ADULT FAITH FORMATION AND FELLOWSHIP

Ministry Spotlight

Little Dresses of Love

This ministry provides another way for our parishioners to make a connection with and serve people in underprivileged areas around the world and here in the U.S. Sewers and non-sewers are invited to join our ministry. While we start with a basic pattern, we encourage creativity. Contact Patti Kenehan for more information at pkenehan@att.net.

Adult Faith Formation

Adult Faith Formation plans and implements Bible Studies and Faith building opportunities on a regular basis at the parish. Our goal is to offer opportunities to build both our personal relationships with Christ and our community through these offerings. Be on the lookout for different faith offerings throughout the year. If you would like to get connected to help us lead and plan these initiatives, please contact Joanne Cavedine at jmc7981@gmail.com.

Medical Ministry

The Medical Ministry provides us with first responders during mass and other church events. Interested persons with medical training (eg: doctors, nurses, physician assistants, paramedics, etc.) are invited and encouraged to be part of this important ministry. Contact Steve Jewell at sjewellpe@gmail.com for more information.

Usher Ministry

The Usher Ministry seeks to provide a welcoming, comfortable, safe and prayerful experience for Mass-goers. Ushers assist in welcoming & seating people attending Masses and other church events, handle offertory/special collections, direct the flow of people for communion, assist people with finding the restrooms, passing out bulletins, and straightening up church after Mass. We are also responsible for coordinating emergency and safety situations. You must be at least 18 years of age to be an Usher. Contact Steve Jewell at sjewellpe@gmail.com for more information.

Centering Prayer

Centering Prayer is a method of silent prayer which prepares us to receive the gift of contemplative prayer. It is both a relationship with God and a discipline to foster that relationship. It is not meant to replace other forms of prayer, but to add depth of meaning to all prayer. Our group is a member of the Columbus Chapter of Contemplative Outreach, which meets via zoom on Tuesdays at 10:30 am. Contact Carol Lepley at carol.lepley@gmail.com for more information.

The New Albany Food Pantry

The New Albany Food Pantry is located at 79 N. High St. and is right around the corner from COTR. The pantry is open to anyone living in the 43054 zip code or if your child attends Plain Local Schools. We are a shop through pantry and open the 2nd and 4th weeks of each month. We have volunteer opportunities as well as accepting food donations. For more info, please contact Claudette Herbig at herbig0511@gmail.com.

VOLUNTEERS FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

If you are planning to volunteer for any of our ministries involving children and/or youth, and are 18 years old or older, it is required that you have a background check performed and attend a Protecting God's Children seminar before your first volunteer activity.

Please go to www.virtusonline.org to find locations, dates, and times to register. If you have questions, please contact Regina Quinn at the Diocesan Offices at 614-241-2565.

Due to the sensitive nature of the Protecting God's Children program, some victims of child sexual abuse may not feel comfortable attending a Protecting God's Children training session. Anyone in this particular situation may request to receive the materials needed for child protection training in an alternate way. These requests are made through the Safe Environment Office. All requests for alternate child protection training for victims of child sexual abuse are kept confidential. Please call Regina Quinn 614-241-2568 to request this alternative training.

SET THE SCENE OF LENT— GOING THROUGH THE DESERT

We often refer to Lent with imagery of deserts referring back to Jesus spending 40 days in the desert leading up to his crucifixion. This Lent consider “setting the scene” in your home with some visual cues of the season, such as a cactus. Many of us probably have house plants which we care for and watch grow, but how many of us have cacti?

This Lent, consider adding a cactus to your home as a reminder of Jesus in the desert. Not a house plant person or afraid the cat or dog might have a run in with it? Try making a cardboard cactus instead. This could also be a great activity to do with children to start the season of Lent. See instructions below from the book Living the Seasons for making your own cardboard cactus.

Supplies:

- Cardboard
- Pencil
- Scissors or box cutter
- Acrylic paint in green and white
- Paintbrushes
- Terra-cotta pots (or cups to paint)
- Soil or craft paper

“For each cactus, draw a cactus shape on cardboard. Cut 2 copies. Lay them next to each other and with scissors or box cutter make a small slit up from the bottom on one and down on the other. Slide them into each other to test that they sit well together, then take them apart and paint green. You can paint little spikes with white as well. Once dry, put them together and “plant” them in the pots filled with soil or craft paper. Place in your prayer area as a reminder of the Lenten desert.”

