Questions Catholics Ask

Why do Catholics believe in the Assumption of Mary?

In this question we put two dogmas together: belief in the Blessed Virgin Mary's Assumption and in the virgin birth of Jesus. We might add the Immaculate Conception of Mary, because a discussion of one of these touches on them all. Theologian Sister Elizabeth Johnson, C.S.J. calls these dogmas "prophecy in the midst of the history of suffering." Prophetic statements are matters of faith and not available for scientific validation.

Nor do these dogmas necessarily spring from the record of Scripture. Chapter-and-verse proof-texts for the Assumption and the Immaculate Conception in particular are unsatisfying because neither event is covered in the New Testament. The Assumption was formally declared ("promulgated") as dogma in 1950 by Pope Pius XII, but that doesn't mean the church has only recently taught it.

The early church fathers don't address the matter of Mary's departure from this world, but possibly as early as the 3rd century the tradition of Mary's "transitus" recounted her bodily reception into heaven. Roman Catholics, Eastern Orthodox, and even some Anglicans hold some version of the Assumption in their traditions; Roman Catholicism does not define whether Mary "fell asleep" or "died" before her body was taken up.

The theological argument for the Assumption is one of "fittingness." Mary is the Ark of God's new covenant in Christ. She was preserved from sin for this end (her Immaculate Conception) and should not undergo the corruption of death (see Romans 6:23 on the wages of sin). Her body, given over to God's purposes in the divine plan of salvation, became a vessel too sacred to be discarded or forgotten afterwards. Scholastic thinkers like Aquinas and Bonaventure used the Latin phrase "potuit, voluit, fecit" to sum up the idea: God "could do it, willed it, and did it."

Perhaps a more humanly compelling argument arose in the wake of the 20th century's two brutal world wars. Pius XII surveyed the ghastly indignities suffered by the human body in recent memory and saw an opportunity to teach emphatically that God cares what happens to our mortal flesh. Mary's exalted destiny may bring "clearly to the notice of all persons" the destiny of our bodies and souls. You and I are also vessels of divine life too precious to God to forget.

Volunteers MAKE IT HAPPEN

ADULT VOLUNTEERS FOR NURSERY, CHILDREN & YOUTH

If you are planning to volunteer for any of our ministries involving children and/or youth, and are 18 years old or older, it is required that you have a background check performed and attend a Protecting God's Children seminar before your first volunteer activity. Please go to www.virtusonline.org to find locations, dates, times and to register. If you have questions, please contact Regina Quinn at the Diocesan Offices at 614-241-2565.

Due to the sensitive nature of the Protecting God's Children program, some victims of child sexual abuse may not feel comfortable attending a Protecting God's Children training session.

Anyone in this particular situation may request to receive the materials needed for child protection training in an alternate way.

These requests are made through the Safe Environment Office.

All requests for alternate child protection training for victims of child sexual abuse are kept confidential. Please call Regina Quinn at 241-2568 to request this training.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Grades PreK-8

Peggy Kehres: pkehres@cotrna.org

CREED (grades PreK-5) and RISE (grades 6-8) are our parish's weekly religious education programs for children of the parish who attend area public schools. Our mission is to meet children at their level of development, teach them the love of Christ and the joy of His forgiveness and salvation, help them learn the truth of His Word, and encourage their growth within the body of Believers. We strive to help children know Christ, understand His Word, grow in their own spiritual walk, and be able to share the love of Christ with others.

Our staff and catechists are committed to nurturing the student's spiritual and moral growth with a strong foundation in the Catholic faith, so that they may live out the Gospel of Jesus in their daily lives. More detailed information about CREED and RISE can be found on the parish website.

Registration has begun!

Call for Catechists – Teachers of our Faith

*I can do things you cannot, you can do things I cannot;
Together we can do great things.*

— St. Teresa of Calcutta

Come do great things! This fall, children in grades PreK-8 will be enrolled in weekly religious education to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. Volunteers are needed to share their faith and experience with the children of our parish. There are many ways to get involved: as a teacher, co-teacher, classroom aide or safety monitor. All are invited - last year's 82 teachers and aides included 7 men, 22 teenagers, and 25 adults who did NOT have a student in the CREED program. Lesson plans have been prepared for each grade level by an experienced team leader and complete training is provided. (Children of weekly CREED volunteers are tuition-free.)

