—Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 81

The Peter's Pence Collection has a long tradition as a sign that Catholics around the world are joined in support of the Holy Father.

A Concrete Sign of Mercy

The year 2020 united the whole world in suffering as the COVID-19 pandemic took millions of lives and created widespread economic hardship due to the closure of nonessential businesses. In Lebanon, the hardship of the pandemic was compounded by a catastrophic explosion of a warehouse at the port in Beirut on August 4, 2020. The blast killed more than 200 people and injured and displaced thousands more. With funds collected through the Peter's Pence Collection, the Holy Father provided an immediate response of €250,000 to the Church in Lebanon, which made medical care, temporary shelter, and other basic needs available to victims through the efforts of Caritas Lebanon, Caritas Internationalis, and sister organizations of Caritas. Donations to the Peter's Pence Collection support not only the activities of the Roman Curia that assist the pope in the exercise of his ministry but also solidarity projects that help those most in need, such as emergency relief to the people of Lebanon. Please support the collection which will be taken up next weekend, June 26th. For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website: [www.obolodisani Pietro.va/en.html](http://www.obolodisani Pietro.va/en.html)

Questions Catholics Ask

What are beatitudes, and why are they so important?

The simplest understanding of beatitudes is that they're a form of congratulations. If words were awards, beatitudes would be blue ribbons. Most people associate this term with THE Beatitudes, the famous blessing lines of Jesus — "blessed are the peacemakers," etc. — delivered at the Sermon on the Mount (in Matthew's Gospel) or on the Plain (in Luke's account). But beatitudes are found in the Old Testament also, in psalms and wisdom writings. Apart from the sermons, other New Testament beatitudes appear in John's Gospel, letters of James and Peter, and even the Book of Revelation.

To appreciate how beatitudes operate, we might compare them with commandments. The well-known Commandments in the Decalogue tell us bluntly which actions to take or evils to avoid. Commandments speak in imperatives ("Honor your father and mother") or issue orders ("You shall not kill"), and their sole justification is in the authority of the God who set them in stone. Only incidentally may commandments offer a rationale for keeping them. For example, we're told to honor our parents so that we may have a long life in the land up ahead. This stick and carrot approach is not to be misread: promised land or not, the mandate to respect elders still stands.

By contrast, beatitudes are assurances that we're on the right track. They don't instruct so much as highlight the reward of certain behaviors. As Sirach extols the happiness of a husband with a good wife, he reminds us why it's great to choose the right mate: "A loyal wife brings joy to her husband, and he will finish his years in peace." Before we frown at the lack of reciprocity, please note that Ben Sira, author of these instructions, ran a boys' school and had no reason to describe the joy of wives who choose the right guy — not that many had the option. Beatitudes recall that keeping the Sabbath doesn't just make God happy; who doesn't want a day off?

The two most famous lists of beatitudes aren't identical. Matthew includes nine attitudes that lead to happiness: things like poverty of spirit, a hunger for justice, meekness. In contrast, Luke speaks of real poverty, actual hunger, public humiliation in his list of four blessings, and balances that list with four corresponding woes, or old-world curses. They warn us that choosing vice over virtue leads to misery on the far side of that decision.

Scripture: Exodus 20:1-17; Pss 1:1; 41:1-4; 65:5; 84:5; 106:3; 112:1; Sirach 25:8-9; 26:1; Isaiah 56:2; Matthew 5:3-12; Luke 6:20-26; John 13:17; James 1:12; 1 Peter 3:14; Revelation 16:15

The Men's Ministry is calling all men to battle in a world in crisis.

"And I sought for a man among them who should build up the wall and stand in the breach before me for the land..." (Ezekiel 22:30)

In 2015, Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted issued a challenge to the men of his diocese—to step into the breach. His exhortation, Into the Breach: An Apostolic Exhortation to Catholic Men, identifies the crisis of faith facing the Church today and presents a vision of the role of Catholic men in combatting it.

Inspired by Bishop Olmsted's vision, the Knights of Columbus and the Diocese of Phoenix have joined together to produce a 12-episode video series, titled Into the Breach.

Please join the Men's Ministry on Thursdays from 6:15 – 7:30 a.m. or Saturdays from 7:30 – 8:45 a.m. at the parish Ministry Center as we discuss how to live as Catholic men in today's world. Coffee will be served. No RSVP

Creation Care Corner

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP RECOMMENDATION:

Reducing air travel can dramatically reduce your household carbon emissions. Air travel accounts for 12% of all U.S. transportation greenhouse gas emissions that warm the planet. Driving may be a better environmental option on shorter trips. Driving high mileage cars with additional passengers is almost always a better environmental option. When flying, non-stop coach flights are the best alternative. If you must fly, consider purchasing carbon offsets from a reputable third party certified company like Sustainable Travel International. Purchasing offsets invests in projects that remove some of the planet-warming carbon dioxide out of the atmosphere. Easy-to-use calculators help you calculate a price to compensate for your travel footprint, so you can purchase credits equivalent to the amount of emissions you were responsible for.

