*Reflection by St. Michael's Parishioner,
Elizabeth Watson*

When I was first asked to write a reflection on Adoration, I thought, what could little old me have to say that could possibly have meaning about Adoration? So, I will just begin with my weekly trip to Adoration. I am usually, more often than not, rushing to my Tuesday Adoration hour because I am signing off at work to spend my lunch hour with the Lord. As I drive to the church, my mind is racing with the list of tasks that will be waiting for me when I finish and all of life's many demands. I feel overwhelmed, exhausted, and just plain downright frazzled. But then, I enter the quiet church and kneel before my Lord!! I am reminded how lucky I am to be given this opportunity, and not to just be there at Adoration, but for my husband, my children, my grandchildren, my parents, my family, my friends, my job, my house, my health, my car (that brought me to my Adoration hour), and so much more.

Of course, there are some days I arrive, and my mind is heavy with worry, stress, or sadness. Again, there as I look upon my Lord, I am reminded of His love. Just like the loving Father he is, He will provide for me and has everything under control, no matter what I am facing.

Also, during some very difficult and troubling times, I had the utmost need to kneel before the Lord outside of my Adoration hour. During such times, it is a great comfort to know that He is available to me and waiting at the altar. It has always been there, on my knees, in His presence, that I have found peace during those very difficult times.

I pray that everyone would give just an hour to the Lord in honor of all that He has given to us and continues to give to us.

#Giving Tuesday – November 28th

Help St. Michael's Purchase a Playset!

Have you heard of Giving Tuesday? In recent years, "Giving Tuesday" has been widely promoted, following on the heels of Black Friday and Cyber Monday. The idea is to not only to spend money shopping this week, but also to remember to give to charitable organizations as the year draws to a close.

This Giving Tuesday, we have an exciting request: we are raising funds to purchase a playset for our St. Michael's Homeschool Co-op and all our parish families. You may give on our website at stmichaelbaden.org or by check or cash designated for Giving Tuesday or Playset.

Please consider making your gift anytime between now and November 28th, Giving Tuesday.

Thank you for your generosity to the children of our parish!

RETIRED PRIESTS
COLLECTION 2023

adw.org/rpc • #LivesofService

The Retired Priests Collection is this weekend,
November 4th & 5th.

This collection will be taken up at parishes across The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington. The Archdiocese has 277 priests of whom 59 are retired. Thank you for supporting our priests!

ETERNAL REST™ THE ART OF DYING WELL

Eternal Rest: The Art of Dying Well

Exclusively on FORMED.

We all have very real questions about death. What happens when we die? What does Scripture teach about death? How do we prepare for the life to come? Explore the mystery of death, dying, and everlasting life through Eternal Rest, a new offering of the Augustine Institute.

Eternal Rest examines the origin of death, the afterlife, and the powerful reality around the sacrament that ushers us into eternal life. Eternal Rest presents the Catholic Church's teaching about death and God's response to it with wisdom and truth, gentleness and compassion, so we can think about and prepare for death in the light of Jesus Christ, the Author of life.

We pray that through Eternal Rest, God may give you greater peace, solace, and perspective.

In addition to watching the film series, visit EternalRest.org for practical resources, including 60+ videos of experts answering common questions about end-of-life medical care, funerals, legal documents, grief, and more. Purchase the Eternal Rest study guide on Catholic Market.
