The Sheep and the Goats

The Lord will sit on His heavenly throne. All the nations will be gathered before Him. He will separate the people as a shepherd separates the sheep and the goats – the sheep on the right and the goats on the left.

Help the sheep get to the pen on the right.
Help the goats get to the pen on the left.

To the people on the right, He will say these words ...

THY KINGDOM COME!

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe– Pam Shields

On this last Sunday of the liturgical year we honor Christ's victory over death and reign in eternal glory, for today we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. We honor a King whose reign is not one of power but of mercy, not one of self-service but self-giving, not one of material wealth but of eternal salvation. Enthroned in heaven, Jesus is robed in glory and majesty as King of Kings... "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" Mark 11:9

Today's feast points to the mystery of God's will purposed in Christ (Anointed One and Redeemer), put into effect, when at the end of time, the kingdom will be established in all its fullness brining unity to all things in heaven and on earth under Christ. "All power in heaven and earth has been given to me." Matthew 28:18

For the Feast of Christ the King, the sanctuary will be decorated in the colors of gold and white.

Gold symbolizes majesty, joy, and Jesus' sovereignty as Lord and King. White symbolizes light, peace, purity, truth, and Christ's resurrection and coming into glory. Our celebration will begin with a procession of gold and white flags. Father Denis, Father Anish, and the Deacons will don gold and white vestments. Draped gold and white fabric with white flowers will be displayed on the altar and in the baptismal niche a crown, for a king... "To him be glory and power forever and ever." 1 Peter 5:11

The gift of (sacred) music has played an important and powerful role in the life of the church, in proclaiming, praying, and responding to the Word of God, drawing the congregation into an encounter with the living Word of God, who is Christ. For the Feast of Christ the King our voices will ring out... "Crown Him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne: Hark! How the heavenly anthem drowns all music but its own! Awake my soul, and sing of Him who died for thee, and hail Him as thy matchless King through all eternity."

Hymn text: Dan Forrest

CREATION CARE CORNER

Electricity generation contributes significantly to earth warming greenhouse gas emissions. Consider and shop for green electricity sources for your home.

One simple way is to use a 2nd party provider that guarantees to repurchase certified wind or solar power equivalent to your household demand. You'll be reducing your environmental footprint and supporting renewable energy growth. The process should be seamless: no equipment or service interruption required. Compare rates and select a supplier where the clean energy charge is the same or at a negligible increase. Compare to:

www.aepenergy.com/residential/renewable-energy/ (QR code to the right.)

You can also explore community solar (CS) as another alternative. There are no panels on your roof. With CS you "subscribe" to get the equivalent amount of power that your home uses generated from a remote solar farm.

With both alternatives, select a provider with no sign-up or exit fees, where you can quit any time if you find a better deal, and where you can still be billed and serviced by your current utility. The switch should be seamless.

"The pace of consumption, waste and environmental change. . . can only precipitate catastrophes...". "Truly much can be done!" – Pope Francis

Coats for Kids 2023

Bring gently used (minimal signs of wear) or new coats, mittens, hats, etc. to this year's Breakfast with Santa! Our goal this year is 250 coats.

Coats for Kids

Approximately 18 percent of American children and 14 percent of Canadian children live in poverty.¹ Many low-income families have scarce resources to cover even the most basic essentials. These members of our community need help to provide the vital necessity of a winter coat.

Background

The Knights of Columbus launched the Coats for Kids program to ensure that every child in need would have access to a warm winter coat. Since the program started in 2009, councils have purchased and distributed more than 800,000 new winter coats to children throughout North America.

How it works...

Local Knights of Columbus councils identify areas of need in our communities by working with local schools, police and fire departments and Child Services. We buy new winter coats of different sizes and styles to meet those needs and hold events to connect families with the coats.

"We need to see each child as a gift to be welcomed, cherished and protected..."

— Pope Francis

Gospel Meditation

November 26, 2023- Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, "What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?"

