Sanctuary Candle

The sanctuary candle burns in memory of Matt Mousley, requested by his wife, Patty.

From your pastor,

Our lessons this week should shake all of us up; knowing that as the Holy Spirit places a strong desire to follow Jesus and grow in grace there is a call to let go of the things of this passing world and to hold on the Him, Who is eternal. This is hard for all of us, but none of us are excused from sincerely trying to be a good steward of the blessings God has given to us. It is not a matter of how much we give but how much of what God has given to us do we make as a thanksgiving offering to the Lord.

Remember you will only have in heaven what you have surrendered and given to God on earth. To the extent that we five to the Lord, so shall the Lord give back to us. To be a giving person is to be a blessed person. WE can only give because of the grace. He has already given to us. Pray for Wisdom, that we will use our days and years wisely, opening up this daily life for the eternal life in heaven.

Readings for October 10, 2021

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11

This poem discusses how the spirit of wisdom is far more beautiful than any riches could be. All gold is no more than sand when compared to the importance of wisdom, which often leads people to the other good things in life.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-13

God's perception of people is called "sharper than any two-edged sword." God is able to know the thoughts and feelings of all his people. We can hide nothing from him, and will need to account for all he has seen in us.

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

A man asks Jesus how he can share in everlasting life. Jesus tells him to sell his possessions and travel with them. The man refuses and Jesus tells his disciples how difficult it is for a rich person to enter heaven if they are too concerned with their possessions. The disciples remind Jesus that they gave up everything for him, but he assures them they will be rewarded with everlasting life.
