O Sacred Heart of Jesus, fountain of eternal life, Your Heart is a glowing furnace of Love. You are my refuge and my sanctuary.

O my adorable and loving Saviour, consume my heart with the burning fire with which Yours is inflamed.

Pour down on my soul those graces which flow from Your love. Let my heart be united with Yours. Let my will be conformed to Yours in all things. May Your Will be the rule of all my desires and actions. Amen.

Annual Global Rosary Relay

On the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, June 11, the Diocese of Burlington will participate in the annual Global Rosary Relay at 2 p.m.

Burlington Bishop Christopher Coyne will lead the rosary, which will be livestreamed from St. Joseph Cathedral in Burlington.

Beginning at midnight on June 11, various locations from more than 100 countries will begin praying the rosary every half hour, passing it along to the next location until the entire world will be encircled in the rosary just before midnight of the next day.

The Diocese of Burlington will receive the relay from the St. Dominic Priory at Our Lady of the Rosary in Haverstock Hill, London, and say the Sorrowful Mysteries. The relay will then go to Our Lady of Lourdes Shrine in Euclid, Ohio.

In 2002 Pope John Paul II announced the annual World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests to take place on the Feast of the Sacred Heart. The first global rosary relay was launched in 2009 and has been an annual event since. "This relay serves as a gift from the laity to our wonderful priests to show our love and appreciation," said Valerie Parzyck of the Office of Evangelization and Catechesis for the Diocese of Burlington.

MONTHLY FOOD COLLECTION

This weekend is our monthly Food Collection for our local Foodshelf. Non-perishable items may be brought to the Church and placed in the baskets at the church doors. 'Especially requested are pasta, pasta sauce, canned tuna, and coffee, but any donations will be welcome. Our neighbors in need will be most grateful.

We have now returned to our observance of Ordinary time, following the 90-day liturgical season of Eastertide. We begin with two Sundays dedicated to the Holy Trinity and The Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). These two feasts are followed by two more which fall on weekdays: the twin Feasts of The Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. These are all movable feasts, connected, as they are, to Pentecost. As it was, I celebrated my First Mass on Corpus Christi, 40 years ago next Sunday.

The dogma of the Holy Trinity was revealed as “theophany” (manifestation of God) as differentiated from an “epiphany” (manifestation of Jesus). This was entirely new thinking for the Chosen People, to whom this whole idea sounded like a form of polytheism, a type of religion favored by pagans in their worship and fear of many gods. To say that “God is three, and God is One” was the beginning of the Jewish hierarchy’s desire to be rid of this troublemaker Jesus. Jesus, presented as the Second Person of this Trinity, sounded blasphemous, for Yahweh was the singular God of the heavens who manifests Himself to Abraham, Moses and the Prophets in an invisible voice, but never enters into humanity.

Our belief in God as Holy Trinity was revealed by Jesus Himself, who spoke of the First Person as “Father” and the Third Person as “Holy Spirit,” a triune manifestation of the One God. We speak this mystery sometimes speedily and thoughtlessly when making the sign of the Cross, yet each time we do, we renew ourselves in our Baptismal Promises as we recall in reciting the Creed at Mass. It was said that St. Bernadette of Lourdes was so intensely pious when making the Sign of the Cross, that the other Nuns in her convent were often brought to tears.

The Feast of Corpus Christi, recently renamed in English, “The Body and Blood of Christ” celebrates our belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist: Body and Blood, soul and divinity. Other Christians may have a Communion Service, and some of them even similar to our Holy Mass, but they see the Presence of Christ as symbolic, more of a remembrance than a “making present” as we do at Mass. Therefore, the entity of their communal service is not the same as that of Catholicism, which is why we do not practice inter-Communion. Each time the Priest-Celebrant utters the words of Consecration, the miracle of transubstantiation takes place: the sacrifice of Calvary is extended through time to the present, so we’re not re-enacting, but participating in the Lord’s actual Crucifixion as an “unbloody sacrifice” beyond the limitations of time and space.

This leads us to the Feast of the Lord’s Sacred Heart this Friday and the Immaculate Heart of Mary this Saturday. These images are depicted iconically first, as Our Lord’s heart, surrounded by a crown of thorns, topped by a flame and a cross. The Blessed Mother’s Immaculate Heart looks similar: a heart surrounded by a crown of roses, topped with a flame, but pierced with a sword, as prophesied by St. Simeon. We reverence these images of Sacred and Immaculate Hearts as a goal to which we aspire: the self-sacrificing Heart of Jesus, and the heart open to the Will of God of Our Blessed Mother.

If we remain open in mind to the central mysteries of our faith of the Holy Trinity and The Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, and allow our hearts to be aligned with the hearts of Jesus and Mary, our faith will accompany us throughout whatever the world can throw at us, and bring us peace. O Sacred Heart of Jesus, make my heart like unto Thine.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through Him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
He came down from heaven,

(Here we bow for the next line.)

... And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake, He was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church,
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A PARTICULAR REQUEST FOR PRAYERS

Father Lourduraja Simeone, former Pastor, has asked that we pray for the people in his native India, who continue to be hard hit by the corona pandemic.

Prayer to St. Joseph

Oh St. Joseph whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the Throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires.

Oh St. Joseph do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord; so that having engaged here below your Heavenly power I may offer my Thanksgiving and Homage to the most Loving of Fathers.

Oh St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine Head for me, and ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath.

St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls, pray for us.
Amen.