"All of us can cooperate as instruments of God for the care of Creation."

— Pope Francis

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION WATCH ME GROW MONTH 3

Month 3 – "I grabbed my hand!" Your baby is quite active in the womb now, although his mother won't feel him for another couple of months. If his mother's womb had a window you could watch your spiritually adopted baby squint, swallow and move his tongue. He can make a tight fist if you touch his palm. He is very sensitive to touch. His fingernails and toenails form and he now has his own unique set of fingerprints. He obtains the oxygen his body needs through the umbilical cord. The baby you are praying for weighs one ounce. What a miracle he is!

Volunteers MAKE IT HAPPEN

ADULT VOLUNTEERS FOR NURSERY, CHILDREN & YOUTH

If you are planning to volunteer for any of our ministries involving children and/or youth, and are 18 years old or older, it is required that you have a background check performed and attend a Protecting God's Children seminar before your first volunteer activity. Please go to www.virtusonline.org to find locations, dates, times and to register. If you have questions, please contact Regina Quinn at the Diocesan Offices at 614-241-2565.

Anyone in this particular situation may request to receive the materials needed for child protection training in an alternate way. These requests are made through the Safe Environment Office. All requests for alternate child protection training for victims of child sexual abuse are kept confidential. Please call Regina Quinn at 241-2568 to request this training.

VBS Volunteer Opportunities

Preschoolers (children ages 4 & 5 that will not be entering Kindergarten in the fall) have a special Monumental program of their own!

Little ones gather with the older kids for Sing & Play Celebration each day to sing the amazing songs, learn the Bible Point, Scripture Verse, and Scripture Story. After Sing & Play, preschoolers move to their own special Quail Trail Preschool area. This format gives preschoolers a little less structure and more free-choice play. Children will rotate through Exploration Stations, Bible Adventures, Craft & Play, and Games. Each rotation features a different activity that reinforces what kids are learning about God. Station Leaders are needed to instruct the crews on the various activities.

Preschoolers need Crew Leaders, too! Quail Trail Crew Leaders help their preschool crews follow directions, play with the children, guide them during activities, and keep them together when they travel through the different stations.

Love the little ones? Then Quail Trail Preschool is the place for you! Please note that the Preschool is only offered during the morning session of VBS the week of July 20th-24th.

Questions? Contact Peggy Kehres at pkehres@cotrna.org. (All adult volunteers must comply with a one-time requirement of fingerprinting and attending a Protecting God's Children seminar.) Visit the parish website at www.cotrna.org to register your child or to volunteer.

Saint Anthony: Miracle Worker of Padua

Born into a Portuguese noble family in 1195, Anthony defied his father's wishes that he become a knight and, instead, followed the call of God to become a monk, eventually joining the Franciscans as a follower of St. Francis of Assisi. Anthony became renowned for his powerful preaching and his miracles that won countless souls to Christ. The film follows his travels through Italy, his mission to Morocco, and his meeting with St. Francis. It beautifully portrays the power of his preaching, the holiness of his life, his love for the poor and oppressed, and the wonders of his miracles. Actor Daniele Liotti gives a truly memorable and inspiring performance as St. Anthony.

Dear Church of the Resurrection Parishioners,

I have enjoyed my time with you for the past two years. Like I said during my farewell homily on the weekend of May 21st and 22nd, Church of the Resurrection has been a home for me. I have grown in many respects by interacting with you all, dear people of God. Memories of this place will live on throughout my life. I extend my special thanks to your pastor, Fr. Denis Kigozi, who has been not only my supervisor, but also a mentor and friend.

I am sincerely grateful for the gift that the parish gave me: a chalice and check to cater for the other necessities. Thank you all for your contributions towards this gift. I am equally grateful to all of you who reached out to me personally with other gifts, and for all of you who storm heaven day and night with prayers for me. Thank you also to those who came out for the reception after the 9:00 and 11:00 Masses on Sunday, May 22. It meant a lot to me. I couldn't be more grateful.

I will not miss a stop in New Albany the next time I make a visit to the United States. As I get closer to my ordination to the priesthood next month, I ask for God's blessing upon you all! May He watch over you and keep you safe.

