"THERE'S STILL TIME TO GIVE TO THE APPEAL"

Thank you to all who have already made a gift or pledge to this year's Appeal! Our parish goal is $248,797.32. To date, we have raised $87,031.52 which is 35% of our goal. In the past, you have enabled our parish to exceed our goal. Thank you so much. I know that there are many obligations facing our families, and I am aware of mounting economic anxieties, but I hope and pray that you will help the parish reach our goal this year and even exceed it. You may turn your envelopes in at Church or visit The Appeal website to make your gift today.

Thank you very much for your generosity. May God continue to bless you, our parish, and our diocese.

— Fr. Denis

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal TODAY! Nearly 40% of diocese in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous.

SIGNS OF FAITH

INQUIRERS

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is the process through which persons inquire into and determine if they are called to live out their faith as a member of the Roman Catholic Community. For more information, please contact either Brian Franz at 740-817-4467 or bfranz001@hotmail.com; or Marian Prentice at 614-530-0630 or meiwen.1@gmail.com; or the Parish Office at 614-855-1400.

BAPTISM

INFANTS & CHILDREN:

In the Infant Rite of Baptism, celebrated with children up to the age of reason, the parents make a profession of faith for their child and accept the responsibility of nurturing God's gift of faith in their child as he/she grows and matures and is formed in many ways. Therefore, parents are asked to attend a Parent Preparation Session (preferably during pregnancy) before the child's baptism. The goal of this session is to provide an opportunity for faith reflection and sharing with the support of other parents. The discussion centers on the celebration of the sacrament of Baptism and the challenges of our own faith and how we might pass our faith on to our children.

Sessions are usually held at 12:30 p.m. on the 4th Sunday of the month, in the OLR Chapel.

Register on the parish website. Following registration, a response with further information will be sent to you. Scheduling of the Baptism will take place after attending the Parent Session.

SCHOOL AGE CHILDREN: Parents will be asked to meet with Peggy Kehres, Coordinator of Children's Ministry, after attending the Parent Session. At this time, appropriate preparation will be planned based on the needs of each child.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Contact Mary Koors, 614-855-8861 or marykoors1@gmail.com.

Protect Pollinators.

Bees, butterflies, and other key pollinators are necessary for most major food crops. Honey bees pollinate 80 percent of all flowering plants alone, including more than 130 types of fruits and vegetables. According to Farmers.gov, the ecological service provided by pollinators is valued at $200 billion each year.

Unfortunately, bee populations have dropped alarmingly across North America, as have the populations of many other pollinator species. They are in serious decline due to exposure to parasites, pesticides, disease, habitat loss and other environmental contaminants. If we all dedicate just a small area to protecting habitats for pollinators, using native plants and sustainable gardening practices, we can help safeguard our common home. Limit pesticide use and consider following these tips to start your own pollinator garden at:

www.fws.gov/story/how-build-pollinator-garden

A CONTEMPLATIVE MOMENT

"There is not a flower that opens, not a seed that falls to the ground, And not an ear of wheat that nods on the end of it's stalk in the wind -- that does not preach and proclaim the goodness and mercy of God to the world."

OUR MISSION

To enhance the spirituality of our Parish through music, while assisting the assembly in full, active, and conscious participation in the liturgy.

The Music Ministry welcomes all levels of musicianship and our ever-growing and spirit-charged ministry is always open to new members!

Instrumentalists and singers of all ability levels, experience, and ages are WELCOME to participate in any of our four choirs.

Please prayerfully consider answering the call of the Holy Spirit!

I WANT TO BE IN THE CHOIR But...

"I don't have that kind of time!" (Commit to what you can. With 4 choirs, there are many opportunities.)

"I don't sing that well!" (All levels of ability are welcome!)

"They already have enough people." (We NEVER have enough singers!)

NOW is a great time to join one of the choirs in your parish Music Ministry...

TIME & TALENT

All are welcome. Please consider joining the Shawl Ministry as we knit or crochet. We meet every Friday at 1:00 in room 104 in the Ministry Center. A few of the things we make are Prayer shawls for those in hospice, the seriously ill, or those suffering from a serious tragedy; lap robes for Habitat for Humanity families; washcloths, baby blankets, scarves and hats for the less fortunate, just to name a few. As we make these and other items, we pray the recipients feel God's loving touch. If you need a refresher on knitting or crocheting or for more information, please call Sandy Walsh (614)342-6002 or Mary Madachy (614)805-2004.

