MEMORARE TO ST. JOSEPH

Remember, most pure spouse of Mary ever Virgin, my loving protector St. Joseph, that never has it been known that anyone invoked your protection or besought your aid without being consoled. In this confidence I come before you; I fervently recommend myself to you. Despise not my prayer, foster father of our Redeemer, but graciously deign to hear it. Amen.

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY IN OUR FAITH

Although not defined as dogma until 1950, the Dormitio, or “falling asleep” of the Blessed Virgin Mary was celebrated as early as the 5th century in Rome. This is an example of the mysterium fidei: the faith of the lived Church defining dogma through tradition, rather than the didache, or the collected Teaching of the Church, established by the hierarchy. This doctrine of our Faith teaches that, at the very moment of her death, our Blessed Mother was assumed, body and soul, into heaven. Corruption of the body associated with death would not be allowed to touch her, since she was immaculately conceived, that is, without the effect of Original Sin. She “reigns now in heaven with Jesus our King”, as the hymn states, interceding for us before her Son.

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ!

PRAYER OF SAINT BONAVENTURE AFTER MASS

Pierce, O my sweet Lord Jesus, my inmost soul with the most joyous and healthful wound of your love, with true serene and most holy apostolic charity, that my soul may ever languish and melt with love and longing for you, that it may yearn for you and faint for your courts, and long to be dissolved and to be with you. Grant that my soul may hunger after you, the bread of angels, the refreshment of holy souls, our daily and supernatural bread, having all sweetness and savor and every delight of taste; let my heart hunger after and feed upon you, upon whom the angels desire to look, and may my inmost soul be filled with the sweetness of your savor; may it ever thirst after you, the fountain of life, the fountain of wisdom and knowledge, the fountain of eternal light, the torrent of pleasure, the richness of the house of God; may it ever compass you, seek you, find you, run to you, attain you, meditate upon you, speak of you and do all things to the praise and glory of your name, with humility and discretion, with love and delight, with ease and affection, and with perseverance unto the end; may you alone be ever my hope, my entire assistance, my riches, my delight, my pleasure, my joy, my rest and tranquility, my peace, my sweetness, my fragrance, my sweet savor, my food, my refreshment, my refuge, my help, my wisdom, my portion, my possession and my treasure, in whom may my mind and my heart be fixed and firm and rooted immovably, henceforth and forever. Amen.

THANK YOU

A huge thank you to all those who made this year’s celebration of the Feast Day of Our Lady of the Snows Church, and Chicken BBQ, a most enjoyable and fun event. Our parish has an outstanding group of dedicated volunteers. Thank you to each and every one of you. And to all those who came to enjoy not only the delicious food, but a lovely (albeit hot) social gathering, many, many thanks.

BISHOP’S FUND

This year we celebrate communion – communion in creed, communion in worship and communion in life. It is a time to consider how we are united in the doctrine and dogma of the Church and united in our worship, most especially in the celebration of the Mass. It is at Mass that we are privileged to hear the Word of God, celebrate the Eucharist and receive Holy Communion; As we make our way out of the Covid malaise to the new spring of the Church and our community, we have seen a significant increase in participation in our ministries throughout the Diocese.

We have much to celebrate but we need your support. All of our diocesan schools and several parishes received a total $1 million in grants from the diocese to address immediate capital needs. Many of these were immediate needs that had to be addressed to avoid additional damage and expense. To learn more or make a gift online visit: bishopsappealvt.org.
