AUGUST 8-9 || CHARACTERISTICS OF DEVELOPMENTALLY APPROPRIATE BEHAVIORS

CARACTERÍSTICAS DE CONDUCTA APROPIADA PARA CADA

ETAPA DEL DESARROLLO

It is important to distinguish normal, age-appropriate curiosity from concerning sexual behaviors that may be inappropriate or potentially abusive. In general, developmentally appropriate behaviors will be playful, curious, and will be enacted among similar age groups. While these behaviors are not ideal in play, and should be discussed with children, they are typically not causes for concern. These moments can also serve as opportunities to talk about boundaries, appropriate behaviors and safe adults. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Differentiating age-appropriate curiosity from harmful sexual behavior and abuse in elementary aged children" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Es importante distinguir entre la curiosidad normal en los niños y los comportamientos sexuales que pueden causar preocupación o que pueden ser potencialmente abusivos. En general, este tipo de comportamiento entre los niños debe ser juguetón, curioso y se realizará entre grupos de la misma edad. Aunque comportamientos sexuales no son un elemento ideal del juego normalmente no son motivo de preocupación, y sí presentan una oportunidad para iniciar una conversación con el niño sobre los límites personales, comportamientos apropiados y quienes son personas de confianza.

Para más consejos e información lea el artículo de VIRTUS® "Cómo distinguir entre la curiosidad normal y la conducta sexual inapropiada y el abuso en niños" (Differentiating age-appropriate curiosity from harmful sexual behavior and abuse in elementary aged children) en

lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

*"Lord, if it is you,
command me to come
to you on the water."
He said, "Come."
Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water
toward Jesus.
But when he saw how strong the wind was
he became frightened;
and, beginning to
sink, he cried out,
"Lord, save me!"
Immediately Jesus
stretched out his hand
and caught Peter,
and said to him, "O
you of little faith,
why did you doubt?"
MATTHEW 14:22-*

33

*"Señor, si eres tú, mándame ir a ti
caminando sobre el agua". Jesús le contestó: "Ven". Pedro
bajó de la barca y
comenzó a caminar
sobre el agua hacia
Jesús; pero al sentir la fuerza del viento, le entró miedo, comenzó
a hundirse y gritó:
"¡Sálvame, Señor!"
Inmediatamente Jesús
le tendió la mano, lo
sostuvo y le dijo:
"Hombre de poca fe, ¿por qué dudaste?"*

ST. TERESA BENEDICTA OF THE CROSS
August 9

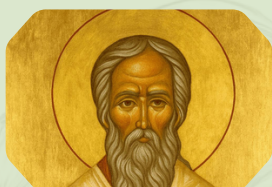

Edith Stein, also known as St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, was a Jewish-born German philosopher who converted to Catholicism after a deep spiritual journey and later became a Carmelite nun. During World War II, she was arrested by the Nazis because of her Jewish heritage and was killed at Auschwitz in 1942. Recognized for her profound faith and martyrdom, she was canonized by Pope St. John Paul II in 1998 and is now one of the patron saints of Europe.

ST. CLARE
August 11

St. Clare was born into a wealthy Italian family but left behind a life of privilege to follow Christ in poverty after being inspired by St. Francis of Assisi. She founded the community that became known as the Poor Clares and lived a life devoted to prayer, simplicity, and service. Her example reminds Christians to place their trust in God rather than in material possessions.

ST. HIPPOLYTUS
August 13

St. Pontian was pope and St. Hippolytus was a priest who had separated himself from the Church during a period of disagreement. Both were exiled to the harsh mines of Sardinia, where their shared suffering led to reconciliation. They died as martyrs, and their feast beautifully reminds us of the power of forgiveness, unity, and reconciliation in Christ.

ST. LAWRENCE
August 10

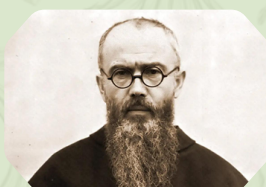

St. Lawrence was a deacon in Rome who served Pope St. Sixtus II and was responsible for caring for the Church's poor and distributing its charitable funds. During the persecution of Christians under Emperor Valerian, he was arrested and martyred for his faith in the year 258. Honored as a martyr from the earliest centuries of Christianity, St. Lawrence became one of the most beloved saints of the early Church and is the patron saint of deacons and the poor.

ST. PONTIAN
August 13

St. Pontian was pope and St. Hippolytus was a priest who had separated himself from the Church during a period of disagreement. Both were exiled to the harsh mines of Sardinia, where their shared suffering led to reconciliation. They died as martyrs, and their feast beautifully reminds us of the power of forgiveness, unity, and reconciliation in Christ.

ST. MAXIMILLIAN KOLBE
August 14

St. Maximilian Kolbe was a Polish Franciscan priest with a deep devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary who used modern communications to spread the Catholic faith. Imprisoned at Auschwitz during World War II, he voluntarily took the place of another prisoner who had been condemned to death. He died on August 14, 1941, becoming a powerful witness of sacrificial love and Christian charity.

ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
August 15

The Solemnity of the Assumption celebrates the Church's belief that Mary, the Mother of Jesus, was taken body and soul into the glory of heaven at the end of her earthly life. Celebrated by Christians for centuries, the Assumption was solemnly defined as a dogma of the Catholic faith by Pope Pius XII in 1950. Mary's Assumption points us toward the hope of resurrection and eternal life promised to all who remain faithful to Christ.
