Twenty-Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

September 4th, 2022

"Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple . . .

Anyone who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

Luke 14: 25-33

Today's Gospel is the beginning of a treatise, unique to Luke's Gospel, on the nature and demands of discipleship. Jesus' sobering words in today's Gospel are meant to make us fully aware of the cost of discipleship before we embrace something we are not prepared for. The gift of grace comes at the price of the same cross awaiting Jesus in Jerusalem.

Some translations of today's Gospel ascribe rather harsh words to Jesus: in some texts, Jesus speaks of "turning one's back" on family; in other translations, the verb "hate" is used. A more precise translation of the idiom here is whoever prefers the love of family or self to Christ cannot be his follower.

The images of the unfinished tower and the king poorly prepared for battle illustrate the frustration and ultimate failure of the disciple who does not give himself/herself totally to the Gospel. When a follower of Jesus begins to hold anything back in imitating Christ, discipleship becomes a charade.

St. Michael's 100th Jubilee

Jubilee News: Sponsor update

There has been an encouraging amount of support for updating parish facilities and liturgical items. We are so grateful for your generosity!

The following items have been selected and provided by various benefactors of the church:

Cope and Humeral Veil; Holy water bucket; Altar candlesticks; St. Martin of Tours repair work; Sanctuary chairs.

There are other items we are hoping to have funding for soon. These items include:

Incense thurible; Server torches; Outside park benches; St. Michael statue repainting; Sacred Heart statue repair/painting.

If you are interested in donating towards any of the above, please speak to Fr. Cusick in person or contact him at the parish office: (240)681-3551.

Faith Formation 2022-23

Children (1st Grade and Up)

This year, our grade school students who attend public schools will again attend Faith Formation classes at Our Lady Help of Christians [OLHOC] in Waldorf. The classes provide our children with the opportunity to take part in a larger learning community of faith. Although the sacramental classroom preparation will occur at OLHOC, all sacraments will be received at St. Michael's or St. Dominic's.

Families may choose to attend class at OLHOC on Sundays from 9:45-11:15 AM, or Mondays from 6:45 – 8:15 PM. Class begins on September 18th/19th. We will also have a monthly Liturgy of the Word meeting for all children (ages 7-14) of the parish with Fr. Cusick at St. Michael's to keep connected with the students and their families.

All students enrolling in our program (public schoolers & homeschoolers) can register on our website:

stmichaelbaden.org/ccd-registration-form

Adults

If you know an adult who is interested in learning about Catholicism, they can attend adult faith formation classes! These classes are also for adult Catholics who have not received all their sacraments of initiation (baptism, reconciliation, first communion, and confirmation), as well as Catholics who simply want to learn more about their faith. Register online (even if you have attended in past years) at stmichaelbaden.org/becoming-catholic or call the parish office. Classes will be on Thursday evenings from 7-8 PM, starting September 15th.

To find out more, please contact the parish office at (240) 681-3551 or email joanna@stmichaelbaden.org.