Week One | Restore: Lent with Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT

In the Week One video for the Restore Lent series, Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT, reflects on the theme of the week—the desert. She explains that Jesus is inviting you to move beyond your comfort zone and into the deepest places of your heart with him. It is Jesus who helps you root out the sin, sickness, and self-hatred in your life. Sr. Miriam assures us that we can look to him for comfort, love, and healing.

LENTEN CHANT- AGNUS DEI (LAMB OF GOD)

The use of Latin in the celebration of Mass dates back to the fourth century. Historically it has been referred to as the “universal language of the Church” and continues today to be part of many Catholic liturgies. Recently, our Diocese has recommended that parishes include Latin/chant in our liturgies. The Gradual, that is, the parts of the Mass that do not change (Eucharistic Acclamations), have always been encouraged to be sung in Latin. Not until after the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965) did Bishops have the authority to use the “vernacular” language in the celebration of the Mass, that is, the spoken language of the people. Many people were led to believe that it was the intention of Council to eliminate the use of Latin altogether. In fact, the Council stressed the preservation of the use of Latin in the liturgy; “All the faithful should be able to sing or say in Latin the parts of the Mass which concern them”. It is further stated that; “...the bishops are to take special care to see that the use of Latin does not disappear completely....” The use of Latin gives us a sense of the Church throughout the world as a single family, undivided by language and culture, that we are not so many members of a parish community or a diocesan family, but members of the one Church which is united in the one celebration of the Eucharist. For the season of Lent, we will be introducing the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) In Latin. The chant for this portion of the Eucharistic Prayer can be found on the parish website and in the bulletin. Let us welcome, and sing, this part of our church’s history as we give glory to God together with all the angels and saints. See the music and lyrics below.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi miserere nobis

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi miserere nobis

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi dona nobis pacem

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

SPECIAL LENTEN ADORATION WITH EXPOSITION

Adoration with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will be held in the Reservation Chapel located behind the main altar each Thursday during Lent, beginning February 15 and continuing through March 21. The hours of Exposition will begin at 9:30 AM and continue non-stop until 9 PM. Out of respect for the exposed Blessed Sacrament, we need at least two Guardians of the Eucharist for each hour of adoration, who will guarantee to be there during the hour(s) for which they commit.

Simply go to the Home Page of our parish website, www.COTRNA.org, and choose the hour(s) to which you are committing for the six Thursdays of Lent. You will need to register separately for each hour if you are committing to multiple Thursdays. If you cannot commit to all six Thursdays, simply choose those days and hours to which you can commit.

If you have any questions or need more information, please contact: John Hodges at jphodges@aol.com or (614) 395-1739

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP RECOMMENDATION:

Fast for Creation Care

2023 was the hottest year on record. Pope Francis continues to remind us that irresponsible consumption patterns and their associated carbon pollution have a very real and negative impact on the poor. The prophet Isaiah suggested that the only kind of fasting worth our time is fasting that "breaks unjust bonds, ... and does not turn its back on its own" (Is. 58:6-7). Consider taking decisive steps this Lenten season to hear "the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor," and to reduce energy consumption.

Simple individual steps you can take include eating less meat, eating lower on the food chain, driving and flying less, adjusting the thermostat, wasting less water, generating less plastic waste and stepping-up your personal advocacy. This message is even more urgent now because of our planet's ecological crisis, which has as its root causes overconsumption and misuse of the earth's resources.

"Creation is groaning... and awaits human beings who will preserve it in accordance with God." — Pope Benedict XVI

WHAT IS GREENER LENT?

Greener Lent is a Lenten program based on the Lenten Tradition of prayer, fasting and alms giving. Lent is designed to prepare our hearts to celebrate the Lord's resurrection. According to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, "We are called not only to abstain from luxuries during Lent, but to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully." GOSPEL MEDITATION

February 18, 2024-1st Sunday of Lent

When I feel down, I sometimes watch the famous "Double Rainbow" video on YouTube to feel better. It's hilarious. A young man camping in Yosemite Park sees two rainbows stretching across the sky. He bursts into a kind of ecstasy. "Double rainbow, all the way! Oh my God!" he announces. Then he starts to weep. He cries out, "What does it mean?" Beneath the humor of his glorious overreaction is the deep intuition we all have, I think, when we see the colorful bow in the sky. This Sunday, God sends a rainbow to Noah, and to us. What does it mean?

