"Our First, Most Cherished Liberty"

The following is a statement from the USCCB on the gift of religious liberty.

We are Catholics. We are Americans. We are proud to be both, grateful for the gift of faith which is ours as Christian disciples, and grateful for the gift of liberty which is ours as American citizens. To be Catholic and American should mean not having to choose one over the other. Our allegiances are distinct, but they need not be contradictory, and should instead be complementary. That is the teaching of our Catholic faith, which obliges us to work together with fellow citizens for the common good of all who live in this land. That is the vision of our founding and our Constitution, which guarantees citizens of all religious faiths the right to contribute to our common life together.

Freedom is not only for Americans, but we think of it as something of our special inheritance, fought for at a great price, and a heritage to be guarded now. We are stewards of this gift, not only for ourselves but for all nations and peoples who yearn to be free. Catholics in America have discharged this duty of guarding freedom admirably for many generations.

In 1887, when the archbishop of Baltimore, James Gibbons, was made the second American cardinal, he defended the American heritage of religious liberty during his visit to Rome to receive the red hat. Speaking of the great progress the Catholic Church had made in the United States, he attributed it to the "civil liberty we enjoy in our enlightened republic." Indeed, he made a bolder claim, namely that "in the genial atmosphere of liberty [the Church] blossoms like a rose."

This is not a Catholic issue. This is not a Jewish issue. This is not an Orthodox, Mormon, or Muslim issue. It is an American issue.

From well before Cardinal Gibbons, Catholics in America have been advocates for religious liberty, and the landmark teaching of the Second Vatican Council on religious liberty was influenced by the American experience. It is among the proudest boasts of the Church on these shores. We have been staunch defenders of religious liberty in the past. We have a solemn duty to discharge that duty today.

We need, therefore, to speak frankly with each other when our freedoms are threatened. Now is such a time. As Catholic bishops and American citizens, we address an urgent summons to our fellow Catholics and fellow Americans to be on guard, for religious liberty is under attack, both at home and abroad.

Please continue to educate yourselves about religious freedom and the threats it faces every day. Both the Kansas Catholic Conference and the USCCB have great resources as well as there are good videos on FORMED.org too.

ADORATION

"So you could not keep watch with me for one hour?"
(Matthew 26:40)

There is something special about answering that question in the middle of the night, slipping into the quiet glow of the church and simply keeping Jesus company for an hour that feels hidden, warm, and personal.

We have several hours to fill, many of them overnight. Consider signing up for a slot and keeping watch with Him. Please contact Susan Vogliardo, Suesues6@hotmail.com or 816-215-0180

40 Years: Remembering Blessings and Memories at Nativity

As we celebrate 40 years of faith and community at Nativity, we invite parishioners to share a brief reflection on the blessings and memories you have experienced here. Whether it's a meaningful moment, a cherished tradition, or the people who have shaped your journey, your story can help us honor our shared history.

Submissions should be one paragraph (approximately 75–150 words). Please send your reflection to Connor Kmiecik, Communications Director, at communication@kcnativity.org.

We look forward to celebrating the many ways God has worked through our parish community over the years.

40 Years of Nativity Reflection by Catherine & Bill Powers

Bill & I moved to our current home in Leawood 37 years ago with our oldest 2 children. Our realtor had told us that the vacant area north of 119th & Mission Road had been donated to the diocese for the new Catholic church in the area, Church of the Nativity. It was a unique experience to go to Sunday masses at Leawood Middle School and daily masses at the Rectory, with Confessions heard in the Rectory's Dining Room area. Our 3rd child was baptized in the living room of the Rectory and our 4th child in the baptismal font of the new church by Fr. Tom Tank.

The attached picture is of a stone that was given to parishioners on groundbreaking day with the verse from 1Peter 2:5, "We are Living Stones, a building of Spirit". Fr. Tom emphasized that these buildings were being built on a firm foundation of ROCK, and all of us were part of these living stones. By the time the Church & School were being built, we felt very involved in Parish life.

We are grateful to the Archdiocese of NEKS & our Parish for such a strong Catholic foundation in this area. We have enjoyed all the Sacraments thru our children, including Baptisms & Confirmations, First Communion & frequent Eucharist, Reconciliation & Marriages. We have volunteered in many ministries and know of the care & compassion of this Christian community of the Body of Christ. The name & patronage of our Parish has strengthened many holy families over the past 4 decades. God has truly blessed Church of the Nativity!
