REFLECTION

We come today to listen to God's word and celebrate the Eucharist. Gathered together in this place, we look around and see our neighbors. Many of them are people much like us. The neighbor in today's Gospel – the good Samaritan – is not. Samaritans were seen as outcasts by the Jewish people who frequented the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. Yet it was this foreigner, this outsider, this stranger, who is the true neighbor to the Jewish victim. May hearing this parable expand our understanding of "neighbor" as it moves our hearts to reach out to those not like us.

Michael McFarland, S.J., President of The Gregorian University Foundation. All are invited and welcome to join in prayer, especially for the church, our state, and our country. This church, listed as an historic site by the US. Department of the Interior, was built in 1784 on property managed by the Jesuits from the earliest days of the founding of the Maryland colony in the early 1600s. The site including the church and the graveyard are the remaining acreage of the original plantation which is still in the care of the Jesuits. The U.S. Navy and the State of Maryland now own the other original plantation acres. Every year since 1976, Father William George, S.J. has come to Saint Inigoes to recognize the feast day of the founder of the Society of Jesus. For more info call 301-821-6539
