SEPTEMBER 4: ST. ROSE

Rose was born in Viterbo, Italy. From a young age, she had a very strong love for Jesus. She lived during the time when Emperor Frederick had conquered the land and taken it from the church. As a girl of only 13, Rose would go into the streets of her town and preach to the people to stand against the Emperor and to stay faithful to the Pope. The Emperor and his men did not like Rose at all and eventually had her and her family sent out of the city. Rose was not scared because God had revealed to her that the Emperor would soon die. Very shortly after her family left Viterbo, the Emperor died and Rose and her family returned home. Rose died in 1252 at the age of 17. Her preserved body can still be viewed and venerated in Viterbo today.

YOU, ME, & IT

“Who can know God’s counsel, or who can conceive what the LORD intends?” In today’s Gospel, Jesus counsels us on on three obstacles to discipleship: relationships with our neighbor, ourselves and our stuff. None of these can get in the way of following Jesus, but all three of these relationships can assist us in becoming missionary disciples. First, Jesus tells us we must hate our neighbor to be his disciple, boy, does that sound contrary to the Gospel. We might ask ourselves - who in my life do I put ahead of our Lord? Then he shared with us how we must carry our own crosses and follow him. What cross(es) have I not embraced? Or, am I carrying someone else’s cross - a cross too many? Lastly, we are to renounce all our possessions. Think time, talent and treasure, and try to give it, live it and share it!
