Letter from our Pastor—Carta de nuestro párroco

Dear Friends,

Today's Gospel story of the "unjust steward" stands out in the Gospels as one of Jesus' most unlikely stories. It seems to propose an unethical approach to problem-solving. Is Jesus telling us to "look out for number 1?" Is he saying "get all you can out of life!" or that "the end justifies the means?" Is he encouraging us to cheat when we get into financial trouble? No, that is not the point of this story.

The point of this story–is not about me, or you, or even this world—but about the kingdom! Are we taking action, taking steps, taking the initiative to get the word out to others about God's Kingdom? Naturally, Jesus knows that material things are on our minds. But we are also meant to "look after" each other, in his kingdom on earth—as we prepare for life in God's heavenly Kingdom!

As the catechetical year begins, we pray that all those in our Religious Ed programs and our Academy will continue to learn the values of the Kingdom—

If we value the poor, we will look to serve them.
If we value the hungry, we will try to feed them.
If we value God's creation, we will care for it.
If we value human dignity, we will seek to affirm and respect every person.
And, if we believe in God, we will work for his Kingdom!

Peace and blessings,

Father Tom

Queridos amigos,

El pasaje del Evangelio de hoy del "administrador injusto" se destaca entre los Evangelios como una de las historias más improbables de Jesús. Parece proponer un enfoque muy poco ético para la solución de problemas. ¿Nos está diciendo Jesús que "busquemos ser número 1"? ¿O nos está diciendo "¡saca todo lo que puedas de la vida!" o aún peor, nos está insinuando que "el fin justifica los medios"? Algunos podrían pensar que Jesús nos está animando a hacer trampa cuando nos metemos en problemas financieros. ¡Pero no! ese no es el punto de este pasaje.

El punto de esta historia no es acerca de mí, ni de usted, ni de nadie en particular. Ni siquiera es acerca de este mundo, ¡sino del Reino de Dios! Esta historia nos invita a reflexionar, a pensar si ¿Estamos actuando, haciendo algo o tomando la iniciativa para hacer correr la voz a otros sobre el Reino de Dios? Naturalmente, Jesús sabe que las cosas materiales están en nuestras mentes, que nos preocupan. Pero también estamos destinados a "cuidarnos" unos a otros, en su reino en la tierra, ¡mientras nos preparamos para la vida en el Reino celestial de Dios!

Al comenzar este nuevo año de catequesis, pedimos para que todos aquellos en nuestros programas de Educación Religiosa y nuestra Academia continúen aprendiendo los valores del Reino—

Si valoramos a los pobres, buscaremos servirlos.
Si valoramos a los hambrientos, trataremos de darles de comer.
Si valoramos la creación de Dios, la cuidaremos.
Si valoramos la dignidad humana, buscaremos afirmar y respetar a cada persona.
Y, si creemos en Dios, ¡trabajaremos por su Reino!

Paz y bendiciones,

Padre Tom

We welcome seminarian Mr. Benoit Chavanne who has been assigned to our parishes for his pastoral year!

First, a little background on the pastoral year. Usually, two years prior to ordination, the seminarian is sent to work in a parish for a year to apply some of what he has learned in the seminary.

This year will give him an opportunity to experience parish life and to get involved in ministries and outreach in the parish. The pastoral year is also meant to help him in the process of the discernment of his vocation.

Now, just a little background on Benoît Chavanne. He was born in Paris, France, and came to our country two years ago. He has completed his first two years of theology at St. Joseph's Seminary in Dunwoodie (Yonkers, NY). His native language is French, but he also speaks English, Spanish and Italian.

We are grateful that Benoit has joined us. I am sure he will bring many gifts and talents to our parishes. We hope that this pastoral year experience will be a year of encouragement, growth and learning as Benoit continues to discern his call to priesthood. He will be with us until July, 2023. Please welcome him and introduce yourself to him.

Let us help him feel at home among us!

¡Damos la bienvenida al seminarista Benoit Chavanne, quien ha sido asignado a nuestras parroquias para su año pastoral!

Primero, un poco de historia sobre el año pastoral. Por lo general, dos años antes de la ordenación, se envía al seminarista a trabajar en una parroquia durante un año para que ponga en práctica lo que ha aprendido en el seminario. Este año le dará la oportunidad de experimentar la vida parroquial y de involucrarse en los ministerios y grupos de la parroquia. El año pastoral también le ayudará en el proceso de discernimiento de su vocación sacerdotal.

Ahora, solo un poco de historia sobre Benoît Chavanne. El nació en París, Francia, y vino a los Estados Unidos hace dos años. Ya ha completado sus primeros dos años de teología en el Seminario St. Joseph en Dunwoodie (Yonkers, NY). Su idioma nativo es el francés, pero también habla inglés, español e italiano.

