The Full Blessing of Pentecost

Whenever we speak of being filled with the Holy Spirit, and desire to know what it precisely is, our thoughts always turn back to the day of Pentecost. There we see as in a mirror how glorious the blessing is that is brought from heaven by the Holy Spirit and with which He can fill the hearts of men.

There is one fact which makes the great event of the day of Pentecost doubly instructive; this, namely, that we have learned to know very intimately the men who were then filled with the Spirit, by their life for three years with the Lord Jesus. Their infirmities and defects, their sins and perversities, all stand open to our view. But the blessing of Pentecost wrought a complete transformation. They became entirely new men, so that one might say of them with truth: "Old things have passed away: behold, all is become new." Close study of them and their example helps us in more than one way. It shows us to what weak and sinful men the Spirit will come. It teaches us how they were prepared for the blessing. It teaches us also (and this is the principal thing) how mighty and complete the revolution is that is brought to pass when the Holy Spirit is received in His fullness. It lets us see how glorious the grace that awaits us is if we press on to the full blessing of Pentecost.

All these facts teach us that there are two ways in which the Holy Spirit works in us. The first is the preparatory operation in which He simply acts on us but does not yet take up His abode within us, though leading us to conversion and faith and ever urging us to all that is good and holy. The second is the higher and more advanced phase of His working when we receive Him as an abiding gift, as an indwelling Person, concerning whom we know that He assumes responsibility for our whole inner being, working in it both to will and to do. This is the ideal of the full Christian life.

Eucharistic Revival Kick-Off

Eucharistic Procession for Corpus Christi from St. Michael's to St. Dominic's

June 11, 2:30 PM - 5.6 miles

To honor and glorify Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, we will process with Him down 381 for 5.6 miles. Here's what you need to know:

- The procession will begin at 2:30 at St. Michael's, and end around 4:30 at St. Dominic's.
- We will have a police car following the procession, making sure we are kept safe from all traffic.
- We will also have a car following the procession with extra water. It will also be there in case anyone needs an air-conditioned rest during the procession.
- If you are able to walk with us, be prepared for a hike! Be sure to wear good walking shoes, a hat and/or sunscreen, and bring water. Also, bring a rosary!
- If you are NOT able to join for the procession, we would love for you to meet us at St. Dominic's at 4:15 PM.
- Following the Procession, we'll have a picnic style cookout at St. Dominic's, hosted by the parishioners.
- A shuttle will be arranged to take people back to St. Michael's. The first shuttle will leave St. Dominic's around 5:30 PM. If anyone needs to be back earlier, that will be possible.

The Novena of Surrender to Jesus

Prayer Guide

"Do not be afraid, I will take care of things and you will bless My name by humbling yourself. A thousand prayers cannot equal one single act of surrender, remember this well." There is no novena more effective than this: "O Jesus, I surrender myself to You, take care of everything!" Produced by the Abbot's Circle and the Norbertine Fathers of St. Michael's Abbey, and presented by Fr. Charbel Grbavac, O.Praem., this novena reminds us of our need to trust in the love and grace of our Lord.