ADULT VOLUNTEERS FOR CHILDREN & YOUTH

If you are planning to volunteer for any of our ministries involving children and/or youth, and are 18 years old or older, it is required that you have a background check performed and attend a Protecting God's Children seminar before your first volunteer activity.

Please go to www.virtusonline.org to find locations, dates, and times to register. If you have questions, please contact Regina Quinn at the Diocesan Offices at 614-241-2565.

Due to the sensitive nature of the Protecting God's Children program, some victims of child sexual abuse may not feel comfortable attending a Protecting God's Children training session. Anyone in this particular situation may request to receive the materials needed for child protection training in an alternate way. These requests are made through the Safe Environment Office. All requests for alternate child protection training for victims of child sexual abuse are kept confidential.

Please call:
Regina Quinn 614-241-2568 to request this training.

LITURGICAL LIFE

Practicing Catholic | Why Do We Do That | Praying for Priests | Knights of Columbus

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

We Bear the Name of the Lord

The name of the Lord is a curiously powerful thing. Say it deliberately, even in a group of people who are not particularly religious, and you'll know what I mean. There is a shift in the mood, a change in the atmosphere. When we utter the name of the Lord, He turns His head.

Once, in confession, I admitted to the sin of using the Lord's name in vain. "When you do that, tell God that you love him" advised the priest, who was wise enough to know that I would repeat this sin at some point. "You've said His name, after all. You have His attention."

We hear the name of the Lord, and we think of what it represents - John 3:16, salvation history summed up in a neat little sentence, the why and the how and the who of it all laid out before us. The Lord, so slow to anger that He offers us a million chances. The Lord, so rich in kindness and fidelity that He literally gave Himself to us that we might be saved.

But the name of the Lord is more than that. It is not just a symbol, it is an invitation. I think of Moses clutching the commandments, beseeching the Lord: "Come with us. Forgive us. Receive us as your own." The Lord accompanies us down the mountain. We bear the name of the Lord into the world with us wherever we go.

I have to ask myself: do I do that name justice?

"Blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages."
— Daniel 3:52

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

We live in a country that upholds the separation of Church and state. What is the role of Catholics in society?

Answer:

The role of the Church in the world has taken different forms over time, but the theme is the same. Be disciples in it! As the lay faithful — that is, not vowed priest or religious — we are called to live and love in the circumstances of our daily lives. St. John Paul II wrote a document about the laity. In it he wrote, "In their situation in the world God manifests His plan and communicates to them their particular vocation of seeking the Kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs and by ordering them according to the plan of God" (On the Lay Members of Christ's Faithful, 15).

God wants us in the hospitals, the board rooms, the law offices, the food pantries, and the little league games! We are to engage in the affairs of the world. But when we're there, we should live the plan of God. We need to respect those around us, engage in just business and legal practices, and love our children. We should care for the earth, use our money wisely, and get to know our neighbors. We must advocate for social policies that respect human dignity and human freedom. No matter our state in life, we are invited to build the kingdom of God!

Prayer for Priests During the Priests Convocation June 19-22

Many of the priests of our diocese will be in convocation with the Bishop, June 19-22. The Bishop wants this to be a time of strengthening and encouraging for our priests in their ministry. He is asking for all of the diocese to offer prayer for our priests during that time. The hope is to have every single hour covered in prayer. If you would like to commit to praying at a specific hour and day of that week, please do so at: www.columbuscatholic.org/prayerforpriests. Whether you commit online or not, please consider offering a time of prayer, a rosary, a visit to the chapel, etc. during that time for our priests!

Thoughts on the Journey

June 4, 2023 The Most Holy Trinity

John 3:16-18

Suanne Gettings

Thirty-five years ago, I was pregnant with my second child. In the last trimester of my pregnancy, my doctor scheduled an ultrasound which meant I had to drink enough water ahead of time to fill a bathtub, then sit in the waiting room with a full bladder until I thought I would explode, and then lie still on an examination table as they pressed the testing instrument across my abdomen. It was all worth it just to hear my baby's heartbeat and to try to decipher the blurred images as they skirted across the transducer screen. Normally the sonographers, when running the test, would ask if I wanted to know the gender of the baby. I always said 'no' because I liked the element of surprise when it came to birthing the baby. On this particular visit, the ultrasound technician kept referring to the image as "him." I ignored it until he blurted out, "It looks like you have a nice healthy boy in there!"

