Real Presence Real Future

Obedience and Listening Set Us Free.
Lori Dulin, Office of Catholic Schools

In preparation for facilitating Real Presence, Real Future parish consultation sessions, I found these words by Pope Francis: "Obeying God is listening to God, having an open heart to follow the path that God points out to us. Obedience to God is listening to God, and it sets us free." RPRF is just that – listening to God's plans for our diocese, for us. I am merely facilitating collaboration and dialogue. Everybody in every parish who, by listening to God, will think of or support new ideas, be open to change for the future, and, ultimately, obey God's plan for the Diocese. In that, we find our own path to the salvation that sets us free.

FEAST DAY

St. Martin of Tours

On November 11, Veterans Day, you can celebrate the feast of St. Martin of Tours, patron of soldiers. His feast is one of the most celebrated in Europe and resembles our Thanksgiving. The main difference is that his feast is celebrated with goose. When St. Martin got word that he was going to be asked to become a bishop, he hid in a stall with a flock of geese but their squawking gave him away and he became the Bishop of Tours.

Visit feastday.co for more help celebrating the feasts and seasons.

TURKEY TIME!

Feeding the hungry of Central Ohio for Thanksgiving since 2008!

Here at Church of the Resurrection, most of us are getting ready to spend time with family, watch some football and enjoy a wonderful turkey dinner with loved ones. However, there are many in our community who are not able to provide a Thanksgiving meal without your assistance. Now is the opportunity to love your neighbor through a Corporal Work of Mercy and feed the hungry.

This year, we will be collecting frozen turkeys in the church parking lot like we've done in years past. For those who prefer not to purchase a turkey and still want to give, we have set up the "Turkey Drive" within We Share on the church website to include monetary giving, or you can also drop off monetary gifts at the truck.

We appreciate your support to help others!

What: Frozen Turkeys & Monetary Donations

When: Before and after all Masses on November 13 & 14 & November 20 & 21

Where: Outside the Ministry Center, facing the church, in the big white box truck

Who: The high school youth of COTR along with the Dixon Family
Why: For the needy families of Central Ohio through St. Dominic and St. James the Less

Last year, we collected 527 Frozen Turkeys and over $10,000.

If you have questions, call Tammy at 614-352-6498.

A CONTEMPLATIVE MOMENT

"Contemplative prayer is a practice of kenosis or self-emptying. At its most basic, contemplation is letting go of our habitual thoughts, preferences, judgments, and feelings. Although life itself—love, awe, or suffering—is often the catalyst for our transformation, contemplation is a daily, small death to false self and ego."

is doing a trash pickup for Adopt A Highway along our assigned part of Route 62 on Saturday, November 20th, from 8:00 a.m. until Noon.

Sign up after Masses the weekends of November 6-7 and 13-14.

Participants
must be 16 or older and able to walk on uneven terrain over 2 miles.

If there is inclement weather, this event will be cancelled.

In keeping with our Diocesan Real Presence, Real Future initiative, "Presence," a Bible study is being offered starting in November.

Although the Eucharist appears to be simple bread and wine, it is actually the "source and summit" of the Christian life. Join us as we explore the truth and beauty of Christ's real presence in the Eucharist, from its origin in Sacred Scripture to its profound role in the life of the Church and her members. It is the crescendo of the entire story of salvation.

This study will consist of discussion of the weekly video we'll watch together. Sign up on the church website.

No cost for the class as you can download your free study guide by following this link study guide or from our church website.

Food Pantry Collection Next Weekend

The monthly St. James the Less Food Pantry collection will be taken next weekend (November 13 and 14). Monetary donation and food collection boxes are located in the gathering area of our church.

In addition to the staple items that are always needed, foods such as stuffing mixes, gravy, canned yams/sweet potatoes, pie mixes, cranberry sauce and other Thanksgiving items will be greatly appreciated.

Please remember that the pantry cannot distribute any items after the "use by date." It would be most helpful to the pantry volunteers if donors check the dates on items that are being donated. Large, bulk items (rice, dried beans, etc.) are difficult for the pantry to distribute, and the pantry is not permitted to distribute items such as vitamins or any medicines (aspirin, etc.).

Thanks for your continued support of our brothers and sisters in need; it is greatly appreciated. Please keep those in need, in your prayers.

