Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Treasures from Our Tradition

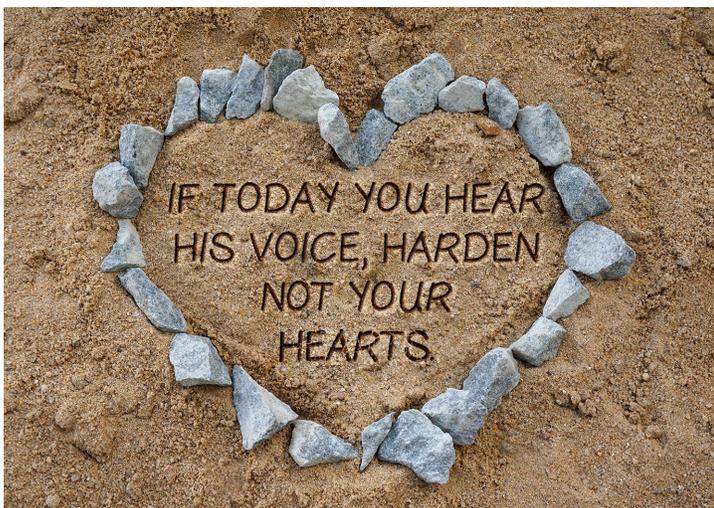

James Field

When Pope Pius XII died in 1958, there was the usual buzz of speculation about likely successors. Cardinal Agagianian, Patriarch of the Armenians, was highly thought of as a likely choice. This took many Catholics by surprise, since he had never celebrated the same liturgy as Pope Pius, but followed ancient Armenian customs according to the Eastern Church, which veils the Eucharistic liturgy from sight by a series of curtains, and in which the priest kneels while the people stand for Communion.

In the years that followed, the Second Vatican Council would affirm the dignity and independence of the Eastern Churches, in complete union with Rome, yet different in patterns of life and worship. We have the same faith, the same sacraments, and the same pope. Yet everywhere in the world our separate Churches are combined into families held together by the ministry of bishops. All of this serves as warning: If you ever say, "But we've always done it this way," you are on very thin ice indeed!

Gratitude

Karen Johnson would like to offer thanks for the texts, calls, and cards from parishioners. She is on the mend!

Our Dearly Departed

Eternal rest grant unto Lucille Hawkins, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. Amen.

Our condolences are with the friends and family of Lucille, who passed into eternal life on July 19, 2025.