Not giving much thought to the idea of being a mother to a boy, I began to get anxious about the prospect. It was completely irrational thinking, but sometimes hormones can create the perfect emotional storm. I found myself saddened that I was having a boy instead of a girl. It wasn't that I didn't like boys, I just had no point of reference for raising a boy. After all, I was a woman comfortable with feminine thinking and feminine things. The new life coming to me would require thinking outside the girly box and being open to the masculine world. Was I up for the challenge?

On August 11, 1988, ready or not, he came into the world. The moment I laid eyes on my son, I fell in love with him! With his misshapen head, his big blue eyes, and his sweet disposition, I was in awe of the magnitude of the gift that I had just been given. It was an instant bond that has given me joy, beyond all telling, throughout the years and the various stages of his life. He introduced me to a masculine world from truck noises and caterpillars in his pockets, to wrestling and other unsavory sports, to an innate protective nature, a common-sense approach to problem-solving, and the list goes on. Since he is my only boy, his influence has been distinctive.

Like all my children, male and female, they have my unconditional love. I can't think of anything they could or would do that would lessen my love for them. It is in that way that I have gotten a small glimpse of how much God loves each of us, but that glimpse only goes to a point. There is that place where my limited humanity cannot wrap its head around the enormity of God's love.

In John's gospel on this Trinity Sunday, we have one of the most popular scripture verses of our time revealing to us the profoundly generous nature of our loving God.

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."

Right there! There it is! The part of God I cannot wrap my brain around. How could a Father, who loves His Son so deeply, give Him up to suffering and death so that others can live forever? There is no one I love enough that I would be willing to sacrifice my son so that others would not perish. So, therein lies the vast aperture between being human and being our God. Ironically, that great divide which marks the difference between us, is the very thing that unites and draws us to Him. I will stand in awe of the very thing I cannot understand and keep trying to accept God's overwhelming love for me.

One of the legends of St. Augustine of Hippo is the story he tells of a time he was walking along the beach trying to understand some puzzling questions he had about God. While walking, he encountered a child who kept walking back and forth from the ocean to a hole he was digging in the sand. He would fill the cup with water and then pour the water into the small hole. Augustine asked him, "What are you doing?" The child replied, "I'm trying to put the ocean into this hole in the sand." Augustine said, "That's impossible! The ocean is so huge and so vast that you will never be able to fit it in that hole." The child then looked into Augustine's eyes and said, "Not more impossible than any finite human mind trying to understand the infinite mind of God." With this, the child disappeared. St. Augustine's exchange with the child on the beach is believed to be an encounter with the Christ Child.

We are not asked to completely understand the enormity of God's love for us, but we are asked to believe that His love is real, deep, personal, and the key to our salvation. God knows the challenges we face as sinners. It is for sinners that Jesus was crucified, died, and rose from the dead. The Father did not send His Son to condemn us, but He sent Him to redeem us and release us from the bonds of sin. It may take us a lifetime to wrap our minds around the gift of salvation that we've been given, but we are asked to persevere in our belief trusting that we've been saved by an awesome Triune God with limitless love. Alleluia!

Widen the circle

Trinity Sunday isn't for parsing the Three-in-One. It's an invitation to meditate on the mutual self-giving of Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, who "so love the world" that we all share in the divine embrace. Yet to child victims of aggression, their experience has felt outside of any caring circle. That's why the U.N.'s "Convention on the Rights of the Child" was the most rapidly and widely ratified rights treaty in history. It ensures every child has a right to life, a name, family or guardian, health care, education, freedom of religion—even the right to play. Encircle the children in your life with tenderness.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Make your life a work of art

Artist and author on interreligious thought, Frederick Franck was born in 1909 in Holland and died on this day in 2006 in Warwick, New York—the place of his life's work, Pacem in Terris ("Peace on Earth"), a garden of more than 70 sculptures, open free to the public and dedicated to Pope John XXIII, Dr. Albert Schweitzer, and the Buddhist teacher D.T. Suzuki. Raised agnostic in a Catholic region of his country and a student of Zen Buddhism, Franck was inspired during the Cuban Missile Crisis to go to Rome in 1963 to draw all the sessions of the Second Vatican Council. "Art is neither a profession nor a hobby, it is a way of being," he said. Take inspiration to creatively express your spirituality in your own way of being.

