First Sunday of Advent

November 27th, 2022

During this first year of Eucharistic Revival, we will be publishing excerpts from "Why Stay Away? Encountering Heaven on Earth" published by Word on Fire Catholic Ministries, 2018.

The term "Mass" is derived from the concluding Latin words of the Roman Rite: "Ite, missa est" ("Go; it is the dismissal"). The later Latin word missa corresponds to the older Latin word missio. In antiquity, missa simply meant "dismissal." With Christian usage, however, it gradually took on a deeper meaning. The word missa has come to imply a mission, going out into the world filled with the Holy Spirit after being nurtured and fed by the Lord at the Mass.

The Mass holds the place of the supreme act of worship in the Church, using the highly ritualized Liturgy of the Word and Liturgy of the Eucharist. The Liturgy of the Word includes God's call to us through the Scriptures and our response to this call. The Liturgy of the Eucharist re-presents Christ's sacrificial death and resurrection and incorporates our gratitude for this saving sacrifice.

Ode to St. Cecilia

Audio Drama

Ode to Saint Cecilia tells the dramatic story of a modest young woman from Rome whose life transcends time to influence poets, composers, sculptors, and painters. A patron saint to some, a muse to others, Cecilia has inspired George F. Handel, John Dryden, Henry Purcell, Stefan Maderno, John Waterhouse, Paul Simon, and scores of other artists over the past 20 centuries.

Augustine Institute Radio Theatre's Ode to Saint Cecilia includes cinematic sound, original music, and the award-winning talents of highly-acclaimed British actors, including: Hayley Atwell, Sir Derek Jacobi, Brian Blessed, Dame Siân Phillips.

Set against the backdrop of the great sacrifice of her martyrdom, Ode to Saint Cecilia is ultimately a celebration of the important role of the arts in showing us the love of God through profound beauty.
