What is Happening - Communally and Personally?

Sunday Mass is the greatest miracle in the world: the Eucharist. God speaks through the Scriptures. The Church offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving. The Holy Spirit transforms bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. The faithful share Holy Communion with one another and God, and then go nourished into the world to preach and live the demands of the Gospel. God speaks and does something miraculous, and the people respond and receive personally through their unity in the communal prayer which is the Mass.

In my thirty-three years as a priest, I have celebrated Mass thousands of times. And even though it has become a very familiar part of my routine, sometimes in presiding at Mass, new insights, or at least important reminders, come to me.

That has happened recently as I've become more aware of the fact that every time I hold the host and say, "This is my body" and hold the chalice and say "This is the chalice of my blood," I am united in a very real way to every other priest of the Archdiocese who has said or will say those same words the same day. I am comforted by that insight.

The reality of Eucharistic unity goes beyond the priests of our Archdiocese, however. I've come to recognize that when I celebrate Mass and receive Holy Communion, I am spiritually united with all of the Catholics of our Archdiocese and with Catholics all over the world who hear those words of consecration. It's unites me with my parents, who I pray are enjoying the heavenly banquet and all of the saints in heaven.

But what is true for me in the Holy Eucharist is true for you as well. Eucharistic unity is a unity of faith; it is also a unity of charity and human affection. Receiving Holy Communion unites you to Jesus, to be sure. But it also unites you to your fellow parishioners, members of our Archdiocese, and Catholics all over the world who are receiving Holy Communion that day. The Eucharist calls you to be aware of and to share in the hopes and dreams, the joys and sorrows, the blessings and the challenges of Christians everywhere. It should remind all of you that the Mass is a communal prayer and not a time for personal forms of piety that can disrupt or portray dis-unity. The rubrics and guidelines of the USCCB and the General Instruction of the Roman Missal are meant to bring about unity as we should be reminded to be in communion with one another in our communal prayer of the Mass. You can hear a little more about the importance of our communal participation in the Eucharist at one of our Liturgical Ministry Renewal Sessions this next week. Please come!

Eucharistic unity transcends time. The Holy Mass unites you to all of the saints who have gone before you and have done what you are doing. In receiving Holy Communion, you are "coheirs to eternal life with those who have pleased the Lord throughout the ages." (2nd Eucharistic Prayer)

The concept of Eucharistic unity is certainly not new. St. Augustine put it this way: "When you hear the words 'the Body of Christ' and respond, 'Amen,' be then a member of the Body of Christ so that your 'Amen' may be true!"

Something to think about: The next time you receive Holy Communion, try to be attuned to all other members of the Church, in our parish, and around the world, who are receiving Holy Communion that day. It is not a time for you to separate yourself physically, emotionally, or spiritually, but a time to be in communion – in union with the Church.

God Bless,

Fr. Jerry

Campaign Planning Study

Over the past several weeks, I have shared that our parish leadership has been prayerfully preparing for an important next step in planning for the future of Church of the Nativity.

I am happy to announce that our campaign planning study will begin on March 16. This study is an opportunity for you to provide feedback on three major building projects currently under consideration: expanding our education center and faith formation space, replacing the sound system in the sanctuary and other areas including the parish hall and possible enhancements to our Chapel.

In the coming weeks, everyone in our extended parish family will receive more information on how you can participate in this important process. Some parishioners will be invited to visit personally with a representative from the Steier Group, and all others will be invited to complete a survey. Either way, your input is critical. This is your parish, and your voice matters.

Please continue to keep our parish in your prayers and ask God for guidance as we take this next step together as a community celebrating 40 years with hope and trust in what lies ahead.

God bless,
Fr. Jerry

Liturgical Ministry Renewal

Everyone who attends Mass is asked to fully participate in the Liturgy, consciously and actively. Active participation means listening carefully, responding meaningfully, singing robustly, and allowing our spirits to be nourished through the Eucharist. It also means that we are Christ to one another in the Mass; we become Christ to one another when we treat each other with love, respect, and caring.

Liturgical Ministers have a special opportunity to be Christ to those assembled by their acts of service within the Mass. By welcoming as ushers, proclaiming the Word as lectors, serving at the altar as altar servers, preparing the needed items for Mass as a Sacristan, and imitating Christ in sharing communion as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, liturgical ministers are Christ present sacramentally.

This Lent, our parish Liturgical Commission will hold a time of renewal and training for all who desire to continue or learn to be Liturgical Ministers at the Church of the Nativity.

Please come to one of these 4 Formation sessions:

Saturday, February 28, 9:00 am

Wednesday, March 4, 9:00 am

Thursday, March 5, 6:00 pm

Tuesday, March 10, 6:00 pm

These sessions will be held in the Church and will include a theological lesson on the Mass and Lay Ministry by Fr. Jerry, the importance and meaning of nonverbal communication during the Mass and training on the scheduling system that is used at Nativity and how we will be checking in before every Mass, and training in all individual ministries listed above.

After these formation sessions, all those who have attended will receive a Commissioning at the weekend Masses during the Easter season.

Everyone is encouraged to pray about how the Lord is calling you to participate in the Sacrifice of the Mass and consider becoming a Liturgical Minister at the Church of the Nativity. If you have any questions, please contact Fr. Jerry.

Reading in First Grade

First grade has been working hard during Knight Time groups. We have been reading informational texts, poetry, persuasive texts, and narrative nonfiction. Among these texts, the students focus on retelling, vocabulary, discussing the author's purpose, and comparing and contrasting. We discuss the beginning, middle, and ending, as well as determining the difference between the characters and the main characters. They enjoy working on fluency and have the opportunity to be challenged each week! We are seeing significant growth in our small Knight Time groups!