The next pantry collection will be held December 11 and 12.

If you are planning to volunteer for any of our ministries involving children and/or youth, and are 18 years old or older, it is required that you have a background check performed and attend a Protecting God's Children seminar before your first volunteer activity. Please go to www.virtusonline.org to find locations, dates, times and to register. If you have questions, please contact Regina Quinn at the Diocesan Offices at 614-241-2565.

Due to the sensitive nature of the Protecting God's Children program, some victims of child sexual abuse may not feel comfortable attending a Protecting God's Children training session. Anyone in this particular situation may request to receive the materials needed for child protection training in an alternate way. These requests are made through the Safe Environment Office. All requests for alternate child protection training for victims of child sexual abuse are kept confidential. Please call Regina Quinn at 241-2568 to request this training.

Jesus was teaching at the temple.
What did He warn the people about?

Thoughts on the Journey

Suanne Gettings—Pastoral Associate

November 6-7 2021 - Mark 12:38-44

There are times when we meet an inspiring individual who punctuates the message of the Gospel. There are also times when an experience with an individual reminds us of the importance of living the Gospel.

Years ago, I was volunteering at the Columbus Right to Life office when a call came in from an attorney in the Columbus area. One of his clients was an elderly retired police officer who lived alone. He was looking for a volunteer to help with chores around the house and some yard work. It seemed like an opportunity to put some of my respect life values into practice. The attorney gave me this gentleman's contact information and said volunteering for this man was a wonderful opportunity to make money for the Columbus pro-life group because this man would leave his entire estate to whatever group came forward with volunteers. I responded that I expected no compensation and whatever this man wanted to do with his money after he died, was his business and was no concern to me.

Shortly after my consent to help, I met Bob. He was quite a character with a whisky voice that was quick to bark orders. Bob seemed a bit bitter, miserly, suspicious of people's intentions, and spouted his unsolicited political views at the drop of a hat. The only extravagance in his life was buying carrots for the rabbits in his yard (the only endearing quality I remember). The love of his life was a Chihuahua named Princess who had the run of the house in every sense of the word!

As time went on, my kids and I would go to do Bob's yard work, laundry, and light housekeeping about once per week. In the course of four plus years we helped Bob, he spoke often of all the money he had and how the group that helped him the most would get the proceeds from his estate. Even though his comments were offensive to me, I tried to assure him repeatedly that I was not there for financial gain: not for myself and not for any organization. Over time, various people would visit Bob and I could overhear him dangling his estate to get various church groups to do things for him. I didn't miss the irony of him feeding carrots to the rabbits to keep them in his yard nor the monetary carrots he dangled in front of people regularly. Bob was in a position to help people in need, but he held tight and fast to every dime.

After a while, Bob's health deteriorated and he struggled to hang on to this life as he did his fortune. I volunteered at Bob's until the day he died. My last encounter with him was at his funeral visitation. When I walked into the funeral home, there was Bob lying in state: no flowers, no family, no friends, no service, not even a holy card. It was a stark visual representation of the emptiness of his life. I approached his casket, said a prayer and bid him farewell.

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus was observing how people put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums, but a poor widow put in two small coins which was all she had. Jesus called His disciples and said to them:

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

In keeping with the Gospel message of Jesus, Pope Francis warned that anyone who "enters Christian life" will have "greater demands made of them and not "greater advantages." Our security in this life and the next, does not come from collecting possessions and things of this world. Our mission in this life is not to compete with one another in acquiring things that will never bring us happiness. Material wealth may dazzle secular society, but it's never been part of Jesus' mission for us as His followers. The problem with consumerism and relying on "things" to bring us happiness is that it distracts us from the true path to peace. The widow in the Gospel today understood the path to peace and our Christian call to give of ourselves completely.

In the end, Bob died how he lived. He never knew the joy of giving, he never learned the spirituality of "letting go," and he never knew the happiness that comes from embracing Jesus' message. When all was said and done, Bob left most of his estate to his dog Princess and the person responsible for its care. The remainder of his estate went to an animal shelter.

When our lives are demanded of us and our bodies are lying in state, what state will our souls be in? How rich will they actually be in the things that matter to God?

