PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fr. Octavio Trejo-Flores, S.D.S.

John 3:14-21 | Jesus and Nicodemus

As we continue our journey through the season of Lent, today's Liturgy of the Word invites to reflect on the ebb and flow of the relationship between God and us, exile and redemption, repentance, and grace.

Indeed, our readings repeatedly remind of God's unwavering faithfulness to us, even when our faithfulness to God wavers through the vagaries that confront us each day.

As we read in our Gospel, Jesus reminds Nicodemus that just as Moses raised the bronze serpent in the desert as a source of salvation from danger, now Jesus Himself will be "lifted up, so that everyone who believes in Him may have eternal life."

And Paul, for his part, reminds us that this gift is not earned solely through our efforts, on the contrary, it is through the grace of God.

So, as we move forward on our journey through our Lenten season, let us strive to find comfort in God's merciful love for us. Also, to have our hearts moved to respond to God's redemptive call with humility, gratitude, and renewed faith. Amen.
