All laud we would render: O help us to see
'Tis only the splendor of light hideth thee. Amen.

ROMAN MISSAL

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

INTROIT

God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people. ℟̥. God arises; his enemies are scattered and those who hate him flee before him. But the just rejoice and exult before God, they are glad and rejoice.

COLLECT

O God, protector of those who hope in you, without whom nothing has firm foundation, nothing is holy, bestow in abundance your mercy upon us and grant that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may use the good things that pass in such a way as to hold fast even now to those that ever endure. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

APPOINTED PSALM Psalms 119: 57, 72, 76-77, 97, 127-130

℟̥ O Lord, how I love your law.

The Lord is my portion;
I promise to keep your words.
The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces. **℟̥

Let your mercy be ready to comfort me
according to your promise to your servant.
Let your compassion come to me, that I may live;
for your law is my delight. **℟̥

Therefore I love your commandments above gold, above fine gold.
Therefore I direct my steps to all your precepts;
I hate every false way. **℟̥

Your testimonies are wonderful;
therefore my soul keeps them.
The unfolding of your word gives light;
it imparts understanding to the simple. **℟̥

ALLELUIA VERSE

℟̥. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

℟̥. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

OFFERTORY VERSE

I will extol you, O Lord, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, I cried out to you and you healed me. ℟̥. O Lord, you brought me up from the netherworld; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

COMMUNION VERSE

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

FIRST READING 1 Kings 3: 5, 7-12

In those days: At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I shall give you." And Solomon said, "O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of David my father, although I am but a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of your people whom you have chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered or counted for multitude. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to govern this great people of yours?" It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. And God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, behold, I now do according to your word. Behold, I give you a wise and discerning mind, so that none like you has been before you and none like you shall arise after you."

SECOND READING Romans 8: 28-30

Brethren: We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the first-born among many brethren. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

GOSPEL Matthew 13: 44-52

At that time: Jesus said to the crowds, "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net which was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind; when it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into vessels but threw away the bad. So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous, and throw them into the furnace of fire; there men will weep and gnash their teeth. Have you understood all this?" They said to him, "Yes." And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old."
