

CHURCH OF THE NATIVITY

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three." - Lk 12:50-52

Pastor's Corner

This Wednesday, August 20th, the doors at Nativity Parish School will open to begin the 34th year in the history of our school. What a legacy in the life of our parish! As the Jubilee year proceeds, our theme continues to be "From Mass to Mission as Pilgrims of Hope." Pope Leo reminded the million-plus young people recently gathered for the "Jubilee of the Youth" in Rome that they themselves are signs of hope for the Church. Hope in our young people is the vision of Catholic Education. In providing quality academics we hope to produce future leaders, who, schooled in Catholic faith formation, will impact the conscience and soul of society with the light, beauty, and truth of the Gospel. Pope Francis described the virtue of hope as "the desire and expectation of good things to come, despite our not knowing what the future may bring" (Spes Non Confundit, 1). We look at our young people and along with Pope Leo, we see signs of hope, and in the words of Pope Francis, "we are filled with expectation of good things to come!"

All of us know kids who are headed to school. The following prayer comes from the Church's Book of Blessings. Please call our students and teachers to mind and offer this prayer for them.

Lord God,
Your Spirit of wisdom fills the earth and teaches us your ways.

Look upon our students. Let them enjoy their learning and take delight in new discoveries. Help them to persevere in their studies and give them a desire to learn all things well.

Look upon our teachers. Help them to share their knowledge with gentle patience, and endeavor always to bring truth to eager minds.

Grant that our students and teachers alike may follow and grow in Jesus Christ, who is the way, the truth, and the life. For He is Lord, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer Source: Book of Blessings Prepared by International Commission on English in the Liturgy A Joint Commission of Catholic Bishops' Conferences, The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, Minnesota, 1989

I include some pictures of the new modular units on campus. This provides us with 4 additional classrooms to accommodate our growth. It is not a long-term solution, but it buys us a couple of years to work towards a long-term goal. It's a vision of hope for the future through investing in our young people! (See pictures on next page.)

Last Saturday we had the baptism of Mason Cornett. Some of his classmates and family friends accompanied Mason to the Waters of Baptism. Seeing all the kids excited for him and cheering him on gave me hope! These kids believe! Thank you to our parents, who are primary teachers of their children in the ways of faith.

Little Church starts again this Sunday at 9 and 11am Masses. It always gives us hope for our future as we see all those little ones with us for Mass and going up the aisle to celebrate the Liturgy of the Word with their peers.

Thanks for all the ways you live your call as Pilgrims of Hope. I'm grateful for your witness!

God Bless you,
Fr. Mike

Pilgrimage Stories

Mary Ann & Peter Wieczkowski
Our Lady of Guadalupe,
Mexico City

Peter and I went on a pilgrimage to Our Lady of Guadalupe in June, led by Fr. Nick Blaha. We were in a group of 17, including Fr. Gerard. Accompanying us was Ezekial Stear, Ph.D., who teaches the literature of colonial Spanish America at Auburn. We started at the pyramids in Teotihuacan and learned about Mexican history, culture, beliefs and symbolism. In Mexico City, Monique and Joseph Gonzalez joined us. They wrote "Guadalupe and the Flower World Prophecy". They shared information about poetry and art. When we saw Juan Diego's tilma, we understood that God had carefully orchestrated the details of the apparition and images on the tilma to correspond with things that the Mexican people in 1531 could relate to, leading to the conversion of 8-10 million people. After attending Mass at the basilica, with Fr. Nick and Fr. Gerard concelebrating, we headed up Tepeyac Hill, where we prayed the Nativity jubilee prayer and for our parish intentions. This is where our photo was taken.

Mark Fendler
Cinque Terre, Italy

I was blessed to join our daughter Audrey at the end of her study abroad program in Italy this summer, and we visited more than ten churches in Genova, Cinque Terre and Turin. We prayed for Nativity's intentions at each church, including at the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist in Turin, where the Shroud of Turin is kept. This particular picture is at the Church of Santa Margherita D'Antiochia in Vernazza, Italy, built in the 13th Century.

David & Oshea Pope
Key West, FL

We attended mass at a church in Key West. Next to this church is a beautiful Grotto. The Grotto was the inspiration of Sister Louis Gabriel. After living through 3 devastating hurricanes in the early 1900's she was moved to build this grotto. Sister Gabriel was a teacher and asked all of her students to find coral rocks for the grotto. In so doing, this Grotto became theirs, not hers. She said, 'If you come here to pray before a storm, be it a hurricane or any personal storm, you and Key West will not suffer complete devastation.' She invited everyone's participation by saying if you come to prayer before a storm, she didn't say how. So anyone can pray here in any way they see fit...Since the grotto's dedication Key West has been in the path of several hurricanes, but has suffered surprisingly minimal damage...We lit a candle and said prayers for our uncle who is battling his own personal storm.
