Video Message of the Holy Father to the people on the vaccination campaign against COVID-19, 18.08.2021

The following is the video message sent by the Holy Father Francis to the people regarding the vaccination campaign against COVID-19:

In a brotherly spirit, I join in this message of hope for a brighter future. Thanks to God and to the work of many, we now have vaccines to protect us from COVID-19.

They grant us the hope of ending the pandemic, but only if they are available to all and if we work together.

Being vaccinated with vaccines authorized by the competent authorities is an act of love. And contributing to ensure the majority of people are vaccinated is an act of love. Love for oneself, love for one's family and friends, love for all people. Love is also social and political, there is social love and political love; it is universal, always overflowing with small gestures of personal charity capable of transforming and improving societies (cf. Laudato si', no. 231, cf. Fratelli tutti, 184).

Vaccination is a simple but profound way of promoting the common good and caring for each other, especially the most vulnerable. I pray to God that everyone may contribute their own small grain of sand, their own small gesture of love; no matter how small, love is always great. Contribute with these small gestures for a better future.

God bless you, and thank you.

THE WORLD AS MY TABERNACLE

Remembering Barbara Brown Taylor's book, I caught myself saying to a friend as we were driving along California coast that the world is my "tabernacle." By these words, I was referring to my favorite form of prayer.

Absolutely, I like to pray inside a church, before the Blessed Sacrament, or in front of a religious statue. I love to pray with lighted candles in the midst of darkness or with solemn music in the background. But I also love to pray outside in a garden surrounded by giant trees, green meadow, colorful flowers, and blooming bushes. I love to pray under the blue sky or under the stars and the bright moon on a quiet night. I love to pray by the sea with fresh wind caressing my face.

As I pray before this great tabernacle, I would remember the advice of my spiritual mentor in the college seminary: "Focus your eyes on one object...concentrate on looking at one thing and then breath slowly and feel God's presence."

From then on the world has indeed become my tabernacle.

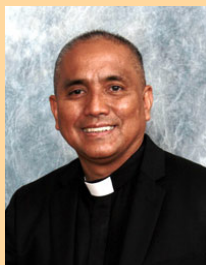

Perhaps, during these summer days as we relax by a backyard, walk around a neighborhood, or take a vacation driving by the coast, this is what God wants us to do: to see him, to hear him, and to feel him in the beauty, vastness, and mystery of his nature. God wants to talk to us through the chirping of birds and the swaying of leaves. God wants to speak to us through the stillness of a plant: yes, it's just standing there worry-free, doing its own purpose in this wide world.

There is so much to learn about nature or about God in nature. It is no wonder that Jesus used familiar elements of nature to teach people about life, faith, and his Father's will. He taught speaking about lilies of the field, birds of the air, branches, and fig trees.

If we could only appreciate and respect the sacredness of this world, maybe we'd protect and nurture it more. The world has a lot to teach us and has profound ways to make us feel God's presence.

Your loving pastor,

Fr. Rodel "Odey" Balagtas

WHAT PRAYER OR PETITION ARE YOU BRINGING TO MASS?

Five minutes before every Sunday liturgy (includes the vigil on Saturday) begins, we ask that you please find a prayer partner--maybe someone you don't yet know or someone alone in the pew and introduce yourself. Then you and your prayer partner begin your prayer together:

Call on God.

("Heavenly Father..."; "Lord Jesus..."; "Holy Spirit..."; "Good and gracious God...")

Praise or thank God for what he has done.

("We praise you for all you have done for us..."; "We thank you for the gift of..."; "We thank you for your...")

Ask God for what you or someone else needs.

("Bless us with..."; "Help us to..."; "Guide..."; "Heal...")

Conclude in Christ.

("We ask this in the name of Jesus..."; "We ask this through Christ our Lord...")

Special Prayer Requests

For the Sick: Les Rangel-Santos, Bill McNamara, Julius Barboza, Lela 'Cat' Kazerouni, Cecilia Atanacio Nunez, those who are sick and those ill with the Coronavirus.

For the Deceased: Pauline Muthike Munyi, Carmelita Vasquez, Joseph Amaral, those who have died from the Coronavirus and all of our beloved dead.