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A joyous calling

When we hear the word "vocation," the first thing that may come to mind is "sacrifice." Doesn't it imply God is asking us to give up something precious—like the rest of our lives and our freedom? No wonder we run from the idea whenever it surfaces! But if you ask a priest or religious sister or brother about what vocation means to them, words frequently uttered include joy, meaning, and peace. Listen to some who answered their inner longing speak of their joy here, and pray for vocations this National Vocation Awareness Week.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 17:10-16; Hebrews 9:24-28; Mark 12:38-44 (155). "[This widow], from her poverty, has contributed all she had."

Mary, all the way

Nuestra Señora de los Treinta y Tres, or Our Lady of the Thirty-Three, also known as the Liberator of Uruguay, is the patron of that country. The image of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary was venerated by a group of 33 revolutionaries whose actions led to the founding of modern Uruguay, and there are still pilgrimages every November to the cathedral where this image is enshrined. Mary helps all of us along the way, on the pilgrimage of life, to the liberation of her son. Honor her on her feast day today by offering prayers of praise to the one who set us free from sin.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 1:1-7; Luke 17:1-6 (491). "If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him."

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

We gather together

Saint Paul says we're each a temple of the Holy Spirit. Saint Peter calls us the "living stones" of the church. But having a physical place to gather and worship is of practical importance, too; it's where we forge the bonds of Christian community and celebrate Christ's Incarnation. And so, after Emperor Constantine's edict in 313—allowing persecuted Christians to come out of hiding and be public in their practice—it's significant that he gifted a young church with the Lateran properties. How can you help your own parish maintain Christian community, knowing COVID has kept many from physically gathering?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "No one can lay a foundation other than the one that is there, namely, Jesus Christ."

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Follow the good doctor's advice

The Latin word "doctor" means teacher, and so we have a number of them within the church to whom we look for inspiration and guidance on matters of significance of faith and belief. Leo the Great, whose feast we celebrate today, is one of those "doctors" whose teachings have helped form the foundation upon which we stand today as Catholic Christians. In Saint Leo's case, it was his defense of the doctrine of Christ's Incarnation—that Jesus is fully human and fully divine—that won him fame as a stalwart of the faith. Honor Leo by living fully the divine love showered upon you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 6:1-11; Luke 17:11-19 (493). "Authority was given you by the Lord and sovereignty by the Most High, who shall probe your works and scrutinize your counsels."

Thursday, Nov 11, 2021

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

Give us wisdom to confront and ease poverty

Saint Martin of Tours, today's saint, is famous for tearing his cloak in two to give half to a beggar. With poverty entrenched in our world, knowing how to overcome it ourselves or how to help those who are afflicted is a constant. Perhaps the Wisdom of God, uplifted in the first reading for today, can give guidance. In the footsteps of Saint Martin, we Christians turn to "Wisdom a spirit intelligent, holy, unique" to respond to the many kinds of pain inflicted by poverty.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 7:22b—8:1; Luke 17:20-25 (494). "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you."

Friday, Nov 12, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR

Don't let passion trump compassion

Saint Josaphat, Basilian monk and church reformer, born around 1580, worked to consolidate the Eastern and Western Christian Churches and was part of the "uniat" camp in Lithuania that supported union with Rome. Try as he might, Josaphat couldn't persuade all of his compatriots of the value of a unified Catholic Church, and his detractors claimed he had "gone Latin." Those against the union eventually stormed the bishop's residence and murdered him. Passions run deep when it comes to religion and politics, but, like Josaphat, never lose sight of the ultimate commandment for Christians: to love neighbor, friend, and enemy alike.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 13:1-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). "If they so far succeeded in knowledge that they could speculate about the world, how did they not more quickly find its Lord?"

Saturday, Nov 13, 2021

MEMORIAL OF FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI, FOUNDER

Celebrate a saint for immigrants

As we wrap up National Vocation Awareness Week, we celebrate one of the truly great American vocations of the 20th century, Frances Xavier Cabrini. Mother Cabrini was the first U.S. citizen to be made a saint. She came to the United States from Italy in 1889 to help the flood of immigrants coming to America. Starting with nothing, she founded schools, orphanages, and hospitals to provide support for her fellow immigrants. In her spirit, reach out to immigrants in need—documented or otherwise—they are everywhere to be found these days.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 18:14-16; 19:6-9; Luke 18:1-8 (496). "Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night?"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