I'm a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king's most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, "this is our king" is to say, "we exist as a community, and we have a future." Kingship isn't primarily about the power of one person or family. It's about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It's not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let's be sure to crown the right one — the one whose kingdom never ends.

Contemplative Moment

"Wisdom enters through love, silence, and a willingness to be humbled." —St. John the Cross

Practicing Catholic– Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The King Comes Holding a Mirror-By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Of all the many wonderful, thorough examinations of conscience I have come across, the one I normally utilize is very simple, and perfectly suited to someone like me who is not capable of profound thought at the end of the day.

It's just one very short question: Which Christs did I not recognize today?

The King always comes in disguise, and I know I miss him in so many ways every single day. I miss him in people ignored or dismissed. I miss him in opportunities avoided and in moments that could have turned into prayer but instead turned into phone-scrolling. I miss him when he is right in front of me, holding up a mirror and calling my name, begging for my conversion of heart.

The Christian life calls us to constant self-scrutiny. It's not a comfortable life, always thinking about what you could do better, but the Lord shepherds us rightly. His pastures have nothing to offer those who are perfect and strong.

He has gone in search of the lost. He has reclaimed those who have strayed, healed those who were injured, given rest to those who were weary.

We can't be followers of Christ if we are not willing to own our sins. God's mercy does not dismiss our sins, as if they never existed and were not important.

No, it does something far, far better — God's mercy absolves our sins. It sets us free from them. But to be truly free, you have to understand the tyranny of what once enslaved you.

"And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." — Matthew 25:32

The Year of Eucharistic Revival– Draw Closer to the Eucharist

Eucharistic Miracle of Betania, Venezuela– 1991

"This Eucharistic Miracle occurred during the midnight Mass of December 8, 1991, at the Marian Shrine of Finca Betania in Cúa, Venezuela. Father Otty, Chaplain of the Shrine, thus describes the event: "After having consumed one of the pieces of the large Host which I had divided into 4 parts, I returned them to the paten. A little later I looked down towards the paten and I could not believe what I saw: one of the pieces of the Host that I divided was showing a red spot and from It a red substance began to emanate, similar to the manner in which blood escapes from a wound. After Mass, I took the Host and preserved It safely in the sacristy of the Shrine. The next day, at 6 in the morning, I went to see the Host and verified that some blood continued to flow that a little later began to dry. However, still today, the blood appears as fresh. The strange thing is that the blood flowed only from one side of the Particle, nevertheless, without staining the remainder of the Eucharistic species". During the Mass there were numerous pilgrims who immediately verified that the priest did not have wounds from which the blood present in the Host could have flowed. Besides, from the analyses, the result concluded that the blood of the priest did not match the one of the Particle. The Host of the Miracle was subjected to some special studies, requested by the then Bishop of Los Teques, H. E. Most Reverend Pio Bello Ricardo, and the results confirmed that the blood was human blood of type AB positive which matches the one found in the cloth of the Shroud of Turin and in the Host of the Eucharistic Miracle of Lanciano, that occurred in Italy in 750 AD and was analyzed by 500 commissions of the World Health Organization. Since then the Host has been an object of veneration and of devotion on the part of thousands of pilgrims coming not only from Venezuela but from the whole world. It is possible to go to the convent of the Augustinian Recollects Nuns of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Los Teques to see the miraculous Host all the days of the year at any hour in their chapel devoted to Perpetual Adoration..."

Save the best for last

The film industry has always had a love affair with the afterlife. From It's a Wonderful Life to Heaven Can Wait to Ghost to Flatliners, stories remind us that our choices in this world have ramifications in the next. More recent shows—Dead Like Me, The Good Life, After Life, and Hotel del Luna among many others—are less traditionally religious but no less curious about what comes next. Every culture and generation seems to sense the need for spirit guides and guardians, as well as justice and an hour of reckoning. As the church year closes, contemplate the ledger of your years. Does it add up to a heavenly ending?

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17; 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28; Matthew 25:31-46 (160). "He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.'"