Questions? Contact Peggy Kehres at pkehres@cotrna.org.

(All adult volunteers must comply with a one-time requirement of fingerprinting and attending a Protecting God's Children seminar.)

Special Classes Now Forming

Christian Initiation of Children (CIC)

For children ages 7-14 who want to know more about the Catholic faith.

When Jesus saw the two disciples following him, he turned to them and said, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi, where are you staying?" and he said to them, "Come and see," and they stayed with him that day (John 1:38-39).

You, too, are invited to "come and see" what we are like and what we believe in. Family catechesis is available as part of our LIFT (Living in Faith Together) ministry. Classes are now forming for families with children in grades 3-8 who have been baptized but have not had any formal religious education or not yet received their First Holy Communion. The first session will run September-December. This 6-week series (twice monthly on Sunday from 10:00-11:30am) will focus on the basics of our faith and also prepare the child to receive the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Eucharist.

Please contact Peggy pkehres@cotrna.org for more information.

Interpreting the Times

Jesus came to offer peace on earth,
but He had to die first.

In the flames, find a cross, a spear,
a crown of thorns, a hammer and a nail.

Do you LOVE Middle Schoolers?

Are you interested in learning more about walking with them as they learn more about Jesus and how He fits into their lives? Then plan to attend the Information/Organization Meeting being held on Monday, August 22nd at 6:30pm in the Ministry Center. At this time, we will go over the plan for the coming year, the curriculum being used, and discuss the different roles available for volunteers. All are welcome!

Now on Formed:

Interview by Chris Stefanick:

Scripture says, "Be sober and alert. Your opponent the devil is prowling like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, solid in your faith." In other words, the Christian life involves spiritual combat. But a lot of Catholics aren't really familiar with this idea.

So to start unpacking it, we're talking to Fr. Chad Ripperger, an exorcist priest. Obviously, he's on the front lines of some intense spiritual warfare, but it's taught him a lot that everyday Catholics like you and me can use to fight in our own struggles. I know exorcism is a serious topic, but don't worry. This is not a scary episode. You'll be amazed by Fr. Ripperger's stories of God's power and providence, and how not even the demons can thwart God's plan for us.

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP RECOMMENDATION: Protect Forests

Each year, an area the size of South Carolina is deforested worldwide, adding to biodiversity loss and contributing significantly to planetary warming. Make sure the lumber you (or your contractor) use for your next project carries the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) certification. The FSC program is an independent, nongovernmental, nonprofit organization established to promote the sustainable management of the world's forests. Evaluation is typically performed by an independent third party. Certification can assure consumers that they are buying forest-related products that were grown, harvested and processed sustainably, protecting the resource for future generations.

The Brian Muha Foundation memorializes Brian Muha, a graduate of St. Charles Preparatory School and student at Franciscan University, who was killed in a random act of violence at the age of 19, twenty-three years ago. The foundation honors his kind and charitable spirit by helping others who are in need. The Run the Race Club (RTR) was started by Brian's mother, Rachel Muha, and the foundation. RTR offers a safe and loving atmosphere on Columbus' West Side (The Hilltop) where children can go to play, learn and study. RTR provides education, clothing, food, furniture, toys and more to families in our community, at no cost. The Muha Foundation is able to help others continue to 'Run the Race' through its generous donors and fundraising events such as the annual 'Night of Champions'.