MEMORIAL OF BONIFACE, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 1:3; 2:1b-8; Mark 12:1-12 (353). "By the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes."

One bread, one body

A painting by Flemish artist Peter Paul Rubens—called The Defenders of the Eucharist—includes a serene Saint Norbert, his white robes wrapped around a ciborium (the cup that holds the consecrated Eucharist) as he cradles the Blessed Sacrament. Norbert founded the Norbertine religious order as well as the first Third Order for laypeople embracing the spirit of religious life. And, as a successful peacemaker, he's often depicted with an olive branch. But Norbert's preaching about the Blessed Sacrament, convincing entire villages to reclaim their lost belief in the Real Presence—also having eucharistic miracles happen on his watch—has earned him the title "Apostle of the Blessed Sacrament." May he inspire our devotion as the National Eucharistic Revival enters its second phase this month.

MEMORIAL OF NORBERT, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 2:9-14; Mark 12:13-17 (354). "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Wednesday, Jun 07, 2023

Transcending prejudice in service to God

This day marks the 105th death anniversary of Servant of God Julia Greeley, one of seven African-American Catholics on the path to sainthood. She is one of two such candidates born into slavery in Ralls County, Missouri during the mid-19th century, alongside Venerable Augustus Tolton. Freed during the Civil War, she emigrated to Colorado with her employer and became a Catholic due to their influence. There she would become known as "Denver's Angel of Charity" despite her own poverty, assisting the destitute at night so as not to offend her white beneficiaries. She died in 1918 and was the first and only Catholic layperson to lay in repose in the city—later becoming the first buried in the cathedral. May her legacy of service live on in all of us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 3:1-11a, 16-17a; Mark 12:18-27 (355).

"When they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like the angels in heaven."

Thursday, Jun 08, 2023

Love begets love

It's June, a popular month for weddings in North America. Church teachings about marriage varied for the first millennium. Today they communicate high ideals, resting on this basic framework, paraphrased from the Catechism of the Catholic Church: God loves us with a definitive and irrevocable love; married couples share in this love, which supports and sustains them. Their faithfulness to each other witnesses God's persistent love. Many are called to marriage, but others follow a different path. How has God called you to share the love poured out on you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 6:10-11; 7:1bcde, 9-17; 8:4-9a; Mark 12:28-34 (356). "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength."

A troubled land calls for compassion

Saint Ephrem of Syria was a prolific writer of poetry, hymns, poems, sermons, and biblical commentaries. He has been called the most significant of all the fathers of the Syriac-speaking church tradition. He addressed the church in Syria in troubled times ... and Syria's troubles continue, perhaps never more acutely than today. Already suffering badly the devastation of 12 years of ruthless suppression, in February it suffered a devastating earthquake that killed more than 7,000 people and devastated more than 10,000 buildings in northwest Syria. The U.N. reports that more than 4 million Syrians, mostly women and children, depend on humanitarian aid to survive. Mercy USA invites donations for housing for destitute Syrians. Consider a donation in honor of Ephrem.

MEMORIAL OF EPHREM OF SYRIA, DEACON, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 11:5-17; Mark 12:35-37 (357). "I am certain that his eyes will be opened."

The widow's mite revisited

It is ironic that the story of the widow's mite in today's gospel is so often used as an example of generous giving when it's obvious that giving "all she had, her whole livelihood" had left her destitute and penniless. Jesus actually uses the widow's action as an example of what happens when the unscrupulous clergy of his day, with their long robes and the esteem of the people, "devour the houses of widows." The lesson is for religious leaders not to push poor people into deeper poverty. Pray for your pastors.

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 12:1, 5-15, 20; Mark 12:38-44 (358). "They devour the houses of widows . . . They will receive a very severe condemnation."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