Long before YouTube had the double rainbow, Dante's medieval poem The Divine Comedy featured one in his image of paradise. Seeing two rainbows, he muses that one is born of the other. The bow is God's promise of peace. For Dante, it's even more: nature's encrypted image of the Trinitarian God. One visible rainbow (God the Son) is begotten of another usually invisible one (God the Father) united by invisible light between them (God the Spirit). Like invisible light, Trinitarian glory surrounds us in every moment — but Jesus has made it visible in his glorious body.

Lenten challenge: This might seem silly, but this Lent I invite you to find a rainbow and meditate on it. You might have to make one yourself, like this current desert-dweller will. Gaze on it. See there a natural gift from the Creator, saying to you, "Here I am! I will love and protect you, surrounding you in My glory." This Lent let's embrace that with confidence, rain, or shine.

— Father John Muir

PRACTICING CATHOLIC— RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Lent and the Flood By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

I would bet money that somewhere in your church this Lent, there's a bare tree branch draped in purple fabric and an empty bowl filled with rocks.

I'm not poking fun, the desert imagery that surrounds the season of Lent isn't a cliché — or if it is, it's only because clichés are essentially true. Lent is the desert. Lent is the wilderness. Lent is the time of less.

But what if Lent was also the flood?

It seems counterintuitive, floods are excessive, and we don't think of Lent as a time for superabundance. Lent is when we limit experiences outside of ourselves in order to limit proclivities within ourselves. Lent is not a time for anything to be washing over us, consuming us, carrying us away on a tide.

Unless...it is.

Consider the flood of the Old Testament. An act of destruction, yes, but also an act of purification. An endurance test for the soul, an epic trust fall exercise between God and Noah in which Noah had to ride the literal waves, clinging to life as God wiped away everything familiar. Everything sinful.

In Lent, we relinquish our weaknesses and our infirmities to the flood. It's frightening, certainly. But it's also exciting. Because just as the flood destroys everything, it also makes everything possible. It is a baptism.

Lent, like the flood, makes the world new.

"Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit." — 1 Peter 3:18

The Year of Eucharistic Revival— Draw Closer to the Eucharist

EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLE OF SCETE, EGYPT— FIFTH CENTURIES

"Bonum versale de Apibus is the work written by an eye witness of the miracle: the Dominican Father Thomas de Cantimpré, doctor of theology and "suffragan" Bishop of Cambrai. On the day of Easter in 1254 in the Church of St. Amato in Douai, a priest who was distributing Holy Communion unintentionally dropped a consecrated Host to the ground. Immediately he bent down to pick up the Sacred Species, but the Host lifted up in flight and lighted on the purificator. A little later, a wonderful Child appeared there Who all the faithful and religious present in the celebration could contemplate. The news spread quickly, and the Bishop of Cambrai, Thomas de Cantimpré, came immediately to Douai to verify the facts in person, which he described in this manner: "I went to the Dean of the Church, followed by many faithful, and I asked to see the miracle. The Dean opened the small case in which he had reposed the Host of the miracle, but initially I didn't see anything special. "I was conscious though, that nothing could prevent me from seeing, as was true of the others, the Sacred Body. I didn't even have time to ask myself this type of question, when I scarcely looked at the Host and saw the face of Christ crowned with thorns with two drops of Blood that descended on His forehead. Immediately I knelt, and crying, I began to thank God". It is certain that already by the year 1356, that is, one century after the apparition, every year on Wednesday of Holy Week, a feast in memory of the miracle of the Blessed Sacrament was celebrated, and the document which records it indicates that this event was in existence already for a long time. The precious relic of the miracle was conserved and honored until the Revolution. Then all signs of this marvel were lost for many years. In October 1854, the Pastor of the Church of St. Peter by chance discovered underneath the Christ in the Altar of the Dead, a small wooden box containing a small Host, still white, but with damaged edges. A letter written in Latin gives witness: "I, the undersigned, Canon of the distinguished collegial Church of St. Amato, certify it to be the real and true Host of the holy miracle, which I removed from imminent danger of profanation and which I have happily collected. I have placed the Host in this pyx and have left this witness, written by my own hand, for the faithful who will discover the Sacred Miracle in the future (January 5, 1793)".
