Guatemala Mission Trip Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct (herein after referred to as “the Code”) applies during the entire trip, in transit and on location, wherever we may be.

It is expected that all participants of the Guatemala mission trip will be present at scheduled sessions during the trip and in appropriate places throughout the trip. Roaming off the sites during the trip is not permitted. There will be set times participants must be in their assigned rooms and lights out will be established and should be adhered to by all participants in order to be truly present for the experience. All participants should begin moving to assigned dormitory rooms at the appropriate time. An atmosphere of quiet and respect is expected following the lights out time. At no time may a participant leave the site or area where we will be staying.

It is expected that participants will follow the direction of all site staff, security and delegation leaders. Any instances of lack of cooperation may be subject to appropriate discipline.

During the trip, participants are expected to dress in a fashion that represents modesty and appropriate for Guatemalan culture. (No short-shorts, tight leggings, yoga pants, low cut tops etc.) Participants are asked to use positive speech. Foul and abusive language will not be permitted.

NO possession and/or consumption of alcohol will be permitted at work sites. NO possession of firearms, knives or any kind of weapon will be permitted.

I agree that I, _____, the undersigned shall abide by all the rules and regulations as outlined in the Code of Conduct. I have read and reviewed it prior to signing this form. I agree that if I fail to abide by the Code that I may be dismissed at any portion of the trip and sent home.

I understand that such transportation home will be at my expense with no right of reimbursement for any amount in connection therewith.

(Your signature must appear below or you will not be permitted to participate in this trip.)