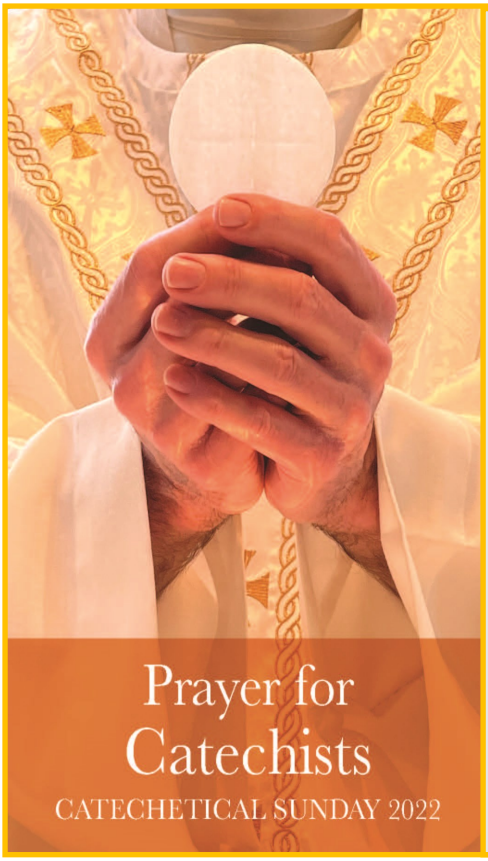
Estamos agradecidos de que Benoit esté aquí con nosotros. Estoy seguro de que él traerá muchos dones y talentos a nuestras parroquias. Esperamos que la experiencia de este año pastoral sea un año de inspiración, crecimiento y aprendizaje a medida que Benoit continúa discerniendo su llamado al sacerdocio. Estará con nosotros hasta julio de 2023. Démosle la bienvenida y ayudémosle a que se sienta como en casa entre nosotros!

Si lo ven, salúdenlo y preséntense con él. Ben habla español.

Catechetical Sunday - September 18, 2022

Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each of us has, by virtue of our Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. This year, the theme is: "This is my body given for you." In the celebration of the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit and the instrumentality of the priest. The whole Christ is truly present in the Holy Eucharist -- body, blood, soul, and divinity -- under the appearances of bread and wine, the glorified Christ who rose from the dead is there, really and fully present for us. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist.

Our catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry, let us pray for them:



Prayer for Catechists

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists. We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church.

Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word. Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you.

Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning; right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son.

We pray this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Oración por los Catequistas

Padre amoroso, rezamos hoy por nuestros catequistas. Les agradecemos por su don de ministerio en su Iglesia.

Concédeles tu sabiduría para que puedan crecer en la comprensión y enseñanza de tu Palabra. Concédeles también tu amor para que puedan ser heraldos fructíferos de tu Palabra y llevar a otros a amarte.

Derrama tu Espíritu Santo sobre ellos para otorgarles sabiduría sobre lo que es importante; conocimiento de las verdades de la fe; comprensión de su significado; juicio correcto sobre cómo aplicarlos en la vida; coraje para perseverar incluso ante la adversidad; reverencia ante todo lo que es sagrado y santo; y ese celo amoroso que lleva a otros a un encuentro transformador con su Hijo.

Oramos esto a través de Cristo, nuestro Señor. Amén.

Domingo Catequético - 18 de septiembre de 2022

El Domingo Catequético es una maravillosa oportunidad para reflexionar sobre el papel que cada uno de nosotros tiene, en virtud de nuestro Bautismo, en la transmisión de la fe y en el testimonio del Evangelio. Este año, el tema es: "Este es mi cuerpo entregado por ustedes". En la celebración de la Eucaristía, el pan y el vino se convierten en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Jesucristo por el poder del Espíritu Santo y la instrumentación del sacerdote. Cristo Jesús está real y plenamente presente en la Sagrada Eucaristía: cuerpo, sangre, alma y divinidad, bajo las apariencias de pan y vino. El Cristo glorificado que resucitó de entre los muertos está ahí, real y completamente presente para nosotros. Esto es lo que la iglesia quiere decir cuando habla de la "Presencia Real" de Cristo en la Eucaristía.

Nuestros catequistas serán llamados a ser comisionados para su ministerio, oremos por ellos.

