a. Board Comments: none

b. Old Business:

Track or Treat- Still in need of volunteers to have a table. Voted to spend $600 for Halloween bags. Monica Arbogast motioned, and Corissa Bayer seconded, it passed. The idea of having Father bless the bags at a saint table was brought up.

Short term goals- Report was received and they are looking at it. Mr. Rodgers brought up maybe looking at a film for the windows so they would be more shatterproof.

Art to Remember- being sent out to parents.

c. New Business:

Title One Mrs. Beatty And Mrs. Morrison talked more about Title one and how important it is to fill out paperwork for free lunch or reduced lunch, even if you don't use it. That is how they fund the program. They are looking for a friendly pdf form that can be more accessible. February 22, 2023, Emerald Coast Science center is having a Science Night, the theme is space. They will have stations set up with different things.

St Nick Breakfast December 3rd- in progress, The Knights will be cooking along with St Peter's Knights. Will start asking for donations from companies in November.

Cafeteria volunteers- have hired a few more people. Now need substitutes. Need 60 hours of college to sub. Ask office for more information.

Ending time: 9:03 a.m.

Begin time: 8:05 a.m.

Holiday shop- People concerned about the quality of trinkets for the price. Natalie McClure offered to make bracelets again. Other ideas, buying from dollar tree, asking the community trades for donation or do something similar to track or treat. A small group is going to get together to brainstorm.

- Announcements:

Donate candy 10th thru 20th

Sonny's BBQ Fundraiser Wednesday 18th 11 am to 9 pm

Skate 8 fundraiser- Monica Arbogast set up a November 30th 2-hour slot for family skating, activity band is 12.99. Looking to do another one in February time frame.