Thoughts on the Journey

August 14, 2022. 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12:49-53

Suanne Gettings

My mother, Jackie, was a strong and passionate advocate for the underdog throughout her life. When she was a young girl, she was part of the country's war effort to collect cans to help fight the evils of Hitler; it was her contribution and she was proud of it. Her brother Fred was developmentally delayed and was often bullied. Word got around quickly not to mess with Fred because they would have to take on Jackie - a force with which to be reckoned. When a group of Christian black men formed an organization to improve conditions in the inner-city neighborhood of Avondale, she was the only white person who stood in solidarity with them, attending city council meetings and participating in their community efforts. When Planned Parenthood began distributing condoms and inappropriate materials to grade school children, she started the Parent's Rights Organization in the city to inform parents what was taking place in the schools. When abortion clinics began popping up in Cincinnati, she was front and center in protest at the Board of Health, became a founding member of the Pregnancy Problem Center in Western Hills, and took in young girls who needed support during and after their pregnancies.

Jackie was often referred to as a spitfire. She was loved by many and at the same time was seen by those who opposed her views, as a royal pain in the rump. Whether at home or in the community, her first pledge of allegiance was to Christ. Her God was the fire within her that gave her strength and resolve to stand up for what she believed to be right, regardless of what others thought - regardless of the price. As one of her nine kids, I was a front-row witness to her faith in action. I also saw how her inner fire was a catalyst, stoking the flame within others, and inspiring them to get involved. Jackie also took on the heat of controversy and criticism, trusting that God was with her through it all.

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus is talking to His disciples and says to them,

"I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!"

Jesus further tells them that He did not come to establish peace on earth, but division. He wanted them to understand that His message was not going to sit well with many and will create division between those who believe and those who don't.

From the very beginning, the life and ministry of Jesus were marked with peace, compassion, mercy and love. His ministry was also marked by conflict that eventually led to His death. He did not come to bring us bland moral platitudes or console us with sentimentality, but rather to show us the way, the truth, and the light that will lead us home to His Father. His living example and His teachings involved the conversion of mind and spirit; which requires repentance, an end to sin in our lives, and a call to love, serve, and forgive. Let's face it, truth is hard to hear and the path of conversion is hard work.

As I look at the state of the world these days, I can't help but see division and conflict caused by evil colliding with good. We've gone down many slippery slopes in our society that are violating humanity and the sanctity and dignity of who we are as God's children. The alarms are sounding all around us! Can you hear them?

Fortunately, there are many people of faith who have the fire of Jesus burning within them. They are our hope because they carry the torch of discipleship. It is that divine light that will change the world. Staying deeply united to Jesus we, too, can change the world.

MONTHLY SUNDAY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

AUGUST 21st

OUR LADY OF THE RESURRECTION CHAPEL

12:15	Opening Prayer
1:00	Litany to the Holy Family
3:00	Divine Mercy Chaplet
3:45	Closing Prayer & Benediction

In our hectic world, carve out some quiet time in your family life. Bring your family closer to Jesus' presence in Eucharistic Adoration, asking Him to help your family grow in holiness with Graces that flow from Him.

Heavenly Father, you have given us the model of life in the Holy Family of Nazareth. Help us, O Loving Father, to make our family another Nazareth where love, peace, and joy reign. May it be deeply contemplative, intensely eucharistic, and revived with joy.

Help us to stay together in joy and sorrow in family prayer. Teach us to see Jesus in the members of our family, especially in their distressing disguise. May the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus make our hearts humble like His and help us to carry out our family duties in a holy way. May we love one another as God loves each one of us, and forgive each other's faults as you forgive our sins.

- Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Sunday, Aug 14, 2022

Make some noise for justice

Civil rights activist and Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient Congressman John Lewis hoped young Americans might get in trouble. "Good trouble, necessary trouble," he specified. Lewis wished that a passion for what's right might compel our young citizens to "find a way to get in the way" of injustice. A young prophet named Jeremiah once got in the way, winding up at the bottom of a well and nearly starving to death for causing trouble for his king. Jesus promises the same sort of trouble in our families if some members are baptized with fire while others don't feel the burn. Find yourself some good trouble.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10; Hebrews 12:1-4; Luke 12:49-53 (120). "He will die of famine on the spot, for there is no more food in the city."