Till we meet again,
Deacon James Ssebunnya

The purpose of power

We can use power to help others—or to help ourselves. Jesus chooses to feed the multitude and invites his followers to do the same. Lord John Acton (1834-1902), an English Catholic historian, counseled caution with our authority: "Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely." Acton also noted, "Liberty is not the power of doing what we like, but the right to do what we ought" and "The will of the people cannot make just that which is unjust." This Father's Day, pray for fathers and others to act wisely and lovingly when exercising their authority.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 14:18-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26; Luke 9:11b-17 (169). "[Jesus] said to them, 'Give them some food yourselves.'"

Monday, Jun 20, 2022

The only measure that matters

When you were a kid, did your parents measure you by marking your height on a wall each birthday? Perhaps later report cards and sports trophies were a measure of your progress. In adulthood, do you measure yourself by rungs you've climbed on a corporate ladder, or by the increasing figures in your bank account? Some measures are less quantifiable—and far more important. Are you becoming more forgiving, more patient, more giving, more humble, more faithful? Are you getting closer to God? Comparison to others is no measure at all when God knows your heart completely and is helping you grow.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 17:5-8, 13-15a, 18; Matthew 7:1-5 (371). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Tuesday, Jun 21, 2022

Find the happy medium

Young Aloysius—eldest child of a powerful Italian Renaissance family—was scandalized by all the excesses around him. In his corner of the world, corruption and promiscuity abounded. So impressionable was the boy that, as he began to contemplate religious life, he increasingly added penitential practices that promoted the opposite extreme, excessive mortification. Later, as he entered the Society of Jesus, he admitted "I am a piece of twisted iron" and "I entered religious life to get twisted straight." Are there habits in your own life, no matter how holy, that might benefit from the virtue of moderation?

MEMORIAL OF ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, JESUIT PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 19:9b-11, 14-21, 31-35a, 36; Matthew 7:6, 12-14 (372). "Do to others whatever you would have them do to you."

Wednesday, Jun 22, 2022

Make some noise

Paulinus of Nola was a fourth-century Roman poet before he converted to Christianity and became a bishop, which might hint at what inspired him to take the imaginative step of introducing the ringing of bells into church services. The psalms—sacred poetry—encourage us to "make a joyful noise to the Lord" (Ps. 98:4) and that is what bells bring to the life and liturgy of the church. A medieval handbell came to be known as a nola and steeple bells as campanas, from Campania, the region of Italy Paulinus oversaw as bishop. The clear, crisp tones of a bell at liturgy remind us that something sacred is in the air. Consider incorporating a bell into your own life of prayer and contemplation.

MEMORIAL OF PAULINUS OF NOLA, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 22:8-13; 23:1-3; Matthew 7:15-20 (373). "By their fruits you will know them."

Thursday, Jun 23, 2022

Give birth to possibilities

Today is the Solemnity of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, one of the earliest feast days established in the church. John the Baptist is the only person outside of Jesus and Mary whose birth is honored with a feast day, indicating his importance. His unlikely birth to the aged Elizabeth has long been a popular subject for artists. It has miraculous parallels to the birth of Isaac (born to the aged Sarah and Abraham) and to the birth of Christ himself (born to a virgin). Let John's birth remind you that God continuously brings forth life out of seemingly impossible situations.

SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Isaiah 49:1-6; Acts 13:22-26; Luke 1:57-66, 80 (587). "Behold, one is coming after me; I am not worthy to unfasten the sandals of his feet."

Friday, Jun 24, 2022

Don't lose heart

It's tempting to ditch traditional religious images because they can feel so unrelatable today. They can leave us uttering "meh" instead of "amen." But what happens when we look beyond the artistic style and focus on the symbolism itself? Take the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is never portrayed as a perfectly pristine heart, untouched and unaffected. Instead, we see a heart that knows both deep suffering and sacrifice (the crown of thorns) and great love and passion (flames). Now that's relatable! You can surf the web and find an image of the Sacred Heart that speaks to you and make it part of your prayer today.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 34:11-16; Romans 5:5b-11; Luke 15:3-7 (172). "The love of God has been poured out into our hearts."

Saturday, Jun 25, 2022

Look to your heart

Today's memorial focuses on Mary's heart, a way of speaking of her profound internal life as depicted in scripture. Images of Mary's heart often show it pierced by seven swords, representing the different sorrows she endured, from having to flee into Egypt with her infant son to having to witness his crucifixion and burial. Each of us has our own list of sorrows accumulated over a lifetime—griefs and losses we carry with us in our hearts. But Mary's heart reflects much more than sorrow. It reflects her love for Jesus, her courage in accepting her calling, her resilience in the face of hardship. These qualities also live in your heart. In honoring Mary's heart, you honor your own heart, too.

MEMORIAL OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Lamentations 2:2, 10-14, 18-19; Luke 2:41-51 (573). "And his mother kept all these things in her heart."
