PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fr. Octavio Trejo-Flores, S.D.S.

Mark 1:14-20 | The Call of the First Disciples

Today we read Mark's account of the calling of the first disciples. In contrast to last week's Gospel, where Andrew and John followed Jesus, in Mark's Gospel, Jesus takes the initiative to call His first disciples.

You may wonder why Jesus chose fishermen over some of the religious leaders of His time. Back then, fishermen were not well educated. Yet, Jesus calls these four fishermen to follow Him. And not just to follow Him, but also to share in His work. To become fishers of men and women.

The story of these four fishermen is also our story. We also are called by Jesus to follow Him, and He does not wait until we are perfect. Jesus does not wait until we have it all together and have all the answers. Jesus is a person of action, and He is always at work. The Kingdom of God is here and now. The time of fulfillment is at hand.

God calls us in the midst of our life. Whether we are a layperson or a priest, married or single, young, or old. We are called to follow Jesus. And, like the first disciples, we are not only called to follow Jesus, we also are called to proclaim the Good News of the kingdom God. Amen.
