The Perfection of God's Plans
Dcn. Tom Berg, Jr.
St. Andrew Parish

Today's Scriptures assure with spectacular imagery the coming victory of God's plans for humanity, assuring us that Jesus Christ "by one offering... has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated." The Lord promises that His "words will not pass away." As we continue to move forward with our Real Presence, Real Future process, let us remain committed to listening to the Lord and one another so that we perceive God's will for our Diocese and for each of us individually. RPRF is one way by which we can better live in hope and faith in these words from sacred Scripture and be participants in the victory of God's salvific plans.

St. Elizabeth of Hungary

St. Elizabeth is the patron saint of bakers. A popular German Christmas cookie, Elisen-Lebkuchen, is actually believed to have been created for the feast of St. Elizabeth of Hungary. With Christmas foods making their way to shelves, finding these cookies in a grocery store is a possibility. However, if you can't find them, baking your favorite dessert would be a great alternative.

Visit feastday.co for more help celebrating the feasts and seasons.

TURKEY TIME!

Feeding the hungry of Central Ohio for Thanksgiving since 2008!

Here at Church of the Resurrection, most of us are getting ready to spend time with family, watch some football and enjoy a wonderful turkey dinner with loved ones. However, there are many in our community who are not able to provide a Thanksgiving meal without your assistance. Now is the opportunity to love your neighbor through a Corporal Work of Mercy and feed the hungry.

This year, we will be collecting frozen turkeys in the church parking lot like we've done in years past. For those who prefer not to purchase a turkey and still want to give, we have set up the "Turkey Drive" within We Share on the church website to include monetary giving, or you can also drop off monetary gifts at the truck.

We appreciate your support to help others!

What: Frozen Turkeys & Monetary Donations

When: Before and after all Masses on November 13 & 14 & November 20 & 21

Where: Outside the Ministry Center, facing the church, in the big white box truck

Who: The high school youth of COTR along with the Dixon Family

Why: For the needy families of Central Ohio through St. Dominic and St. James the Less

Last year, we collected 527 Frozen Turkeys and over $10,000.

If you have questions, call Tammy at 614-352-6498.

A CONTEMPLATIVE MOMENT

“Keep on with the good things you are doing, since you feel a leaning in these directions, and certainly you will be able to get them done. But be careful of distractions and the desire to do too many things at once. Above all things, be faithful to the present moment, doing one thing at a time, and you will receive all the grace you need.”

LIFT (Living in Faith Together)

LIFT was created to accompany parents and give them the tools necessary to learn about and celebrate their faith together at home. Throughout the year, families will have access to a link for ideas and supplemental activities to do as a family.
We will also offer monthly family activities for faith and fellowship that will serve as an opportunity for families to get together to share experiences and support one another as they continue on their journey of faith.

Please be sure to visit the LIFT Family Ministry page on the parish website. Here you will find monthly movie recommendations, book recommendations for bedtime reading, a list of the Holy days of Obligation, and general information about the time of the year we are in.
Also provided will be a weekly feast day with ideas on how to celebrate at home through prayer, crafts, science experiments and food recipes!

All activities can be found on our COTR LIFT Google calendar in the Living Liturgically section of the LIFT Family Ministry page at www.cotrna.org.

Looking for a way for your whole family to serve your parish? Sign up to participate in a LIFT Family Mass held on the 2nd Saturday of each month! Family members can serve as Lectors, Greeters, Altar Servers, Choir Members, EOMs (must be 16 and trained), or Gift Bearers. Visit the

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The poor have a gift for you

Charity presupposes a giver and a receiver, Pope Francis reminds us this fifth annual World Day of the Poor. This division poses a spiritual danger: tempting the giver to view the poor as a "category" outside our community, to which we may choose to offer our generosity. This perception gratifies the giver and demeans the receiver. Francis observes that "the poor, always and everywhere, evangelize us"—revealing the suffering Christ to us. Charity is occasional and voluntary; mutual sharing, however, is enduring. The real invitation of the poor is this: to share the burden of Christ until we can alleviate it.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 12:1-3; Hebrews 10:11-14, 18; Mark 13:24-32 (158). "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away."

