Jubilee Sunday

Twenty-Ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Oct. 16th, 2022

Special Note: There will be No 8 AM mass at St Michael on Oct. 16th in preparation for Cardinal Gregory's celebration of the 11:30 AM Jubilee Mass.

"There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come to him and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary . . .'"

Luke 18: 1-8

The judge in Jesus' parable read today is not one of the Jewish elders but a paid magistrate appointed by the Roman governors. These magistrates were notoriously corrupt, extorting money from plaintiffs to secure favorable verdicts. The widow, typically defenseless in such dealings, persists until the judge just wants to be rid of her.

Jesus does not liken God to the unfeeling, insensitive judge but contrasts God to him: If such persistence will finally move such an unfeeling and corrupt figure will not the God of mercy and love be moved by the cries of his own beloved people? The parable of the widow and the unjust judge (found only in Luke's Gospel) calls us to perseverance in prayer – prayer that seeks not to force God's hand but prayer that opens our hearts and minds to his always available grace.

World Mission Sunday

Oct. 22nd is World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis reminds us that in Baptism we are called by the Lord to be His missionaries: "You shall be my witnesses" (Acts 1:8). Joining Catholics worldwide we offer our prayers and generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to the Pope's missions.

- 844,00 catechists teaching the faith
- 258,540 Religious Sisters caring for children & families
- 38,140 seminarians preparing for the priesthood
- 26 million children in primary schools
- 12,000 clinics caring for the sick and dying
- 8,750 homes for orphaned children & the elderly

Your prayers are most treasured, and they, along with financial help offered today, World Mission Sunday, answers Christ's call to be His witnesses. Thank you!

The Roman Catholic
Archdiocese of Washington

The mission of The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington is to spread the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the world. In pursuit of this mission, the archdiocese is seeking a Human Resources Generalist located at the Pastoral Center in Hyattsville, MD.

The Human Resources Generalist will provide guidance on Archdiocesan benefits and policies and will assist the Office of Human Resources in the administration of those policies. In addition, the HR Generalist will assist in the coordination of paid leave benefits and responding to busy employee call line and emails, as well as maintain confidential files and HRIS records.

If you are a practicing Catholic with a bachelor's degree or an equivalent combination of education/experience with 2-3 years' experience as a Human Resources Generalist, please forward your resume and letter of interest to calla-russl@adw.org
