Historic St. Ignatius Church was founded in 1849 by Father Joseph M. Finotti, S.J. as a mission under the charge of the pastors of St. Mary's Church of Alexandria, Virginia.

It was built to serve the community of southwestern Prince George's County, from the Potomac River to the west, and the town of District Heights to the east. The first building, a wooden structure which seated 100 people, was constructed on land donated by local Episcopalian gentlemen, and the funds for it solicited by local Catholic matrons Christiana Spaulding Edelen and Mary Surrat.

The current St. Ignatius Church was built on the same site beginning in 1890, and was consecrated on the 21 October 1891 by the cardinal archbishop of Baltimore, James Gibbons, who referred to it as "the prettiest little church in Southern Maryland."

St. Ignatius would best be described as Queen Anne in style, with its polychromatic siding, tower and decorative ornament. The building was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1974.

After spending most of its life as a mission under the care of the Jesuits, then the Carmelites, the Dominicans, and finally the Josephites, the church was made a parish in its own right, assigned to the Archdiocese of Washington, in 1948.

historic ST IGNATIUS CHURCH

In 1811, a "chapel of ease" was built in Bladensburg for St. Matthew's Episcopal Church (Hyattsville); in 1856 it was established as the parish of St. Luke's. For many years, St. Luke's existed as a strongly "Anglo-Catholic" parish of the Episcopal Church, with a devotion to Our Lady and the Eucharist.

As the decades passed, discernment grew. In 2011, the pastor and people of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Bladensburg voted to enter as a group into the Roman Catholic Church, and were received on the feast of Blessed John Henry Newman by Donald Cardinal Wuerl. When the Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter was established in 2012, St. Luke's immediately became a member parish.

In 2014, the parish had to relinquish its church building back to the Episcopal Diocese, and the Archdiocese of Washington found a temporary home for St. Luke's at Immaculate Conception Church, until a more permanent home could be found.

Now a part of the Roman Catholic Church, St. Luke's is called to be a tool for evangelization—to our separated brethren, to the under-catechized, and to the unchurched—through the sharing of our patrimony: our dedication to music and liturgy, our intimate parish scale and lively hospitality, and our devotion to the poor.

ROMAN MISSAL

Fourth Sunday of Easter

INTROIT

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heav'ns were made, alleluia. V. Exult, you just, in the Lord; praise from the upright is fitting. Give thanks to the Lord on the harp; with the ten-stringed lyre chant his praises.

COLLECT

Almighty ever-living God, lead us to a share in the joys of heaven, so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

APPOINTED PSALM Psalms 23

℟️ The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;
he makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul. **℟️

He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil; for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me. **℟️

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows. **℟️

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. **℟️

ALLELUIA VERSE

℟️. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

℟️. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

OFFERTORY VERSE

O God, my God, to you do I watch at break of day, and in your name I will lift up my hands, alleluia, alleluia. V. For you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts to see your pow'r and your glory. You are my help, and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.

COMMUNION VERSE

The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock, alleluia.

FIRST READING Acts 2: 14a, 36-41

[On the day of the Pentecost,] Peter, standing with the Eleven, lifted up his voice and said to the multitude, "Let all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified." Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brethren, what shall we do?" And Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is to you and to your children and to all that are far off, every one whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other words and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation." So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

SECOND READING 1 Peter 2: 20b-25

Beloved: If when you do right and suffer for it you take it patiently, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps. He committed no sin; no guile was found on his lips. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he trusted to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

GOSPEL John 10: 1-10

At that time: Jesus said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber; but he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the gatekeeper opens; the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." This figure Jesus used with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them. So Jesus again said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not heed them. I am the door; if any one enters by me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

The music for the Ordinary of the Mass according to the Roman Missal may be found on the peach-colored card in the pew rack or in the WORSHIP book: Kyrie #205, Gloria #206, Alleluia #208, Sanctus #304 or #214, Memorial Acclamation #215A, and Agnus Dei #311.

The Order of Mass for both forms may be found in the brown pew missal. The hymns for the service are posted on the hymn board, with a designation whether the number is for the bright red WORSHIP book, or the dull red Hymnal 1940.