MEMORIAL OF ALBERT THE GREAT, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Head in the clouds but feet on the ground

Albert the Great was a Renaissance man—but he lived in the Middle Ages. He was a German theologian, but he also wrote voluminously about botany, zoology, music, astronomy, and law—to name just a few of his studies of interest. He never let his head full of knowledge go to his head, though, and one of the ways this Dominican friar and bishop stayed humble was by only traveling by foot. Are there lifestyle changes you can make or privileges you can shed to keep yourself down-to-earth?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 1:10-15, 41-43, 54-57, 62-63; Luke 18:35-43 (497). "When they saw this, all the people gave praise to God."

Tuesday, Nov 16, 2021

MEMORIAL OF GERTRUDE, MYSTIC

God's love conquers all

Orphaned during the Middle Ages, Gertrude the Great grew up in a Benedictine monastery and became a brilliant scholar. Like her teacher, Saint Mechtilde of Helfta, Gertrude also became well-known as a mystic, experiencing—and transcribing—vivid visions of God's boundless love. Let Gertrude's encounters with Divine Love calm any worries today: "Joy and gladness be to thee from that sweetest heart, my one refuge and shelter in my exile, from that heart so full of tender care for me, whose love is so set on me that it cannot rest till it hath received me into itself for evermore."

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 6:18-31; Luke 19:1-10 (498). "But he could not see him because of the crowd."

Wednesday, Nov 17, 2021

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, RELIGIOUS

Keep the faith under pressure

Faithfulness unto death is the great rallying cry of the Christian. Without this in mind, today's saint, Elizabeth of Hungary, might at first seem an odd pairing with the readings about martyrdom and divine retribution. With it, however, we see that Saint Elizabeth's firm resolve to serve the poor, despite being a princess with access to enormous privilege, is precisely the kind of behavior God wishes to see in his children. It is precisely the use of the "talents" to which Jesus referred in the parable from today's gospel. Remember, then, that whenever we die to ourselves and devote our lives to Christian charity, we become common martyrs and fulfill the law of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 7:1, 20-31; Luke 19:11-28 (499).

"He, in his mercy, will give you back both breath and life, because you now disregard yourselves for the sake of his law."

Thursday, Nov 18, 2021

MEMORIAL OF ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE

Perseverance please!

Life can sometimes beat a person down, and when that happens, the beautiful tradition of praying for saints to intercede for us can provide communion and solace. Today's saint, Philippine Duchesne, was a nun who survived the upheaval of the French Revolution and combined both a strong devotion to prayer and a passion for missionary life in the American frontier, with its many hardships. Because perseverance was a major theme in her life, she is a patron saint of perseverance in adversity. Saint Philippine, pray for us!

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 2:15-29; Luke 19:41-44 (500). "If this day you only knew what makes for peace."

Friday, Nov 19, 2021

Act on memory

Dedications in memory of fields where lives were lost or sacred places defiled have been a mainstay since biblical times. By remembering the horror of death and destruction, we hope to redeem the site and make it holy again. But as Abraham Lincoln stated on this day in 1863 in his Gettysburg Address, honoring a Civil War battlefield: "We cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground . . . the living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it." Our role, says Lincoln, is "to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced." It is for us to "highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain." Lincoln's words echo Jesus' call to his disciples to "do this in memory of me." Become the body of Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 4:36-37, 52-59; Luke 19:45-48 (501). "The days of the dedication of the altar should be observed with joy and gladness."

Saturday, Nov 20, 2021

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

God of the living

The Bible's Second Book of Maccabees, composed about a hundred years before Christ, introduced the ideas of resurrection from the dead, the intercession of the saints in heaven, and the responsibility of the living to offer prayers and sacrifices for the dead. The Sadducees of today's gospel episode rejected these ideas while Jesus obviously embraced them. Resurrection, praying for the souls in Purgatory, and the intercession of the saints all have become part of what the church believes. Every Saturday we honor the Blessed Virgin Mary, the greatest saint in heaven, and ask her intercession for the souls of our departed relatives and friends.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 6:1-13; Luke 20:27-40 (502).

"[God] is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