Monday, Aug 15, 2022

Grief requited

Given that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was likely in her teens when she gave birth, she was probably only in her late 40s when Jesus died 33 years later. Life expectancy was a lot shorter then, but potentially Mary could have been alive for many years after seeing her son for the last time. One ancient historian wrote that she died 11 years later. It must have been a time of intense longing for her. Whether she died before she was bodily assumed into heaven or was assumed before she died is left open-ended by the church. Either way, it was an extraordinary reunion with the Lord befitting her status. Consider your own reunion with God. Plan ahead!

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY (NOT AN OBLIGATORY SOLEMNITY THIS YEAR)

TODAY'S READINGS: Vigil: 1 Chronicles 15:3-4, 15-16; 16:1-2; 1 Corinthians 15:54b-57; Luke 11:27-28 (621); Day: Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab; 1 Corinthians 15:20-27; Luke 1:39-56 (622). "He has looked with favor on his lowly servant."

Tuesday, Aug 16, 2022

Embrace the mystery of communion

Brother Roger Schütz, founder of the Taizé movement, died on this date in 2005. Brother Roger began Taizé in 1940 in the French countryside, envisioning a humble monastic community to respond to the needs of war-torn refugees—but also to welcome followers from all Christian denominations. The simple house he purchased eventually blossomed into a global place of pilgrimage, especially for young people. Taizé is especially known for beautiful chants still used in congregations all over the world. "The Church is a mystery of communion," Brother Roger wrote, where we "can discover an aurora of reconciliation and the practicing of a simple joy." Pray with Taizé through their website.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 28:1-10; Matthew 19:23-30 (420). "For God all things are possible."

Wednesday, Aug 17, 2022

To each is given a mission

On this day in 1887, Marcus Garvey, one of the most influential black activists of his generation, was born in Jamaica. Founder of Universal Negro Improvement Association, a fraternal organization that he grew into an international powerhouse after emigrating to the United States, he is credited with coining the term "Black is beautiful" to encourage racial pride. Though controversial in many of his views, he is remembered for his advocacy for racial equality and economic justice. Be a voice for equality and justice as you live out your unique Christian mission.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 34:1-11; Matthew 20:1-16 (421). "You have made them equal to us."

Thursday, Aug 18, 2022

Be willing to look closely

On this day in 1998 the renowned Holocaust scholar Harry James Cargas died. Most of his teaching and writing focused on the Christian response to the Holocaust. What haunted him, he once said, was that "probably every Jew killed in the Holocaust was murdered by a baptized Christian." Cargas could have chosen an easier academic path, but instead he forced Christians to take stock of their complicity. Today's Psalm is a good help for examining our own cooperation with contemporary sin: "A clean heart create for me, O God."

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 36:23-28; Matthew 22:1-14 (422). "Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Friday, Aug 19, 2022

Keep it simple

Saint John Eudes, a 17th-century priest and mystic, worked tirelessly to spread the gospel message, which he feared was being corrupted by various heresies. For Saint John, Christianity wasn't complicated: "The Christian life is a continuation and completion of the life of Christ in us. We should be so many Christs here on Earth, continuing His life and His works, laboring and suffering in a holy and divine manner in the spirit of Jesus." And just what was Christ's work? Look no further than the two great commandments he gave us: "Love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind," and "Love your neighbor as yourself."

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 37:1-14; Matthew 22:34-40 (423). "The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

Saturday, Aug 20, 2022

Schism-saver

In 1130, Pope Honorius II was dying. In anticipation of his death, a group of cardinals agreed on Cardinal Gregory Papareschi as the next pope. Upon Honorius' death, Papareschi was elected Pope Innocent II. But another group of cardinals had another cardinal in mind for the position, Cardinal Pietro Pierleoni, and elected him as Pope Anacletus II. The church then had a pope and an antipope. Question was, which was which? Saint Bernard of Clairvaux threw his considerable weight and hard work behind Pope Innocent, who eventually prevailed, preventing what easily could have spiraled into a schism. Remember this lesson from Bernard: "If you are to do the work of a prophet, what you need is not a sceptre but a hoe."

MEMORIAL OF BERNARD, ABBOT, FOUNDER, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 43:1-7a; Matthew 23:1-12 (424). "The greatest among you must be your servant."