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

COUNTER TO OUR EXPECTATIONS

When we listen to the scriptures at liturgy, there is kind of an unspoken idea that we will hear something amazing and uplifting, that will stir our hearts into flame and make us better Catholics, better Christians, better people, as we carry the Living Word of God out in our lives. So how surprising is it when we get a day like today, when so much seems to run counter to our expectations? Amos warns us about cheating and taking away someone's rights. In Paul's first letter to Timothy, he explains we must pray for everyone, no matter what we think of them, even if they are in a place of power and authority. And Jesus' praise of the "children of this world" in today's Gospel passage is really disconcerting!

JUSTICE FOR ALL

When we grasp a better understanding of Amos, it really is a mirror of the Gospel message that we must be good stewards and offer kindness and justice to all. Remember that Jesus is in the midst of speaking through a series of parables. (We left off with the Prodigal Son last week.) When he is speaking of the steward, he is not telling us to get into money laundering or get-rich-quick schemes or engage in multi-level marketing. Rather, we can infer that we are to use our goods and our skills wisely and for the betterment of everyone. In the parable the steward is praised for his quick thinking and for finding a way to resolve the situation. The parable ends with Jesus telling us "You cannot serve God and mammon" and you must make a choice.

EVERYTHING IS A CHOICE

The Gospel parable tells us what the steward did one time to get out of a bind. But we are called to make the right choice, the best choice over and over. Sometimes it is hard. You may not be choosing between good and evil, but sometimes even have to choose between two goods. We frequently have to make choices like, "Do I spend this extra time at work to get that promotion? Do I bring the work home with me? Or am I able to leave it there and be with my family when I am done?" Parents often have to look at their savings account before they determine which activities they can afford for their children to participate in. Music and sports and the arts are wonderful, but all require special equipment and time. But making a sacrifice on everybody's part might reap great rewards. Sometimes, though, the choice is made to just get food on the table, or to clothe the family. We learn to make the choices that are best for ourselves and are decisions we can live with. We learn to discern what is best for those we love.

SEPTIEMBRE 18 2022

Vigésimo Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

CONTRA DE NUESTRAS EXPECTATIVAS

Cuando escuchamos las Escrituras en la liturgia, existe una especie de idea tácita de que oiremos algo sorprendente y edificante, que avivará nuestros corazones y nos hará mejores católicos, mejores cristianos, mejores personas, al llevar la Palabra Viva de Dios a nuestras vidas. Así que, ¿cuál es la sorpresa cuando nos llega un día como el de hoy, en el que tantas cosas parecen ir en contra de nuestras expectativas? Amós nos advierte sobre el engaño y el despojo de los derechos de alguien. En la primera carta de Pablo a Timoteo, explica que debemos rezar por todos, sin importar lo que pensemos de ellos, incluso si están en un lugar de poder y autoridad. Y el elogio de Jesús a los "hijos de este mundo" en el pasaje del Evangelio de hoy es realmente desconcertante.

JUSTICIA PARA TODOS

Cuando comprendemos mejor a Amós, es realmente un espejo del mensaje evangélico de que debemos ser buenos administradores y ofrecer bondad y justicia a todos. Recuerda que Jesús está hablando a través de una serie de parábolas. (La semana pasada se proclamó la parábola del hijo pródigo). Cuando habla del mayordomo, no nos dice que nos dediquemos a blanquear dinero o a hacernos ricos rápidamente, ni que nos dediquemos al marketing multinivel. Más bien, podemos deducir que debemos utilizar nuestros bienes y nuestras habilidades con sabiduría y para el mejoramiento de todos. En la parábola, el mayordomo es alabado por su rapidez de pensamiento y por encontrar una manera de resolver la situación. La parábola termina con Jesús diciéndonos "No pueden servir a Dios y a las riquezas" y deben de hacer una elección.

TODO ES UNA ELECCIÓN

La parábola del Evangelio nos cuenta lo que el mayordomo hizo una vez para salir de un apuro. Pero estamos llamados a hacer la elección correcta, la mejor elección una y otra vez. A veces es difícil. Puede que no haya que elegir entre el bien y el mal, pero a veces incluso hay que elegir entre dos bienes. A menudo tenemos que tomar decisiones como: "¿Paso este tiempo extra en el trabajo para conseguir ese ascenso? ¿Me llevo el trabajo a casa? ¿O puedo dejarlo allí y estar con mi familia cuando termine?". Los padres a menudo tienen que mirar su cuenta de ahorros antes de determinar qué actividades pueden permitirse para que sus hijos participen. La música y los deportes y las artes son maravillosos, pero todos requieren un equipo especial y tiempo. Pero hacer un sacrificio por parte de todos puede reportar grandes recompensas. Sin embargo, a veces hay que elegir para llevar la comida a la mesa o para vestir a la familia. Aprendemos a tomar las decisiones que son mejores para nosotros y con las que podemos vivir. Aprendemos a discernir qué es lo mejor para los que amamos.
