Are you over age 72?

Then you must take a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) from your IRA and 401K retirement accounts by December 31st or face stiff penalties from the government.

You may be able to reduce income taxes by taking all or some of your RMD as a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD). In addition to benefiting St. Edward Church, a QCD can benefit you because it is excluded from taxable income. The distribution goes directly to St. Edward Church instead of to you and then to our parish.

In addition to not having to pay taxes on the RMD, by reducing taxable income, you may be able to derive additional credits or increase allowable deductions.

You will need to provide the following information to your financial advisor or IRA/401K Custodian:

In our parish we have a lot of kids that like to climb on our awesome brick wall along the sidewalk. I know it is tempting to do so, but we ask that you try to keep your kiddos from climbing on it. In the past few months, we have had several bricks fall off, and the mortar is starting to fail in some areas of the wall. For safety purposes, please do not let your kiddos climb on the brick wall. I know this will not be an easy thing to do, our awesome brick wall is very tempting!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 12, 2023; 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word. Today's parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude.

I'm serious. Take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark. — Father John Muir
