from general parish funds. ## Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 18, 2021

"Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

Mass Intentions

Sunday, July 18 – 11:15 a.m. – Family of Margaret Baumgartner (healing)

Tuesday, July 20 – 8:00 a.m. – Deacon Scott Stuart +

Curiosity, truth, habit and renewed faith In the Gospel reading this Sunday, the disciples, fresh from the success of preaching on their own, headed off by boat to spend some quality time with Jesus. Others who saw where they were headed wanted to see the celebrity teacher. Neither the disciples nor the followers on the shore really understood who Jesus was. Their fuller understanding would come after they had witnessed his death and resurrection. At the point of today's gospel, they are just anxious to hear the word he preached; it seemed new but refreshingly honest. It sounded like it was from God, but it also connected with their human experience. They had no way of knowing yet that the golden words they sought were from God, who had come among us to share our lives, our suffering and our hopes.

We know, believe, or at least want to believe that Jesus was much more than an interesting itinerant preacher. With the knowledge that He is God, why do we presume on his mercy? Two thousand years ago, people flocked from far and wide to see a new exciting but unknown teacher. After the Resurrection and Pentecost, when many who had witnessed the miracle of new life, lost interest. Some who came to believe fought among themselves, dividing the church between, Jews, Gentiles and Hellenizers (who tried making the gospel fit Greek culture and beliefs). Those who had sought to know Jesus turned to their own interests and ideas. Were they fickle or did they think they knew Jesus much better than his disciples in the church?

For two thousand years a substantial number of people have sincerely believed that Jesus is the eternal Son of God, but the church he founded, which he nourishes through the sacraments and guides with the Holy Spirit gets less interest. On too many occasions, Jesus' followers in the Church have lost their way. God after all, does not lift us out of the world and temptation, or protect us from all error and harm. Those who callously sin while leading the church, local or universal, have no doubt driven many away. There are others however who are still attracted to new faces and ways of believing, when we already have the testimony of millions who truly believe that Jesus is Lord. There were many in Jesus' time who got excited and followed the crowd, who latter followed a new and different crowd.

Due to the pandemic many have had a breather from the sheer sense of obligation. Freed from the Church rule demanding weekly participation in the Mass, we can now like the first believers, newly recognize that he is the One who brings us life and hope. Now at this great moment of fresh beginning, let us return to hear Jesus Word and be the church He calls us to be; united, welcoming and holy.

Cemetery Committee We are in need of more members for the cemetery committee. It is time to revisit a number of issues, and policies. You may volunteer or suggest another person. We are looking for people who have burial sites and/or are established members of the parish.

Read My Bricks Fr. Clifford will lead another tour of the wall of St. Ignatius St. Thomas Manor after the 6 pm Mass this Sunday the 18th.

On the 24th we will have a tour after the 5 PM Saturday Mass, and after the 6 PM Mass on Sunday. Hopefully it will be a little cooler and we might get the hint of a sunset.

St. Thomas Manor Trust – financial aid St. Thomas Manor Trust was formed for aid to the needy, preservation of the historic buildings, and financial assistance for children in Catholic schools. We have received some gifts and had market gain in our holdings. Since this is considered financial aid, we will need to ask financial questions; the reason financial assistance is needed, the number of children, and number of children in Catholic schools. Please call the parish office to make an appointment for a meeting with Fr. Clifford if you are in need of financial aid for Catholic school.

Pro-Life Petition The USCCB has reached out to let us know that the House Appropriations Committee has drafted its first FY22 appropriations bill and the Committee has eliminated provisions designed to prevent taxpayer funds from being used to pay for abortions in the District of Columbia (Dornan Amendment), through foreign assistance (Helms Amendment), that cover abortions. The expectation now is that, as other appropriations bills are released in the coming weeks, the Hyde Amendment and other pro-life provisions will also be excluded. Archbishop Naumann, as chairman of the USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities, is asking grassroots advocates to sign their petition at: <https://www.notaxpayerabortion.com>. The goal is to get millions of Catholics to sign the petition by July 16. It is anticipated that the full House will consider appropriations bills during the last two weeks in July. The Senate has yet to announce any appropriations activity for FY22.

The Feast of St. Ignatius Saturday, July 31 is the feast of St. Ignatius, our parish patron saint and founder of the Jesuits. During the Ignatian year, we remember Inigo's conversion experience after being shot in the legs by a cannonball. While recovering, he had several surgeries - before there were anesthetics. During that time, he examined his life, turning toward God and his service. We will have a special celebration of the feast after each Mass the weekend of July 31- August 1. Watch the bulletin next week for more details.

IGNATIAN YEAR Summer Series Study continues this Wednesday at 9:15 AM or 6:30 PM. You choose which time works best for you. Come to some sessions, or come to all!
