Saints and Scholars

The Stewardship for Saints and Scholars campaign is now underway, and the generosity of our Diocese of Lansing community is clearly apparent.

Many thanks to the volunteers who have worked so diligently to get us to this point. I would also like to thank the donors who have given so generously in the early stages of our campaign. While there is much to celebrate, there is also much work to be done.

In the coming weeks, volunteers will be reaching out individually to some members of our parish. I ask that you please keep in mind the following:

o Volunteers – Dual Donation

The volunteers who are contacting families are just that – volunteers. They have graciously agreed to donate their time and talent for the greater good of this effort. They are serving in this role because they believe in the diocesan-wide initiatives and are passionate about our parish. Please treat them with respect and thank them for helping the Church in this important capacity.

o Personal Touch

I have instructed each of our campaign volunteers to personally meet with members of the family of faith. If you receive a call, I kindly ask you:

- Take the call or return the message. Do not avoid talking to our volunteers. It makes their job more difficult and puts them in a position where they keep calling in an attempt to reach you.
- Meet face-to-face, if possible. If you are asked to meet, please give our volunteers 15 minutes of your time. They are not trying to twist your arm, they just want to briefly explain the campaign initiatives, answer your questions, and receive a decision about your participation.

o Carrying a Pledge Card? Return It!

You received a pledge card inside your packet of materials. Please discern your involvement in the campaign, fill out the card and return it in the envelope provided.

Your Gift Matters!

Remember, the letter you receive includes a financial request. It is not an expectation. It is an invitation. I invite you to pray for this campaign and this diocese. You may not be able to give what was asked. You may be able to give more than asked. Whatever that decision is, know that your commitment is deeply appreciated and is a true blessing to our effort!

Thank you for your cooperation, your consideration, and your support of the saints and scholars throughout the Diocese of Lansing!
