We have a number of projects lined up, including to fertilize the lawn, adjust and lube front door hardware, sand and/or wax front doors for easy open/close, lube/adjust/tighten all window hardware, weather-strip/draft-proof all windows, vacuum church, vacuum/mop sanctuary floor, clean kneelers, edge sidewalk, prune trees as needed, clear drainage ditch from sidewalk to culvert. Please contact Jim Tabor at jamesmtabor@gmail.com if you will be attending at. Hope to see you there.

Bishop's Annual Appeal

The bishop's annual appeal supports vocations to ensure we have enough priests and deacons to support our parishioners. In May, Deacon Gregory Caldwell and Deacon Brandon Schneider were ordained to the priesthood. In addition, seven men celebrated the Rite of Acolyte in February, one of the largest groups of diaconal candidates to celebrate the Rite of Acolyte. ### Wisdom of the Saints

“Fly from bad companions as from the bite of a poisonous snake. If you keep good companions, I can assure you that you will one day rejoice with the blessed in Heaven; whereas if you keep with those who are bad, you will become bad yourself, and you will be in danger of losing your soul.” ~ St. John Bosco

“In confession there is mercy. Believe it firmly, do not doubt, do not hesitate, never despair of the mercy of God.” ~ St. Isidore of Seville

“Nothing seems tiresome or painful when you are working for a Master who pays well; who rewards even a cup of cold water given for love of Him.” ~ St. Dominic Savio

“Pride makes us forgetful of our eternal interests. It causes us to neglect totally the care of our soul.” ~ St. John Baptist de La Salle

Dear Parishioners,

I hope you're gearing up for a celebratory July 4th! Some of the happenings later on in July include the work day at OLS and the showing of the Chosen (with basketball to follow, of course!) See inside the bulletin for all the details.

I came across this reflection of John Henry Newman recently, and because he's an absolute boss, thought I would share it:

“God beholds thee individually, whoever thou art. He ‘calls thee by thy name.’ He sees thee, and understands thee, as He made thee. He knows what is in thee, all thy own peculiar feelings and thoughts, thy dispositions and likings, thy strength and thy weakness. He views thee in thy day of rejoicing, and thy day of sorrow. He sympathises in thy hopes and thy temptations. He interests Himself in all thy anxieties and remembrances, all the risings and fallings of thy spirit. He has numbered the very hairs of thy head and the cubits of thy stature. He compasses thee round and bears thee in his arms; He takes thee up and sets thee down. He notes thy very countenance, whether smiling or in tears, whether healthful or sickly. He looks tenderly upon thy hands and thy feet; He hears thy voice, the beating of thy heart, and thy very breathing. Thou dost not love thyself better than He loves thee. Thou canst not shrink from pain more than He dislikes thy bearing it; and if He puts it on thee, it is as thou would put it on thyself, if thou art wise, for a greater good afterwards. Thou art not only His creature (though for the very sparrows He has a care, and pitied the ‘much cattle’ of Nineveh), thou art man redeemed and sanctified, His adopted son, favoured with a portion of that glory and blessedness which flows from Him everlastingly unto the Only-begotten. Thou art chosen to be His, even above thy fellows who dwell in the East and South. Thou wast one of those for whom Christ offered up His last prayer, and sealed it with His precious blood. What a thought is this, a thought almost too great for our faith! Scarce can we refrain from acting Sarah’s part, when we bring it before us, so as to ‘laugh’ from amazement and perplexity. What is man, what are we, what am I, that the Son of God should be so mindful of me? What am I, that He should have raised me from almost a devil's nature to that of an Angel's? that He should have changed my soul's original constitution, new-made me, who from my youth up have been a transgressor, and should Himself dwell personally in this very heart of mine, making me His temple? What am I, that God the Holy Ghost should enter into me, and draw up my thoughts heavenward ‘with plaints unutterable?’

“These are the meditations which come upon the Christian to console him, while he is with Christ upon the holy mount. And, when he descends to his daily duties, they are still his inward strength, though he is not allowed to tell the vision to those around him. They make his countenance to shine, make him cheerful, collected, serene, and firm in the midst of all temptation, persecution, or bereavement. And with such thoughts before us, how base and miserable does the world appear in all its pursuits and doctrines!”

God bless,
Fr. Matthew
