I'm not sure which Mass I want to attend, can I register for more than one?

It will only allow you to RSVP for one HOWEVER on their confirmation e-mail there is an edit button that they can go back and change their reservation

There's no place to add the name of the person/people I'm bringing with me?

That's ok we don't need the name of the guest, we only need the number of people in your group.

Do I have to RSVP for daily weekday Masses?

At this time NO, we will have slips of paper to sign in when you arrive...however if we begin to have over 100 people at daily Mass, we'll need to implement the RSVP system.

When will doors be open for Sunday Mass?

Front center doors will be open 20 minutes prior to the beginning of Mass (all other doors will be LOCKED but will still be used for exiting.

Will all the Masses still be live-streamed?

YES

When does daily Mass start in person?

June 15th at 9:00 AM. We may decide to return to our normal 8:30am time at a later date.

How is drive up communion going to work?

We're asking everyone to enter from Filbert Street, making a single file car line, and to remain in your car. Drive up moving West towards the GYM Lobby doors to receive communion, and then exit Greenback. See the map below.

Will there be drive up communion for daily/weekday Mass?

NO, at this time we are only offering drive up communion at 1:00 pm on Sundays, after you have watched the live streamed or recorded Mass at home.

Will the office be open after daily Mass?

At this time our office is still closed however our phones are still being answered M-F, 8-4.

When can I start having ministry meetings at Divine Savior?

At this time our office is still closed so still no meetings are being held at Divine Savior.