Conversion can be revolutionary

British poet Alice Meynell, who died on this day in 1922, converted to Catholicism while recovering from chronic illness, and her writing thereafter turned to religious subjects. She married a Catholic newspaper publisher and founded a Catholic suffragist organization. When a British priest preached against giving women the right to vote because it would risk "bringing a revolution of the first magnitude," Meynell replied, "...the vaster the magnitude of the revolution, the better." One hundred years after her death, the struggle for equality continues. How do the teachings of Jesus inform your work for justice?

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 1:1-6, 8-20; Luke 21:1-4 (503). "She, from her poverty, has offered her whole livelihood."

Little lamb, who made thee?

Happy birthday to the English poet William Blake, born this day in 1757. Though not Catholic, he's inspired great Catholic poets and many of his poems—like "Jerusalem"—became hymns. Trappist monk Thomas Merton wrote his master's thesis on Blake, emphasizing his spiritual significance in Seven Storey Mountain: "His rebellion ... was fundamentally the rebellion of the saints. It was the rebellion of the lover of the living God, the rebellion of the one whose desire of God was so intense and irresistible that it condemned, with all its might, all the hypocrisy and petty sensuality and skepticism and materialism" of organized religion. Pray for all who search for God but find obstacles in religious institutions—and enjoy Blake's "The Lamb."

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 2:31-45; Luke 21:5-11 (504). "Jesus said, 'All that you see here—the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down.'"

Gracious encounters of the digital kind

Did you buy anything on Cyber Monday? Did you make a charitable donation yesterday, on Giving Tuesday? Whether you did or not, this week's digital focus continues today, which is recognized as Electronic Greetings Day. Pope Francis' 2020 encyclical Fratelli Tutti considers how the internet is a powerful tool and how it's our job to use it in a way that makes the world better.

"We need constantly to ensure that present-day forms of communication are in fact guiding us to generous encounter with others," he writes. Make time today to send an encouraging email or ecard to someone who needs to hear from you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 5:1-6, 13-14, 16-17, 23-28; Luke 21:12-19 (505). "The writing I will read for you, O king, and tell you what it means."

Be a first responder

Is there an Andy, Andre, or Andrea in your life? Whether they know it or not, they bear the name of the Apostle Andrew, one of the fishermen Jesus famously called to be "fishers of men." The Eastern church recognizes Andrew as the first to be called by Jesus. Tradition has it that Andrew was crucified on an X-shaped cross because he felt unworthy to die on a cross identical to Christ's. Andrew led the way in accepting Jesus' invitation to follow him. How will your life today respond to that invitation?

FEAST OF ANDREW, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 10:9-18; Matthew 4:18-22 (684). "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Compassionate in the face of controversy

St. Vincent Medical Center in Manhattan, now closed, was in the eye of the AIDS epidemic storm of the 1980s and 1990s. A Catholic hospital run by the Sisters of Charity, St. Vincent opened its doors to care for those who were sick and dying from AIDS. Some staff disagreed with this stance and left. But not the sisters. They stayed true to Jesus' command to care for the suffering, especially those cast aside by society. They entered into dialogue with the gay community, activists, and hospital administrators to better understand their patients and how best to serve them. May we remember their unwavering commitment and compassion—and do likewise.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:2-14; Luke 21:29-33 (507). "Know that the Kingdom of God is near."

Be a freedom fighter

The term modern slavery covers practices such as forced labor, debt bondage, forced marriage, and human trafficking ... situations of exploitation enforced by violence, coercion, or deception. Here's the shocking news: Modern slavery has increased significantly in the past five years. Ten million more people, largely women and children, were trapped in modern slavery in 2021 compared to 2016, bringing the total estimate to 50 million worldwide. Our God is a God of freedom, who releases us from bondage of all kinds. On this U.N. International Day for the Abolition of Slavery, raise your voice in a phone call, email, or letter to elected officials. Let's put an end to this!

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:15-27; Luke 21:34-36 (508). "Be vigilant at all times."
